

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION

PRESIDENT-ELECT OBREGON OF MEXICO IS SLAIN BY ASSASSIN-CARTONIST AT BANQUET IN CAFE

Era of Revolutions Is Feared In Southern Republic

CALLES EXPECTED TO WIELD STRONG HAND IN MEXICO

Death of New President
May Cause Present Chief
To Hold Office Though Claimed To Be Ineligible

MORONES IS LIKELY TO SETTLE ISSUE

Washington Sees Chance
That Assassination Will Cause All Factions to Join as One Nation.

Publisher Says More Crimes Will Follow

Los Angeles, July 17.—(United News.)—"An era of revenge and more crimes of this kind" was feared tonight by Ignacio E. Lozano, prominent Mexican publisher, who issued a statement in connection with the assassination of President-elect Obregon of Mexico. Lozano is publisher of La Opinion, a Los Angeles newspaper, and La Prensa, published in San Antonio, Texas.

"Many people will consider this crime as the logical result of the activities of General Obregon on account of the profound division created in Mexico by the revolutionary party of which he was the most notable leader.

"Unfortunately, I believe these assassinations will mark the beginning of an era of revenge and more crimes of this kind."

BY MAURITZ A. HALLGREN.
Washington, July 17.—(United News.)—General Alvaro Obregon, president-elect of Mexico who was assassinated near the capital today, was looked upon in government circles here as the principal hope for a continuation of a strong and stable government in the southern republic.

American authorities saw in his reelection to the presidency a guarantee that the new friendship between the two governments which had sprung up as a direct result of the conversations between Ambassador Morrow and President Calles would continue uninterrupted with Obregon in office.

Aided Oil Settlement.
The conversations, which led to the settlement of the decade-old petroleum law controversy and at last reports were paving the way to peaceful adjustment of other major disputes, had been publicly endorsed by the president-elect.

What effect Obregon's death may have on this new-born friendship and on Mexico's program to rehabilitate itself financially and economically, no one in official circles dared predict tonight. As one of the wealthiest men in Mexico and because of his keen interest in his government's financial program, being carried out under Calles, it was thought here that his administration Obregon would devote himself almost entirely to this problem.

While no formal comment was forthcoming from the state department or other administration quarters, it was said unofficially that the assassination would probably lead to a tightening of the drive against revolutionary activities in Mexico. It was believed that not only would the Calles-Obregon faction rally to the defense of the government, but that many moderate or half-hearted supporters of the present regime likewise would respond.

Government Supported.
When the ill-fated Serrano-Gomez insurrection burst forth last October public opinion in Mexico was almost unanimous in supporting the government's efforts to suppress the rebels. Should a revolutionary outbreak result from the general unrest which may be expected to follow the assassination, it is believed that President Calles will take strong, even radical measures to put it down. In some quarters it was suggested that such stern measures might be taken in anticipation of an insurrection.

In other quarters it was thought probable that Obregon's passing would lead to another reversion, although it was conceded that the government now has only one "strong" man left—President Calles.

The attitude which Louis Morones, minister of labor, commerce and education might take appeared to be a disturbing element in the situation. Morones has been the leader of the left or radical wing in the agrarian movement which brought Calles and Obregon into power. Of late he has

Doomed to Death in Chair,
MRS. EULA THOMPSON BROUGHT FROM MURRAY COUNTY
Young Woman Chats, Smiles

Photo by Walter Davis. MRS. EULA THOMPSON
Mrs. Eula Thompson, who has been sentenced to death in holdup murder, photographed for The Constitution at the Fulton county tower.

Although under sentence to die in the electric chair, pretty Mrs. Eula Thompson, 23, of Etowah, Tenn., appeared quite undaunted Tuesday afternoon at Fulton tower, where she was brought for safe keeping from Chatsworth, Ga.

Murray county officers said they feared a hostile demonstration, but Chatsworth advised told of a rumored rescue attempt by friends of the young woman.

A holdup murder of a store proprietor near Chatsworth on midnight

Continued on Page 3, Column 2.

PLEASURE RESORT
PLANS ARE MADE

Prominent Capitalists
Meet To Consider Development of Recreation Center at Tate Mountain

Plans for development of a large pleasure resort and recreation center at Tate mountain in Pickens county to be known as Tate Mountain Estates, were formed at a meeting of prominent Georgia capitalists held at the Ansley hotel Tuesday. Sam Tate, pioneer marble developer, will head the group of men who will carry out a plan to give to north Georgia a great resort center similar to those in North Carolina.

Members of the Tate family own 8,000 acres of beautiful land situated on a tableland 3,300 feet high. According to the plans as outlined at the meeting Tuesday, a town site will be laid out, plans will be formed for establishment of golf links, an aviation field, a large hotel, many attractive mountain driveways, a large lake and other projects designed to make the resort popular all the year around.

This will be the first attempt made on a large scale to develop the north Georgia mountain region in a way to attract visitors from other states. Included in the plans will be a project for building one of the prettiest towns in the south.

Those who attended the luncheon Tuesday and who will form the board of directors of the development organization are: Sam Tate, H. R. Cannon, John L. Tye, R. L. McClain, Thomas K. Glenn, Charles A. Bowen, Forrest Greene, J. M. Tomlinson, W. B. Stovall, Andrew Gennett, Howard Tate, L. D. Faver, H. L. Litchfield, George H. Lowery, E. A. McCulloch, Paul Jones, Peter S. Twitty, Lee Worsham, J. S. Cohen, John Allen, L. E. Tate, W. R. Tucker, R. J. Guinn, Howard Candler, James A. Holloman, James B. Nevin and Clark Howell, Sr.

SMITH'S TEXAS FOES LAY PLANS TO BOLT PARTY

Conference of 500 Party
Leaders Results in Decision
To Support G. O. P. in Presidential Race.

Dallas, Texas, July 17.—(AP)—Opposition to the presidential candidacy of Governor Alfred E. Smith, of New York, was crystallized here today at a conference of anti-Smith democrats of Texas, who pledged a statewide campaign for the election of Herbert Hoover, the republican presidential nominee.

Some 500 persons attended the rally, and among the speakers were half a dozen state party leaders, ministers and prohibition workers.

Modification Denounced.
Resolutions were adopted denouncing Governor Smith for his advocacy of a modification of the present prohibition laws. It was agreed to place an organization in every county of the state to work for the defeat of the democratic presidential nominee.

Dr. J. D. Sandefur, president of Simmons college, Abilene, was elected permanent chairman of the conference. Alvin Moody, Houston, was made vice chairman and Mrs. Josephine Collins, Dallas, was chosen secretary.

Claim 300,000 Bolters.
Leaders of the anti-Smith movement asserted that more than 300,000 Texas democrats would swing to the Hoover banner.

The "Anti-Al Smith Democrats" was chosen as the official name of the organization.

Governor Smith's message to the Houston convention in which he reaffirmed his stand for modification of the prohibition statutes was characterized as "treason" by several speakers.

The nomination of the New Yorker was termed the vilest insult ever leveled at southern democrats.

Dr. J. W. Hunt, president of McMurry college, Abilene, attacked Senator Joseph L. Robinson, running mate of Governor Smith, and the Arkansas senator "sold his name to the party for the sake of a wet nomination and a wet vote."

Collins Temporary Chairman.
V. A. Collins, Dallas, former state senator and a dry worker, acted as temporary chairman. In opening the meeting he called on every democrat in the state to bolt to Hoover for president and defeat "the powers of iniquity."

"Any man who would strike down the eighteenth amendment," he asserted, "also would strike down section 3, article 6 of the constitution, pertaining to religious freedom."

Mr. Collins predicted that Smith would carry only the few counties which are nominally republican. It was his opinion that the majority of the voters in these counties were "wet" sympathizers.

"I don't know if there is still a Ku Klux Klan organization in Texas," he said, "but if they are opposed to Al Smith, I wish there were 10,000,000 of them in the state."

The conference decided to take no hand in the primary campaign for state officers.

Bolters To Be Barred.
A movement among regular democrats who are supporting the national ticket to bar from the primary ballot in certain counties democratic candidates who have announced they will not vote for Governor Smith was given further legal sanction today by the fourth civil court of appeals at San Antonio. The court upheld a motion by the Cameron county district court in refusing a mandamus compelling the Cameron county democratic executive committee to print on the

NEGRO POLITICAL CHIEF LOSES JOB
IN G. O. P. INQUIRY

Howard Ousted as U. S.
Employee; Scott Hubbard
Also Dismissed
After Action in Probe.

Washington, July 17.—(AP)—Perry W. Howard, negro republican national committeeman for Mississippi, indicted in charges of conspiring to violate the law prohibiting the sale of federal office, was removed today as an attorney in the department of justice and held in $2,500 bond for trial at Jackson, Miss.

Scott Hubbard, deputy U. S. marshal, was also dismissed from office. Hubbard is under indictment in the same case.

Howard, charged specifically with being implicated in a deal whereby a place in the United States marshal's force in Mississippi, was given for $1,500, issued a statement declaring he was a victim of political enemies who "seek to have me crucified in the courts." The indictment returned at Biloxi by the federal grand jury has not reached Washington but the negro preliminary was arrested on a complaint sworn to by United States Attorney Rover.

Appearing before United States Commissioner Turrage, Howard waived hearing and gave bond for his appearance at Jackson for trial on November 5.

In his statement Howard charged that "my 'illy white' adversaries have enlisted the aid of powerful influences, material political and otherwise" and said he was "guilty of no wrong doing, directly or indirectly."

The negro leader who has fought white interference in the republican politics of Mississippi declared that he had for years urged the enactment of the law requiring appointees to make an affidavit that they had not given or promised to give any consideration for their appointment.

He said he was a martyr for the cause of negro leadership and was willing to "pay the price of martyrdom."

SIX ARRAIGNED ON FRAUD COUNTS.
Biloxi, Miss., July 17.—(AP)—As a slow but steady parade of witnesses passed through the federal grand jury room here today to the accumulation of evidence relating to alleged trafficking in a patronage by state republican leaders, interest shifted from what was happening behind the closed doors of the jury chamber to open court where the seven persons thus far indicted and arrested were arraigned for pleas.

His arraignment was accepted by Sidney E. Redmond, negro attorney at Jackson, as an occasion for a broadside at his political enemies whom he charged with bringing about the indictment of himself, his brother, A. M. Redmond, Scott Hubbard, deputy United States marshal, and Ed L. Patterson.

Plans announced here tonight by Colonel Herbert H. Lehman, finance director of the national committee, call for appointment of a volunteer finance director for each state and territory. His job will be to organize the state to "get out the dough." Lehman will direct the coordinated activities.

Into Every Sector.
This nationwide financial plan, based on participation by every state, is in keeping with the democratic intention to challenge every sector on the side front.

Lehman said no limit will be set on individual contributions. He would not estimate the total amount he thinks needed. Republicans have fixed

Victim of Assassin's Bullet

General Alvaro Obregon, newly-elected president of Mexico, who was shot down at a banquet in the town of San Angel, near Mexico City, Tuesday afternoon.

DRIVE FOR SMITH FUND IS STARTED

Subscriptions From 10
Cents Up Will Be Sought,
New Democratic Finance
Director Announces.

BY THOMAS L. STOKES.
New York, July 17.—(United News.)—Democratic leaders here have mapped out a campaign for collection of a war chest sufficient to finance the vigorous drive they plan along every front for the election of Governor Alfred E. Smith. The campaign will extend to every state and territory.

Plans announced here tonight by Colonel Herbert H. Lehman, finance director of the national committee, call for appointment of a volunteer finance director for each state and territory. His job will be to organize the state to "get out the dough." Lehman will direct the coordinated activities.

Into Every Sector.
This nationwide financial plan, based on participation by every state, is in keeping with the democratic intention to challenge every sector on the side front.

Lehman said no limit will be set on individual contributions. He would not estimate the total amount he thinks needed. Republicans have fixed

Continued on Page 3, Column 3.

Bullets for Carranza
And More for Obregon

Obregon came into power, back in 1920, upon the assassination of Carranza. Eight years later he passes from the picture by the same route. His reign was longer than the man he ousted: his end, the same.

This correspondent recalls the exit of Carranza. It was a revolution led by this same Obregon that started Carranza's downfall. It was the harassment of Obregon's troops that led directly to Carranza's death.

By May, 1920, the Sonora revolution, as it was termed, had rolled down from the north with an amazing progress that left no doubt as to the outcome. Astute and grizzled old fellow, with the beard of a Santa Claus, if not the genial mien, Carranza knew Obregon had doomed him politically.

Obregon and Plutarco Elias Calles had done it.

But Carranza still clung to life. With a hundred men or so, he who

Continued on Page 2, Column 7

KILLER IS SEIZED
AFTER SIX SHOTS
END LEADER'S LIFE

All News Is Censored by Calles as City Turns
Into Turmoil When Reports Bare Murder.

REVOLUTION CHIEF
"LUCKY" IN PAST

Calles Expected To Keep
Office as Friend and Successor Dies; Other Leaders Already Dead.

Mexico City, July 17.—(AP)—President-elect Alvaro Obregon, of Mexico, called "Lucky" Obregon because he had so often escaped death on the battlefield or by assassination, died violently at last today.

Like so many of those who have been president or have headed governments of Mexico, he was the victim of an assassin.

He was shot down as he sat at a banquet given him by his political supporters at the little town of San Angel near Mexico City at 2:20 o'clock this afternoon. Police said tonight that the assassination was only one of a series planned and by which a number of the leading statesmen of Mexico were to have been removed.

The one-eyed warrior-president, with six bullet wounds in his body, died in a few moments without speaking a word and in the greatest agony. His assassin, known as Juan Escapulario, was captured, almost torn apart by maddened friends of the slain general, and taken to jail where he has confessed his crime.

Tonight though censorship of all press dispatches was ordered at 9:45 o'clock many of those who were known to have been opposed to General Obregon had fled Mexico City before the fury of his friends and supporters who were kept in bounds only by the stern vigilance of police and soldiers who patrolled the streets of the capital and the houses of the surrounding country. Mexico City was in a fever of excitement, but there were no disorders.

All troops were ordered into barracks tonight in readiness to preserve order if necessary.

Salons were closed, as well as other places of amusement.

General Roberto Cruz, chief of police of Mexico City, was summoned on orders from President Calles. The president named Cruz successor of General Antonio Rios Zertuche, who had been very close to Obregon. Arturo B. Orco, another Obregon adherent, was named as secretary-general of police headquarters.

Evidence that the crime was premeditated was found in a paper discovered in the pocket of the assassin. It was addressed "to my family" and said:

"Knowing that I will die in carrying out my principle, I bid you farewell."

Continued on Page 2, Column 2

The Weather
PARTLY CLOUDY.

Washington—Forecast:

Georgia—Partly cloudy with afternoon thundershowers Wednesday and Thursday; light southerly winds.

Local Weather Report.
Highest temperature 89
Lowest temperature 79
Normal temperature 80
Mean temperature 78
Rainfall in past 12 hours, ins.02
Excess since Jan. 1, ins. 4.38
Total rainfall since Jan. 1, ins. 35.46

7 a.m. N'n. 7 p.m.
Dry temperature 72 84 71
Wet bulb 69 72 68
Relative humidity 68 55 86

Reports of Weather Bureau Stations.

STATIONS AND STATE OF WEATHER	Temperature	Rain
ATLANTA, cloudy	71	90
Augusta, part cloudy	74	90
Birmingham, pt. cloudy	80	84
Boston, cloudy	82	90
Buffalo, pt. cloudy	72	74
Charlotte, cloudy	74	88
Chicago, clear	74	76
Cincinnati, cloudy	80	90
Cleveland, clear	84	88
Dallas, cloudy	76	84
Denver, cloudy	80	82
Des Moines, cloudy	80	82
Evansville, cloudy	80	82
Hartford, cloudy	76	84
Indianapolis, cloudy	80	82
Jacksonville, raining	70	80
Kansas City, clear	86	90
Memphis, cloudy	82	80
Mobile, cloudy	82	80
Montgomery, cloudy	80	82
New Orleans, cloudy	80	82
New York, cloudy	80	82
North Platte, cloudy	70	78
Oklahoma City, clear	80	82
Phoenix, pt. cloudy	78	80
Pittsburgh, clear	82	88
Raleigh, clear	78	80
San Francisco, clear	82	82
St. Louis, clear	90	82
Salt Lake City, clear	72	90
Savannah, cloudy	82	82
Tampa, cloudy	82	82
Toledo, clear	82	88
Tulsa, cloudy	74	80
Washington, part cloudy	82	90

C. F. von HERMANN,
Meteorologist, Weather Bureau.

Largest Circulation, Morning or Evening, of Any Daily Newspaper in Atlanta!

HOOVER LEAVES COOLIDGE'S CAMP

Duluth, Minn., July 17.—(AP)—Bidding goodbye to President Coolidge, whose guest he has been for two days at Cedar Island lodge, Herbert Hoover resumed his westward journey late today after receiving an ovation in this city, from which his train left for Palo Alto via St. Paul, Omaha and a number of other cities where stops are to be made.

The republican presidential nominee appeared much refreshed by his two days at the Coolidge retreat on the Brule river in the Wisconsin hills, where he engaged in his favorite sport of angling and went over a number of official and political matters with the president.

Motors to Superior.
During the forenoon he motored to Superior with the president, who received callers at the executive offices there, and later returned to the summer white house for luncheon before beginning his journey anew.

The last lap of this was a 50-mile automobile ride from Cedar Island lodge to Superior and thence across to St. Louis by way of Duluth, where he was given an enthusiastic greeting by large crowds that lined the streets over which his automobile moved on the way to the station.

While Mr. Hoover cleared up his desk at the commerce department before leaving Washington last Saturday, it was announced today at the executive offices that his resignation as commerce secretary would not be accepted until after he reaches the Pacific coast as there are some matters there connected with his department which he desires to attend to before severing his connection with the government. This is expected to require only a short time and then he will be relieved of his official duties.

While the president has been giving thought to the filling of the cabinet post thus to be made vacant, there still was no inkling as to who would get the appointment.

Butler Not Considered.
Reports were that William M. Butler, of Massachusetts, who as chairman of the republican national committee directed the Coolidge campaign in 1924, did not care for the post, desiring to be free to make his campaign for senator in the November election.

The name uppermost in the informed discussions around the summer executive offices was that of Dwight W. Morrow, of New York, ambassador to Mexico. It was said Mr. Morrow had about accomplished the mission on which the president sent him to Mexico nearly a year ago and that he was eminently qualified for the commerce post.

HOOVER HASTEN JOURNEY WEST

Omaha, Neb., July 17.—(AP)—In an effort to hurry their arrival in California where Mrs. Hoover's father, C. D. Henry, of Elmoreville, Calif., is reported near death, Mr. and Mrs. Hoover will leave here tomorrow morning after a 15-minute stop on their special which is to be operated as a second section of the Overland Limited on the Union Pacific railroad. They tonight that the Overland Limited will leave at 8:40 a. m. and the Hoover special, running as a second section, will leave at 9:15 a. m. The republican presidential nominee and Mrs. Hoover were to make a three-hour stop over in Omaha, but the change in plans do not make this possible.

DOOMED WOMAN SMILES AND CHATS

Continued from First Page.

of August 5 last was laid to Mrs. Thompson, to her husband, Clifford Thompson, and to a negro, Jim Moss. All five minutes and sentenced to death, and a subsequent appeal to supreme court was denied the two men, although the Georgia high tribunal, pending before the Georgia high tribunal.

Dressed Fashionably.
Dressed in a fashionable creation, which might have graced a debutante at afternoon tea, Mrs. Thompson Tuesday afternoon calmly faced a barrage of flashlight flares, answering questions the while from several newspapermen.

"The chair?" Mrs. Thompson shivered ever so slightly. "No, I am not afraid. Clifford and I are innocent. They will never send us there."

"He was convicted on circumstantial evidence, wholly. Someone swore they recognized his voice. They convicted the negro on a footprint found near the murder scene, and we on the word of a man who said he saw me five miles from that place."

A special appeal to the supreme

DEERAN INDICTED ON TWO COUNTS

Continued from First Page.

A typical Bolshevik protest against established government, the first of its nature in the south, was the way investigating officers here Tuesday described the attempt of an elderly Armenian to assassinate two postoffice inspectors Monday at the noon hour.

Statements reported to the assistant, Harry M. Deeran, 64, who was indicted on two assault with intent to murder charges, declared his shooting of inspectors Joe P. Johnston and Morgan Griswold was no "act of a madman" but an expression of "revenge of the Armenian people against the government."

Deeran, in a letter he said to have prepared June 25, citing a protest against the Armenian revolution, which appeared in "The New Republic" of November 23, 1927, as expression of his grievance against organized government.

Seized Atlanta.
Saying he was discharged in 1925 from the Boston postoffice after seventeen years service as a mail carrier, Deeran said he had come to Atlanta as the place to protest "the singular lack of vision radiating to all parts of the country from the Russian revolution."

With no other apparent reason for bringing him south, Deeran came to Atlanta a month ago, living from place to place, completing a series of his plan to revenge himself upon the government.

A letter addressed to the "People of Atlanta" and dated June 25 continues to say: "The shot at Sarajev was the greatest event of human history, the Russian revolution. A shot in Atlanta may yet bring much needed reform in the postoffice department. For this I would give not only one, but ten lives if I possessed them."

Held Unpopular Views.
The statement declares postal officials at Boston discharged him because he "held unpopular views on the social and economic disorder of the day; or, to be clear, because I was a Bolshevik."

The prisoner, held at the tower in default of a $10,000 bond following the indictments Tuesday, further complains that the postoffice hounded him and caused his discharge from subsequent jobs he held.

At one time, Deeran says, Postmaster Baker, of Boston, was in danger of his life if he stood on a balcony, on the night of May 23, 1928, watching the Letter Carrier's ball.

"Only the thought that women and children in a crowd of 15,000 below us would be crushed in a resulting panic," Deeran said, "a statement found on his person sets out."

Deeran compares Hawthorne's "The Scarlet Letter," which he says exposed Boston's crime, it is and history, to an article by "John Dewey, America's foremost philosopher, whom I almost worship," in which the execution of Sacco and Vanzetti was attacked.

Johnston Back at Desk.
Johnston, chief inspector of the Atlanta district, was back at his desk a few hours after the shooting. He was wounded in the shoulder.

Meanwhile Griswold, shot through the left shoulder and neck, was reported as "resting well" at Grady hospital, where doctors say he is expected to recover.

Deeran was captured by the patrolmen on the beat immediately following the shooting. He had run into an adjoining alleyway and was attempting to reload his revolver for what he later admitted to be an attempt to end his life.

Planned Assassination.
Deeran Tuesday claimed that he attempted to assassinate Charles F. Trotter, deputy first assistant postmaster general, in Washington D. C., on July 1, 1927, but that his life was saved when the gun snapped and Deeran escaped capture after a chase of several blocks by citizens.

His motive for attempting to kill Trotter was that he believed Trotter was instrumental in keeping him out of the post office, Deeran stated.

Clyde Fleming, local postoffice inspector, Tuesday told how he came very near being Deeran's victim in place of Inspector Griswold. Inspector Fleming said that he had been having dinner with Mr. Johnston at the hotel the past week or so, but that on Monday afternoon, when Inspector Griswold was in the office with Mr. Johnston, Inspector Fleming told Mr. Johnston to go on to the hotel with Inspector Frank Shumate, Johnston and Griswold to follow shortly afterward.

Deeran's application on July 9 to become a member of union No. 48, local chapter of the International Typographical union, according to Luther Still, president of the local union.

Mr. Still, who also is a representative from Fulton county in the state legislature, said "Deeran came to my office on July 9 and said that he was a printer, a former member of the Boston, Mass. union, and wanted to make application to become a member of the local union. I told him that we were careful about taking in new members, but that I would write to Boston and verify his statement, and then we could go into the matter further."

"Deeran then said that I need not write the letter, that he would be reinstated after being dismissed from the postal service. His appearance and attitude caused me to be suspicious, and I wrote to the Boston union, anyhow, and it received an answer immediately, stating that Harry M. Deeran was not and had not been a member of that union."

STORY OF DEERAN DOUBTED BY TROTTER.
Washington, July 17.—(AP)—Charles F. Trotter, deputy first assistant postmaster general, here today said he did not believe Harry M. Deeran, who shot two postal inspectors in Atlanta yesterday, made an attempt to shoot him in July, 1927. Mr. Trotter is inclined to believe that Deeran's story that he attempted to kill him at the intersection of Ninth and E streets to be a figment of Deeran's imagination.

Mr. Trotter today recalled a visit Deeran made here in July asking for reinstatement after being dismissed from the postal service. He refused to recommend the man's reemployment, Deeran said, and he did not recall meeting him later.

Deeran, who is in custody in Atlanta today, said he tried to shoot Mr. Trotter, but that the pistol, the one he used in shooting the postal inspectors, snapped.

CONTRACT AWARDED FOR STATE PRINTING.
Contract for the state printing for the ensuing year, beginning August 1, was let by the state printing commission Tuesday to the Stein Printing company, of Atlanta. This is the third consecutive year this company has obtained the award by submitting the lowest bid. The contract covers items of $500 or more. Items of less than this amount are awarded under special bids and each item is awarded to the lowest bidder.

WE PAY 4% ON SAVINGS
Compounded Quarterly
EMPIRE TRUST COMPANY
54 N. BROAD STREET

Hiram Evans Calls His Klan Into Conclave

Chicago, July 17.—(AP)—Behind closed doors, the Knights and Ladies of the Ku Klux Klan opened their fourth biennial convocation today with Hiram Evans, of Atlanta, imperial wizard, presiding over helpers and delegates from every state where the Klan has an organization.

What took place remained unknown except to those who bore membership cards which had to be presented at the doors. Visitors and newspapermen were not allowed to enter the convention which would be devoted only to business and private matters with nothing of public interest on the program.

MRS. J. M. HANSFORD DIES AT RESIDENCE OF HER DAUGHTER
Mrs. J. M. Hansford, died Tuesday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. W. Phillips, 828 Sherwood road, N. E., following an illness of more than a year.

She is survived by her husband; two daughters, Mrs. G. W. Phillips, of West Palm Beach, Fla.; two sons, G. B. Hansford, Tusculum, Ala., and J. E. Hansford, Washington; grand children, Miss Elsie Phillips and Dr. Gilford Phillips, of Atlanta.

The sons, sons-in-law and grandsons of Mrs. Hansford are all in naval services which will be held at 11 o'clock Thursday morning, at Madison. The Rev. J. W. O. McKibben will officiate and interment will be in the Madison cemetery.

SEVEN KNOXVILLE POLICEMEN FACE DRY LAW CHARGES
Knoxville, Tenn., July 17.—(United News.)—Seven members of the Knoxville police department have been indicted on charges of conspiracy to violate the national prohibition law, it became known today.

All members of the prohibition squad of the city police force were included in the indictments.

The indictments followed charges by William Lundy, bootlegger, that he paid certain policemen for protection in carrying on his trade. A federal grand jury here returned the indictments last week after examining more than 30 witnesses, but they were kept secret until the policemen were placed under bond today.

HEROIC SCIENTIST DIES TO SAVE HIS COMRADES
Continued from First Page.

camp Malmgren developed fainting fits and a heavy cold but he refused to return—he had been the first to insist that they could walk to land and started over Noble's protest. Now he believed it would be impossible to retrace his way to the camp.

Tottered on Ice.
June 14 Malmgren tottered and fell upon the ice. Zappi vainly endeavored to lift him up, but the Swedish scientist pleaded with them to leave him and seek safety on the land. He told them to take all the food.

Malmgren's foot was frozen, he was weak from hunger, and his hand had been broken when the Italia crashed. Finally Mariano and Zappi yielded to the scientist's request and walked ahead for a hundred meters, then turned, watching, waiting for the scientist to change his mind. Malmgren stood swaying on a hummock of ice.

Struggle 12 Days.
They left him there and struggled over the ice for 12 days. On June 26 Mariano went snow blind, and fell in exhaustion. The two men, at this point, four days at this place, 300 meters from Brock Island and the comparative safety of the land, Open water intervened, however, and they could not cross. They drifted on a small ice floe while Zappi, with his ax tied to a rope, cast at other floes, hoping to draw one near and bridge the gap to land.

Their floe, growing smaller hour by hour, drifted back and forth—first toward Cape Smith, then toward Cape Brunn. Mariano and Zappi rested, watching the shrinking of the ice, their flow drifting faster and faster.

Mariano became very sick. A polar bear approached within 100 meters and Zappi sought to bring it down with his ax. The animal sat on its haunches and waited, while Mariano lay apparently dying almost within reach of its paws. Zappi, swaying in his weakness, buried his ax again and again at chattering lips, drawing the weapon slowly back at the end of the rope.

The men had seen an airplane fly near them June 19—the first of several to drone through the air blindly, oblivious of the starving men. Mariano and Zappi cut their clothes into letters to write a message on the ice: "Help food."

Eight airplanes they saw, but were not seen, and finally they became hopeless. Mariano's leg was frozen and he was very ill. Zappi remained a faint hope of rescue.

Then a huge airplane roared into view, circled about them—circled five times as Zappi waved his arms in joy and Mariano lifted his arms in a slow salute. The aviator was Chukovsky, from the Soviet ship Krassin, and he searched for a place to land and pick them up. The ice was too rough and he flew away, but he left hope in the hearts of the castaways.

Second Flight Fails.
A second time Chukovsky left the Krassin to attempt the rescue of the two men but a fog swept over the ice and they did not see him. He had crashed on the land with his five companions, but was not injured. He had set up a radio and wireless the Krassin:

"Never mind us. Rescue the others."

Chukovsky had given the Krassin exact directions for finding the stragglers and the sturdy ship steamed toward the spot, nearly 20 miles away. Zappi and Mariano saw the smoke from the ice ship, but had no means to tell them. The ship rushed on through the drifting ice and then the two men burned some of their clothes for a smoke signal. The Krassin already had seen them and approached within a few yards. Sailors plunged over the sides and laid blankets to the starving men. Zappi walked alone to the Krassin's decks. Mariano was carried aboard.

Foodless 13 Days.
When they were rescued they had been 13 days without any food. Their ice floe had melted until it was only a few feet across, an exceedingly precarious refuge.

Two hours more, Mariano and Zappi said, would have been too late to have saved them.

$12 Wrightsville Beach, N. C.
$12 Myrtle Beach, S. C.
Tickets good 10 days. On sale Thursday and Saturday. Through sleepers. GEORGIA RAILROAD—(Ad.)

U.S. NOMINATES CHARLES E. HUGHES TO WORLD COURT

Geneva, July 17.—(AP)—The United States today nominated Charles Evans Hughes for the vacancy on the world court created by the resignation of John Bassett Moore. No alternate was named in the American nomination when it was deposited with the League of Nations secretariat.

Geneva, Switzerland, July 17.—(AP) Belgium has deposited the name of Charles Evans Hughes as its nominee for the vacancy on the world court created by the resignation of John Bassett Moore. The name of Rolin Jacquemins, noted international jurist, was deposited as second choice.

(Several nations, including Japan, Great Britain and Sweden, have already presented the name of Mr. Hughes as their first choice for the post.)

WHEELER LEADING FOR SENATE POST IN MONTANA POLL
Helena, Mont., July 17.—(AP)—U. S. Senator B. K. Wheeler was leading for the democratic nomination to succeed himself in the first democratic election to be received from today's Montana primary election.

Ten precincts out of 1,490 in the state give for the nomination of United States senator: Wheeler, 880; Stewart, 131; Teagarden, 18.

Governor Erickson had 395 votes for nomination to succeed himself as lieutenant governor for Roy Ayers, of Lewistown. Congressman Evans led the field of four for the congressional

HARRY K. THAW BACK IN AMERICA

New York, July 17.—(AP)—Harry K. Thaw, who was exiled from England recently, returned today from Paris on the liner Ile de France indignant at the British immigration authorities.

His principal grievance was against Sir William Joynton-Hicks, British home secretary, who issued the order barring him. Thaw referred to him as "Hicks."

He declared that England violated the principles of its magna charta in barring him.

Thaw was accompanied by Morgan Pendleton, of Richmond, Va., who said Secretary Mellon had been requested to intercede for Thaw.

On the voyage home Thaw kept apart from the passengers and did not smoke or drink, he said.

New Zealand Bill Authorizes Register Of Mental Defectives
Wellington, N. Z., July 17.—(AP)—A board of medical and prison experts to compile a register of all mental defectives in the colony, prohibition of marriage between such persons and sterilization with the consent of the defective or his guardians, are among the provisions of a bill introduced today in the house by representatives of the New Zealand legislature.

The bill would authorize the board to list a new class of defectives known as "socially defective" persons. The board also entrusted with the duty of authorizing sterilization, but the consent of guardians is necessary in the case of all minors and of persons mentally incapable of understanding the consequences. In all other cases the consent of the patient would be required.

35,000 TEMPLARS PARADE IN DETROIT

Detroit, July 17.—(AP)—Knights Templar to the number of 35,000 marched in the grand parade today, feature spectacle of the annual convocation of the organization in session here.

With white plumed hats setting off the dark regalia of the order, the Knights passed over the downtown streets where temporary seats accommodating 200,000 were erected. Including among the marchers were 100 bands.

The grand commanderies of 48 states participated in the spectacle as well as high officials of the order and score of subordinate commanderies. The position of honor in line was given to the grand commandery of Colorado, the home state of the most eminent grand master, George W. Valley, who led to his own commandery, Denver, No. 25, went the honor of personally escorting the grand master.

The parade formed in 13 divisions with the Michigan grand commandery at the end. Mounted crusaders, garbed in the ancient armor of the order, led the march.

The official opening of the business session was set for this afternoon.

to list a new class of defectives known as "socially defective" persons. The board also entrusted with the duty of authorizing sterilization, but the consent of guardians is necessary in the case of all minors and of persons mentally incapable of understanding the consequences. In all other cases the consent of the patient would be required.

Will you pay 10¢ a month for shaving comfort?

There are certain little luxuries which every man deserves. One of them is the finest cream he can get to ease the daily irritation of shaving. So Listerine chemists, after 26 months of research, achieved this concentrated blend of costly ingredients. They studied long, not to produce a cream to sell at a price, but to perfect a velvety lather-maker of supreme and unrivalled quality. Then, Listerine facilities for tremendous production made possible large economies. The result is a big white tube crammed with 118 inches of luxury cream, more than enough for 157 shaves, easily a five-months' supply. At 50¢ its economy is obvious. Ask for Listerine Shaving Cream at any good drug or department store.

If you and your face are IRRITATED by SHAVING Friction is the reason

THERE is more to shaving than merely softening the beard. Men have learned that by painful experience. For there still remains the harsh scrape and pull as the razor's edge is forced across the tiny peaks which hold the hairs. This friction scours the skin, producing heat and painful smarting.

To take the torture out of shaving in a scientific way, Listerine chemists have perfected an amazing shaving cream which lubricates the skin!

A velvety film of soothing glycerine smooths the path of the razor. The effect is instantaneous. The same old blade which used to hop-skip-and jump, slides along so gently that it almost seems to wipe the whiskers off.

The toughest beards, the tenderest skins, yield to this new-type cream which includes not only cosmetic lubricant but the antiseptic essential oils of Listerine.

No need to rub the lather in. No need to rub the lotions on. Your face will feel glad, and you will grin and bless the day on which you first tried Listerine Shaving Cream. Lambert Pharmacal Company, St. Louis, Mo.

LISTERINE Shaving Cream

DINE
—on Atlanta's Most Beautiful Terrace—
At the Pershing Point Apartments
On a cool and quiet terrace, or during inclement weather, within a spacious dining room indoors, you will enjoy the splendid summer menus and prompt, courteous service.
DINNER $1.00
Served From 6 P. M. to 8 P. M.
Reservations by Phone HElock 7451

COLUMBUS, GA. Excursion
$3.00 ROUND TRIP
Leave ATLANTA 8:00 A. M. and 4:00 P. M.
SATURDAY, JULY 21ST.
Tickets Limited to Return July 23
SOUTHERN RAILWAY
City Ticket Office, 48 N. Broad St. WA. 1961-1962

How to Kill Bed Bugs
GUARD against them. You can destroy them. Bee Brand Powder or Liquid offers two easy and effective ways of destroying them. Remember—both kill them—and other insects. Use either for indoor use. Liquid has a delightful fragrant cedar odor. On plants and pets use the powder. They are harmless to mankind and to domestic animals. Non-poisonous. Won't spot or stain.
If your dealer cannot supply—write us.
BEE BRAND Powder Liquid 10c and 25c 50c and $1.00 30c (bottle) 35c
McCORMICK & CO. Baltimore, Md.
it kills them!
Bee Brand INSECT POWDER OR LIQUID CEDAR ODOOR

PAGE FOUR

JURY TO GET LASH CASE EARLY TODAY

Milledgeville, Ga., July 17.—(P)—The case of Fountain Hardy, Wilkinson county farmer, on trial in the Baldwin superior court here, charged with having participated in the flogging of Jim Angles, Baldwin county farmer, will probably reach the jury by noon tomorrow. The defense rested its case at 7 o'clock tonight and Judge J. B. Park adjourned court until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning when the arguments will be presented by attorneys.

The trial today was consumed mostly by witnesses who sought to establish an alibi for Hardy. Numerous character witnesses were also introduced in behalf of the accused farmer. Angles was called back to the stand late this afternoon and he reiterated his statements yesterday in stating that he positively identified Hardy as one of the quartet who carried him from home and flogged him with a tuck-studded leather thong and left him for dead.

Angles declared that Hardy was the first man to lay hands on him. He was pulled from his doorway, thrown into a waiting automobile and carried six miles into the country where the attack occurred.

Efforts were made to impeach the testimony of the flogged victim, but numerous merchants here and prominent farmers were called to the stand and testified in his behalf. The prosecution rested its case yesterday after four witnesses, including Angles, his wife, the doctor who treated him and a friend of Angles, who went with his wife in search for him after he had been carried from home, were heard.

The arguments will be presented by Solicitor General Joe B. Duke, who is conducting the prosecution, and Marion Allen and J. B. Pottle, who are representing the defense. L. L. Smith and J. W. Hubbard also are under indictment in connection with the attack on Angles. They will face trial separately at the conclusion of Hardy's trial.

COLORED BAPTIST CHURCH WORKERS OPEN CONVENTION

The state convention of Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. workers of Georgia (colored) opened its convention Tuesday. This meeting is composed of young Baptist leaders of the race from all parts of the state. The opening session was called to order at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning at the Greater West Street Baptist church, of which Rev. P. James Bryant is pastor. He also is president of the B. Y. P. U. department. The Sunday school department is presided over by Rev. J. H. Evans, of Macon. More than 1,000 messengers are in attendance.

The opening service consisted of a spirited song service lasting 30 minutes. Memorial services were then conducted by Rev. P. H. Gadsden, Macon, and Rev. J. T. Johnson, Atlanta. The roll call showed that 31 Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. workers had died during the convention year.

Editor Louis D. Newton, of the Christian Index, addressed the convention, bringing greetings from the young white Baptists. Dr. J. M. Nabrit, president of the senior convention, responded to the address.

Tuesday night's session consisted of the conventional sermon by Rev. O. J. Moore, Griffin, and also addresses of welcome, Dr. M. P. Sessions, a physician from Savannah, and Professor J. L. Lomax, principal of the Valdosta High school, responded. A unique feature of the night's program was the rendition of a song, "Hail to the Sunday School and B. Y. P. U.," composed by Professor C. M. Pitts, of Macon.

Regiment Reunion.
Comrades of the Seventh Georgia regiment and their families will hold their annual reunion in Grant park on Saturday, according to announcement Tuesday.

ALABAMA CONVICTS LEAVE FOR TRIAL FOR ROME HOLD-UP

Montgomery, Ala., July 17.—(P)—Leslie Lohden and John C. Smith, state convicts who escaped from Kilby prison May 11 after forcing the foreman of the prison tag factory to drive them away in his automobile, were taken today to Rome, Ga., to face robbery charges.

The men were charged with holding up officials of the J. P. Hanks Stove and Range company of Rome and robbing them of a $2,980 pay roll. Governor Graves, of Alabama, authorized the prisoners to be taken to Georgia for trial with the understanding that they would be returned here to complete their terms. Lohden is serving 19 to 20 years and Smith 5 to 6 years.

Lohden was recaptured in Norfolk, Va., and was identified in the prison by J. P. Hanks, the chief of police of Rome, and other officials of the stove concern as a member of the bandit party. They also identified Smith from photographs.

Georgia officials asked Governor Graves for permission to try the men before they completed service of sentences in Alabama, in order that witnesses for the state might be available for testimony.

G. O. Williams, Rome chief of police; B. T. Donehoo and M. E. Horton, Georgia deputy sheriffs, escorted the men to Rome. Smith forced A. L. Poole, foreman of the prison tag factory, to drive them outside the prison walls in his automobile.

PARKER BELIEVES CANAL PROJECT IN STATE FEASIBLE

Waycross, Ga., July 17.—(Special.) The project of St. Marys-St. Marks canal across southeast Georgia, connecting the Atlantic ocean with the Gulf of Mexico at St. Marys, Ga., with the Gulf of Mexico at St. Marks, Fla., and utilizing the waters of the St. Marys and the Suwannee rivers, is a feasible plan, in the opinion of D. M. Parker, former member of the Georgia legislature from Ware county. Mr. Parker has made a careful study of the project, in the interest of the southeast Georgia Cooperative association and the Georgia association, which are endeavoring to further the interests of the canal. The fact that both the democratic and the republican parties have included inland waterways development in their party platforms, and that the St. Marys-St. Marks canal has been projected as a part of the great inland waterways system extending from Boston south along the Atlantic coast, across northern Florida, along the Gulf coast to the mouth of the Mississippi river, and on to the Rio Grande river, indicates that the digging of the canal may be given early attention.

SAVANNAH AUTO AGENCY IS $1,000 BURGLARY VICTIM

Savannah, Ga., July 17.—(P)—A loss of $1,000 in cash and numerous bonds and checks to auto-entrances was discovered today when the Claus Nolan automobile agency opened for business. The intruders had ripped a 10-foot counter from the wall in order to move the 500-pound safe a distance of 30 or 40 yards to a secluded spot in the storeroom.

ALABAMA BURGLAR, KILLED, IDENTIFIED AS SUMTER CONVICT

Americus, Ga., July 17.—(P)—A negro burglar killed in Birmingham, Ala., yesterday while attempting to enter a home there has been positively identified as Albert Thomas, escaped Sumter county convict, local police said today.

Thomas pleaded guilty to entering three Americus homes and was given a 30-year sentence at the May term of superior court. He escaped after serving two weeks. When first arrested the negro was taken to Macon for safe keeping as officers feared violence here.

PITCAIRN CO. PREPARES FOR NEW MAIL RATES

Preparations for the change of air mail rates from ten cents an ounce to five cents for the first ounce and ten cents for each additional ounce, to take effect August 1, are being made by Geoffrey S. Childs, vice president and general manager of Pitcairn Aviation, Inc., who left Atlanta Tuesday night for Spartanburg, S. C., after conferring with local officials. Mr. Childs said that the change of rates is expected to bring about a tremendous increase in the volume of mail, and with this in view, the Pitcairn company is bringing out a new "super Mailwing" plane, capable of carrying the load of the present Pitcairn "Mailwing." He pointed out that under the new rate, the sending of a letter by air mail will cost only three cents more than ordinary postage on letters of an ounce or less, which is just about the weight of the average air mail letter.

GEOFFREY S. CHILDS.

The new "super Mailwings" will be released for use on the New York-Atlanta route late in September, Mr. Childs said. Fog and rainy weather have proven the chief obstacle to perfect flying along the New York-Atlanta route this year, Mr. Childs said. The weather bureau at Richmond recently issued a statement declaring that it has not experienced such weather for the past 15 years, he said.

Fog does not give the service a fair chance to function up to standard, as fog is the one thing for which an aviator or anyone else has no answer, Mr. Childs pointed out. Mr. Childs said that practically all of the accidents met with by the Pitcairn pilots have occurred because of fog.

POLITICS INSTITUTE TOLD OF LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

Athens, Ga., July 17.—(P)—Mrs. R. L. Turman, Atlanta, speaking before the institute of politics and public affairs today, traced the origin and development of the League of Women Voters as successor to the national women's party.

Although only eight years old, Mrs. Turman said the league maintains an organization in all but four states of the union. She listed the three main purposes of the league as education or political information, improved legislation and efforts toward a truer democracy.

She said women were becoming more interested in legislation especially welfare measures. The league was largely responsible, she declared, for passage by congress of the independent citizenship measure for women by which they neither lose nor gain American citizenship by marriage.

Dr. Ashley Jones, delivered an address on parliamentary government, and Sam J. Slate, state auditor, again spoke on reform in the state government.

NO DECISION MADE BY MINERS' UNION ON FUTURE POLICY

Indianapolis, Ind., July 17.—(P)—The international policy committee of the United Mine Workers of America adjourned early this afternoon following a three and a half hour session without reaching an agreement on future union policy in the bituminous coal suspension. The group will continue its deliberations at 9:30 a. m. tomorrow.

TYBEE LIFE GUARD STARTS LONG SWIM IN SAVANNAH RIVER

Savannah, Ga., July 17.—(P)—F. H. Sills, Jr., life guard, began an attempt this morning to swim from the city to the ocean side of Tybee island. The 25-mile course has never been successfully negotiated because of the swift current at the mouth of the river.

Another Savannahian, anxious for swimming honors, H. H. Parrish, barber, will enter the water at Daffin Park lake Sunday in an attempt to break the world's endurance record. He has been in training for the test several weeks.

Waycross Man Eats Check on Arrest To Lose Evidence

Waycross, Ga., July 17.—(Special.)—Many a man has been accused of drinking up the evidence, but Otis Toole, Waycross man held in the Ware county jail here, is charged with eating it. And if it doesn't cause a rare case of indigestion Toole ought to live to a ripe old age.

When City Officer W. W. James arrested Toole for flashing a bogus check, Toole craved the piece of paper in his mouth, chewed it a few times and gulped it down. Officer James grabbed him around the neck and tried to prevent his swallowing it, but Toole's swallowing apparatus functioned to perfection and the check was lost.

GEORGE STALLINGS CONDITION REPORT "STILL CRITICAL"

Macon, Ga., July 17.—(P)—George Stallings, "miracle man" of the 1914 Boston Red Sox, manager of the Montreal International league baseball club, who was brought here a week ago suffering from a heart ailment, today remained in a critical condition. Seated in a wheel chair, a position regarded as beneficial to persons suffering from such ailments, Stallings was not out of danger, although he appeared brighter and more cheerful than at any time since brought here from his country home at Haddock, Ga. F. S. Stallings, a brother who resides at Augusta, Ga., was a visitor for a brief period yesterday.

FRANCIS TO SPEAK AT ANNUAL MEETING OF S. A. R. CHAPTER

W. M. Francis, president of the Georgia Society of Sons of the American Revolution, and trustee of the national order, will be the principal speaker at the annual meeting of the state society, to be held Friday night at the Ansley hotel. Mr. Francis will report on the recent national convention in Washington.

Featuring the routine business of the gathering here will be election of state officers for the ensuing year. Various chapters of Sons of the American Revolution throughout Georgia will be represented at the meeting.

SAVANNAH YOUTH, 2-YEAR AMNESIA VICTIM, IS HOME

Savannah, Ga., July 17.—(P)—J. R. Hurst, Jr., 20-year-old Savannah youth who recalled his identity in Lexington, Ky., two weeks ago after sleeping all night with the rain beating down on his feet, but who could not remember his actions during the past two years, has returned to his home here.

Hurst states that he remembers going to Atlanta in October, 1929, where he failed to pass the West Point entrance examinations because of a broken bone in his foot. From Atlanta he went to Orlando, Fla., he says, but has no further recollections of his activities between his 18th and 20th birthdays. Hurst declares that he can not remember ever having married, but that his father has received a letter from his (young Hurst's) wife in New York.

Oscar Grogan Sings At Weekly Meeting Of Atlanta Civitans

Oscar Grogan, noted vocal and recording artist, appearing this week at Loew's Grand theater, featured the regular meeting of the Civitan club Tuesday night at the Civic club. Mr. Grogan was accompanied at the piano by Al Hammond.

Arthur Cundy, field director of Civitan International, scheduled to speak at the meeting, was out of town, it was reported. Powers Pace, of the local club, presented only the year history of Camp Civitania, the Atlanta Girl Scout camp sponsored by Civitans, while Harry Root, chairman of the Girl Scout camp committee for the club reported on the work of the current year. Plans for the proposed new concrete dam for the camp's swimming pool featured the reports. H. Z. Hopkins, president, presided.

WEST ATLANTA A. M. E. CONVENTIONS TO OPEN

Senola, Ga., July 17.—(Special.)—The West Atlanta District Sunday school, Missionary and Allen Christian Endeavor league conventions, of the Atlanta conference of the African M. E. church, Dr. H. D. Canady, presiding elder, will organize these meetings in Evergreen Chapel A. M. E. church Wednesday of this week, Rev. G. T. Spivey, pastor.

Dr. Canady will have special workers to assist in the institute work which will embrace a line of training for service in home economics, the church and community life. The "S. O. S." call will be featured on Saturday. Addresses will be made by Dr. John H. Lewis, president Morris Brown university and others.

Dr. A. B. Hardeman, E. C. Foley and others in the district with the presiding elder, will program the hour when Bishop W. A. Fountain, D. D., L. L. D., Episcopal head of Georgia African Methodism, will address the body.

P. L. Canady, who heads the district missionary work, will put an extension of the campaign on education of the district to assist in the "S. O. S." call, at the tri-conventions at Big Bethel A. M. E. church, Atlanta on August 15.

SENATE CANDIDATE INJURED IN CRASH

St. Mary's Ga., July 17.—(Special.)—S. C. Townsend, a candidate for the state senate from this district, while returning from Brunswick to St. Mary's today, suffered a serious wreck in his sedan on Coastal highway near Springs Bluff. The accident was caused by a broken driving shaft, the car leaving the road, plunging down a 20-foot embankment and hitting a stump. Mr. Townsend was thrown heavily against the steering wheel and suffered severe bruises and cuts.

He was brought to St. Mary's and from there taken immediately to Waycross hospital to ascertain the extent of his injuries.

PIMPLES KEEP YOU FROM LOOKING YOUR BEST!

If you have a clear, smooth skin, free of unsightly blemishes, you need never fear impression you will make on people you meet. But a pimply face keeps you from looking your best and repels rather than attracts people. Pimples and other skin infections quickly yield to Black and White Ointment, used according to directions. It is pleasant to use, highly beneficial and scientifically safe.

For best results use Black and White Skin Soap with Black and White Ointment. All dealers sell them at small cost. —(adv.)

CHICHESTERS PILLS

666
Cures Chills and Fever, Intermittent, Remittent and Bilious Fever due to Malaria. It kills the Germ.

GROGAN WILL SING ON COLUMBIA BILL

Oscar Grogan, nationally famous sentimental tenor who is appearing all this week at Loew's Grand theater, will be featured on the Columbia-Kolster program to be broadcast from WSB Wednesday afternoon from 1:30 to 2 o'clock.

An interesting half hour is promised radio listeners as several of Mr. Grogan's beautiful Columbia records will be played, after which he will take his place at the piano and sing.

OSCAR GROGAN.

Some of his best-known numbers. The program is sponsored by the Columbia Phonograph company. Mr. Grogan being an exclusive recording artist for this company.

REVIVALS CONTINUE AT CENTENARY CHURCH

Interest is being attracted by the revival services at the Centenary Methodist Protestant church, corner of Moreland and Austin avenues, being conducted by the Rev. A. G. Lynch, of Birmingham. It was reported Tuesday. The Rev. Mr. Lynch preaches during the week at 8 o'clock and on Sundays at the morning and night services.

BANDITS ATTEMPT TO HOLD UP CAR LOAD OF OFFICERS

Indianapolis, July 17.—(P)—One man was killed and another seriously wounded early today when police turned a machine gun on two automobile loads of alleged holdup men on the national road east of Indianapolis. Six men escaped capture.

The dead man is believed to be Edward Rider, about 23, address unknown. Officers could not learn the identity of the wounded bandit.

The fight occurred when the men in the two cars blocked the road to hold up persons in an approaching car. When the selected victims escaped by driving recklessly over an interurban track the men started to hold up the car in which the policemen were riding. At most immediately they recognized their mistake and opened fire.

Machine guns manipulated by Lieutenant Dr. Drinkut and Patrolman Frank Hineman were turned loose and the man believed to be Edward Rider fell back mortally wounded.

THREE CONVENTIONS OF A. M. E. MEETING

Decatur, Ga., July 17.—(Special.)—The Sunday school, Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary society and Allen Christian Endeavor league conventions of the Atlanta district of the A. M. E. church, convenes in a five-day meeting in Antioch church, this city, Wednesday of this week. Dr. C. D. Thornton is pastor.

Dr. W. J. Williams, presiding elder, with the pastors of the district, have prepared an elaborate program which will embrace every phase of district work, beginning with the new administration of a new questionnaire with Bishop William A. Fountain, D. D., L. L. D., bishop of Georgia.

The uniting of the three district conventions promises the largest crowd ever witnessed here of its kind among the negro churches. Prominent speakers representing similar church work of the state will address the body. Morris Brown university, head of the university system of the A. M. E. denomination in the state, is located within the bounds of this district and will assist in planning for a successful financial drive to answer the "S. O. S." call in August.

VOLUNTEERS REPORT ACTIVITIES IN 1928

Report of activities of the Volunteers of America, Atlanta branch, for the first half of 1928 was made public Tuesday. The report included free meals to men, women and children, free lodging, groceries, garments and other articles distributed, medical aid and transportation furnished, positions found for women, families visited and indoor meetings held. The report stated that the organization always is in position to use clothing for distribution.

WALLER TRIAL OPENS IN GLYNN TOMORROW

Brunswick, Ga., July 17.—Ernest G. Waller, arrested in Baltimore last week, wanted in connection with the murder of C. A. Perry, cashier of the State Bank of Kingsland, and the robbery of that institution, will go on trial in Glynn superior court Thursday with counsel appointed by the court to represent him.

When Waller was arraigned yesterday after his return here from Baltimore, Judge J. H. Thomas, presiding over the court, asked him if he had employed counsel. He said he had not and that he had no funds whatever, no relatives or friends to come to his aid, therefore Judge Thomas appointed W. C. Little and Charles L. Gowen, two well-known attorneys, to represent him.

Waller, who was a former Seaboard Air Line freight conductor between Savannah and Jacksonville, sticks to the story he told Baltimore officers that he was not a party to the crimes, but that he drove the automobile in which Homer Simpson and Malcolm Morrow went from Jacksonville to Kingsland, where the crimes were committed. Simpson and Morrow have already been convicted and are under death sentences.

Waller also stoutly denies that he

RAIN CUTS SHORT LEAF PINE OUTPUT, ROOFERS DISCLOSE

Macon, Ga., July 17.—(P)—Too much rain throughout Georgia and Alabama has greatly reduced the production of short leaf pine, members of the Roofer Manufacturers' club disclosed at their meeting here today. Many of the mills have been forced to shut down a considerable part of the time during the last three weeks, it was reported, and not a mill has been working a night shift.

Conditions of the roofer market was described as being better than in many weeks. It was voted to hold the next meeting of the club in Montgomery, Ala., on September 18, and the annual meeting will be held on October 30 either in Macon or Columbus.

$12 Wrightsville Beach, N. C.
$12 Myrtle Beach, S. C.
Tickets good 10 days. On sale Thursday and Saturday. Through sleepers, GEORGIA RAILROAD—(adv.)

The New President will win the vote of every member of the House—yours included!

The NEW President

$1685 factory

—and it's an Eight!

YARBROUGH MOTOR CO.

AL MARTIN'S GARAGE, Inc. DUFFELL MOTOR CO.
131 South First St. 418 Peachtree St.

Will be glad to show you this car.

STUDEBAKER

POPULARITY

As Abe Lincoln said
As you can't fool all the people all the time
.. If "STANDARD" Motor
Oil was not the BEST motor oil it wouldn't be the BEST seller
year after year....

STANDARD OIL COMPANY

INCORPORATED IN KENTUCKY

Every time you buy a gallon of gasoline—you pay 4c per gallon Georgia State Tax

BAKER'S
Season-End
CLEARANCE SALE

All Summer Shoes

Great Savings

For Styles Formerly Selling For $3.85 For Styles Formerly Selling For $4.85

BAKER'S
33 Whitehall St.—On the Viaduct

LOUISVILLE, KY.

Your best trip on the Ponce de Leon
Lv. Atlanta 6:00 P. M. Ar. Louisville 7:55 A. M.
For daylight trip Royal Palm
Lv. Atlanta 7:15 A. M. Ar. Louisville 9:35 P. M.

SOUTHERN RAILWAY SYSTEM
48 N. Broad St. Walnut 1951-1952

160 CONFEDERATE VETS TO GET MEDALS TODAY

Gold Star Living veterans medals of the Stone Mountain memorial will be presented to 160 Confederate veterans residing in Fulton county with appropriate ceremonies at 4 o'clock this afternoon, in the assembly hall of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce building, according to Mrs. William A. Wright, president of the Atlanta Ladies' Memorial association, sponsoring the occasion.

The veterans to whom the award of medals will be made are invited to be present at the exercises to receive in person their tokens of honor.

The Ladies' Memorial association set out some time ago to raise a fund for the purpose of inscribing in the Stone Mountain memorial every Confederate veteran now living in Fulton county. Their object was two-fold—to honor the veterans and to aid in the completion of the memorial.

Dr. Samuel T. Senter, pastor of the First Methodist church of Atlanta, will deliver the invocation, while an address will be presented by General J. Colton Lynes, U. S. V., of Marietta. Music for the occasion will be furnished by the band of the Georgia Power company.

H. E. COFFIN PLANS NEW HOME COLONY FOR S E A ISLAND

Plans for developing a home colony on Sea Island, near Brunswick, were outlined by Howard E. Coffin, famous Detroit capitalist, in a letter written to Governor L. G. Hardman Tuesday.

Mr. Coffin recently finished a big development on this island and he wrote the governor that the work has attracted widespread attention throughout the country.

CHILDREN'S HOME HEAD SPEAKS BEFORE CLUB

Miss Emma S. Hardcastle, superintendent of the Georgia Children's Home society, was principal speaker at the regular meeting of the Exchange club Tuesday, in the Henry Grady hotel. A vocal quartet from the Capitol theater provided the musical entertainment.

Bentley Calls For Party Pledge By Opponents

Ernest G. Bentley, candidate for the legislature from Fulton county for the position now held by Luther Still, in an announcement Tuesday calls attention to his former service in the legislature, and his record in working for the public school system of the state and the city, and to his participation in the successful fight against the proposal for a state income tax.

ERNEST G. BENTLEY.

He criticizes a measure introduced by his opponent proposing "to abolish all garnishment laws now existing in this state," of which he says:

"It is submitted that the state of Georgia and the business houses, large and small, and the general public, who may have debts owing them, can never again operate the credit system if this method of enforcing payment of debt is abolished."

He then lays emphasis on the obligation of every man entering a democratic primary to abide the result, whether state or national, of which he says:

"When I, and all the other candidates running in the present democratic primary, entered this race for various offices, we did so under the rules and regulations of the democratic party."

"This, I claim, meant that we were to run and act as real democrats."

"This, I believe, meant that we, as candidates, became the advocates of the state and national democratic party."

"Some candidates claim that they can run as democrats in a democratic primary and vote as republicans later."

"How a candidate who claims he is a democrat to an 'all the way' democrat and then claims that he is a democrat

SULLIVAN SHOOTING PROBE IS POSTPONED

Grand jury investigation into the shooting of Patrick M. Sullivan, of the state highway department, by H. C. Garrison, Terminal station superintendent, was postponed Tuesday pending a commitment hearing July 28 in police court.

A charge of disorderly conduct is docketed against Garrison at headquarters, where he made $2,000 bond Saturday afternoon, a few hours after the fight at the Terminal station.

While Sullivan was said by Grady attendants to be recovering Tuesday, Garrison and Miss Louise M. Stanfield, office employee who declares Garrison's attentions to her caused the encounter, were back at work in Terminal headquarters.

FOURTH WARD CIVIC ASSOCIATION HOLDS PICNIC ON FRIDAY

Members of the Fourth Ward Civic association will hold their first annual picnic Friday afternoon in Piedmont park, beginning at 5 o'clock, it was announced Tuesday. The committee in charge of arrangements will include Mrs. Arthur McDonald, Mrs. K. C. Cohen, Mrs. W. N. Gallaher, Mrs. J. C. Kennedy and Mrs. Fred Morris.

Councilman John A. White, chairman of the parks committee, has assured the organization arrangements will be made to care for 2,000 persons at the park. The largest attendance of any gathering held by the association is expected at the annual picnic, according to W. N. Gallaher.

Invitations have been sent to Mayor I. N. Ragsdale, members of council and other city officers to be guests of honor. Souvenirs are to be given away and a program has been arranged featuring a number of "prize stunts."

but will vote for a republican nominee to obtain the vote of the 'part' democrat and part republican' vote is not playing according to the rules of his party."

"It has been brought to my attention that some of the candidates for the legislature and for the other offices to be filled at the next election are playing this game."

"I believe that every candidate for office should come out in the public press and state whether he is 'part' and 'part' democratic or republican."

"Particularly do I challenge the candidates for the legislature to come out openly in the press and let the whole world know whether they are supporting the democratic party or whether they are supporting the republican party."

"I state here and now that I am a democrat. I find no fault with a man who says he is a republican but I do not believe that a candidate can be part one party and part the other and expect the voters of this county and state to accept him in that way."

Fresh Breezes, Light Showers On Slate Today

Cool, fresh breezes swept into the city by overhanging clouds at intervals today will keep temperatures down below the 80-degree mark, while an occasional light shower also is scheduled to fall, according to the forecast of C. F. von Herrmann, local weather bureau meteorologist.

But the showers today will not approximate any heavier downfall that on Tuesday, when a light thundershower fell shortly after noon, bringing precipitation of .01 inch. Temperatures Tuesday ranged from a low mark of 79 degrees to a high reading of 89 degrees.

STEELE INELIGIBLE FOR CONGRESS RACE, SAYS T. G. LEWIS

Asserting that Leslie J. Steele has been disqualified for the race for congress, due to his alleged failure to file a written statement of his candidacy in each county before the closing date for registration, Thomas G. Lewis, attorney, Tuesday explained his connection with the registration of William D. Upshaw, former congressman for the forthcoming election.

Declaring that entrance fees were paid by friends of Mr. Upshaw in all of the counties of the fifth congressional district before noon June 23, Mr. Lewis said that he went to Douglasville, capital seat of Douglas county, before that time and paid to the chairman a fee of $25.

It was understood, he said, that this fee, which was said to have been the taxation heretofore imposed on candidates, was paid with the understanding that should the committee at a subsequent meeting decide to enforce a larger fee, that the additional necessary sum would be paid for Mr. Upshaw.

Mr. Lewis alleged that Mr. Steele did not pay his entrance fees in two counties, unnamed in his statement, until between 11 o'clock and noon, June 23, after he had heard of Mr. Upshaw's entrance into the race.

DR. GIDDINGS SPEAKS BEFORE ROTARY CLUB

Dr. Glenville Giddings addressed the regular meeting of the Rotary club Tuesday, in the Capital City club.

Dr. Giddings spoke on care of the body during the summer under the title of "Summer Don'ts."

Louis D. Hicks, of the Southern Ruralist, was in charge of the program, while President Herbert Hutchinson presided.

GEORGIA EDUCATORS AT SUMMER SCHOOL

Athens, Ga., July 17.—(AP)—Georgia school superintendents and members of city and county educational boards met at the university summer school today for a conference on problems confronting individual schools and the state educational system.

Professor J. C. Wardlaw, director of the university extension department, presided as chairman of the superintendents institute, which will remain in session through Friday.

Governor L. G. Hardman and M. L. Dugan, state school superintendent, were on the institute's program this afternoon for addresses.

The parent-teacher institute, held in conjunction with the superintendents' conference, will open tomorrow afternoon. This meeting will be attended by Mrs. J. D. Miller, president of the Georgia P. T. A.; Mrs. P. H. Jeter, Decatur; Mrs. Bruce Carr Jones, Macon; Mrs. H. C. Parks, Atlanta; Mrs. I. J. Hofmayer, Albany; Mrs. Ira E. Farmer, Atlanta, and Mrs. C. A. Milburn, Macon.

SMITH IS FAVORED IN EUROPE OPINION, SAYS GREEK EDITOR

Athens, Ga., July 17.—(AP)—European opinion, "contrary to all expectations, is favorable to Governor Alfred E. Smith, of New York, rather than to Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce," Adamantios Th. Polyzois, editor of the Greek daily, Athens, of New York, said in an address prepared for delivery tonight to the Institute of Politics, at University of Georgia.

"Naturally such a statement must, like all public documents of today, be accepted with reservations," Mr. Polyzois said. He said he based his opinion on the writing of the majority of the "French, Italian and, generally speaking, Latin press of Europe," as contrasted with the more sober attitude of the British and German papers, which are lavish in their praise of the republican candidate for president of the United States.

Governor Smith's position on the prohibition question, the editor said, "is a fact that inspires enthusiasm to the majority of the French, Italian and Spanish writers, who seem to be unanimous in proclaiming that their cool nerves never harmed anybody since Biblical times when that beverage was in universal use. Nevertheless these observers know very well that this issue will not be settled so easily in the United States and they warn their wine producers not to jump to conclusions and to continue to look for markets other than the United States for the exportation of their liquid wares."

"From a strictly French point of view, the election of either Mr. Hoover or Mr. Smith is immaterial, as long as the established American policy calls for the repayment of those war loans," the editor declared.

He quoted a writer in La Liberte, Paris, as saying that the New York governor "has a good chance of winning the election in view of the fact that he has never lost in his campaign for public office."

"But that he is a formidable opponent is also recognized, and daily commented upon by his European friends."

GEORGIA JEWELERS TO CONVEVE TODAY IN ANNUAL MEETING

Jewelers throughout the state of Georgia will assemble in Atlanta today for the ninth annual convention of the Georgia Retail Jewelers' association. The opening session will be at 9:30 o'clock this morning, at the Henry Grady hotel.

Plans have been completed for an elaborate entertainment program to supplement the routine business, which will consist mainly of technical discussions pertaining to the trade.

Dinner for the delegates and their guests will be served tonight at the Henry Grady hotel. This will be followed by a theater party at the Howard theater.

NEW ORTHOPHONIC VICTROLA TO GIVE CONCERTS TODAY

The new orthophonic victrola recently purchased by the park department will give concerts this afternoon and tonight at Oakland city park. The schedule for the remainder of the week follows: Thursday, Howell park; Friday, Maddox park; Saturday, Grant park; and Sunday, Piedmont park. Hours of the concerts are from 3 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and 7 to 9 o'clock at night.

CANADIAN GIRLS REPORT SIGHTING MONSTER OF LAKE

Vernon, B. C., July 17.—(AP)—A report by a patrol of girl guides that they saw a mysterious monster disappearing itself in Ikanagan lake has led a few persons to believe in a reappearance of the "ogopogo," but a great many more concluded that the girl guides ought to have a new instructor in zoology, or keep out of the sun on hot days, or both.

The ogopogo has been reported before, always in the hottest weather; but whether it is the sun that causes the monster to rise to visibility from the depths of the lake or whether it merely causes sun-baked eyes to see something that isn't there, is an open question.

The girls were unable to give an accurate description of it but said it was about 45 feet long and rushed across the surface of the lake with an undulating motion that made "quite a noise."

HOLD EXAMINATIONS FOR POSTAL VACANCIES

Applications for an open competitive examination for clerks and carriers in the Atlanta postoffice will be received from now until August 3, by the United States Civil Service commission, it was announced Tuesday by L. A. Meyer, district secretary.

The examination will be conducted during the latter part of August and will be open to both men and women. The postmaster, however, has the legal right to specify the sex desired in requesting the certification of eligibles.

Further information may be obtained from the district secretary, Room 511, Postoffice building, it is announced.

Volunteer Board Meets.

The volunteer board of the Butler Street C. M. E. church, colored, met at the home of Ed McWorthe Saturday afternoon, July 14. R. T. Mitchell, evangelist, made an address.

Top of the Morning!

J. M. HIGH CO.

45 Years of Faithful Service and Value-giving

Phone Walnut 8681

Season-End Clearance

of

Carpet-Size Rugs

including

Velvets, Wiltons, Axminsters

This clearance of rugs prices the finest rugs in our stock at most interestingly low amounts! Buying means saving—at these prices!

One Table $55	$90, $97.50, $105
Axminster Rugs	Wilton Rugs
$47.50	$75.00

9x12 Axminster rugs in the choicest of patterns and colorings. Priced within easy reach of every pocketbook!

Highest quality Wiltons, of unsurpassed beauty of pattern and color combinations! At savings of $15 to $30!

$35.00

Velvet Rugs

Size 9x12

$27.95

All one-piece, seamless rugs, finished with rich fringe. Beautiful quality! Terms if you wish!

Only a Few of Each Kind, All Quite Unusual Values!

Newest Cretonnes

29c to 98c Yd.

These bright colored cretonnes will bring cheer into every home! For slip covers, drapes, upholstering—and beach coats!

Silk Taffeta and Damask

$1.49 Yd.

These are very fine silk taffetas and damasks for handsome draperies and curtains. Gorgeous colorings. All 50 inches wide. $1.85 to $2.25 values.

100 Gold Seal Congoleum Rugs

All Perfect Quality—Specially Priced

Only 100 of these splendid Gold Seal Congoleum rugs! Every one in attractive patterns and colors. For small dining rooms, breakfast rooms, porches and kitchens. Perfect quality!

$3.69

Women Know the Quality of Gold Seal Congoleum!

They Know the Great Value Represented at This Price!

Special Sale Electrical Appliances

Universal and Star-Rite Products. Every Item Fully Guaranteed.

$10.00 Electric Fans, 9-Inch Size.....	$5.95
$10.00 Electric Waffle Irons.....
$ 8.00 Electric Percolators.....
$ 7.50 Fine Heavy Electric Irons....
$ 6.50 Splendid Electric Heating Pads
$10.00 High-Grade Electric Toasters..
$10.00 Handsome Electric Grills.....

$1 Quality Electric Curling Irons

Indeed a wonderful bargain in excellent curling irons! Come and get your pair before they are all sold! High-grade nickel plated irons; black enamel finished handle.....

39c

HIGH'S, STREET FLOOR

A new inner tube? Let your tooth paste pay for it

How come, you ask? Do a little arithmetic with us and find out. The average dentifrice costs you 50c. You use about a tube a month. Twelve times fifty equals six dollars, the yearly cost. Listerine Tooth Paste costs 25c (the large tube). Twelve times twenty-five equals three dollars. All right. Six dollars minus three dollars equals three dollars, your annual saving. Spend it as you please, the inner tube is merely a suggestion.

Demanded by millions - a first class tooth paste at 25c

WOULDN'T a young man or woman starting out in life be glad to cut the yearly tooth paste bill from $6 to $3?

Wouldn't a man paying bills for a family of seven like to reduce the family tooth paste bill from $42 to $21?

We thought they would. Investigation showed that thousands of others felt the same way.

Therefore, we produced a really first class dentifrice at 25c for a large tube. Half of what you usually pay.

Listerine Tooth Paste is its name. Ultra-modern methods of manufacture, alone, permit such a price for such a paste.

In it are contained certain ingredients that our fifty years' study of tooth and mouth conditions taught us are necessary to a first class dentifrice for the perfect cleansing of all types of teeth.

Outstanding among them is a marvelous new and gentle polishing agent so speedy in action that tooth brushing is reduced to a minimum.

We ask you to try this delightful dentifrice one month. See how white it leaves your teeth. How good it makes your mouth feel. Judge it by results alone. And then reflect that during the year, it accomplishes a worthwhile saving. Lambert Pharmaceutical Company, St. Louis, Mo., U. S. A.

Large Tube
25c

LISTERINE TOOTH PASTE

THE CONSTITUTION
CLARK HOWELL
Editor and General Manager.
Clark Howell, Jr., Business Manager.

ESTABLISHED 1895

Entered at the Postoffice at Atlanta as second-class mail matter.

Telephone WAL 6055.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:
Daily and 1 Mo. 1 Mo. 3 Mo. 6 Mo. 1 Yr.
Single Copies—Daily, 5c; Sunday, 10c.
By Mail Only.
Daily (without Sunday) 1 Yr. $3.00
Daily (with Sunday) 1 Yr. $3.50
By Mail Only.
Daily (without Sunday) 1 Yr. $3.00
Daily (with Sunday) 1 Yr. $3.50

ATLANTA, GA., JULY 18, 1928.

J. R. HOLLIDAY, Constitution Building, 100 Peachtree street, Atlanta, Ga., is advertising manager for all territory outside of Atlanta.

THE CONSTITUTION is on sale in New York city by 2 p. m. the day after issue. It can be had: Stalling's News Stand, Broadway and 19th street; (Times building corner); Stirling News Agency, at Bryant Park and Grand Central Depot.

The Constitution is not responsible for advance payments to out-of-town local carriers, dealers or agents. It is not responsible for subscription payments not in accordance with published rates or for non-delivery, also not responsible for subscription payments not received at office of publication.

Member of The Associated Press.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein.

GOOD ADVICE—Let not Thine heart envy sinners; but be thou in the fear of the Lord all the day long.—Prov. 23:17.

PRAYER—May no evil thing have an appeal to us, dear Lord.

NEWS POOR ALIBI.

The indictment of Bre'r Howard, the negro national committeeman and republican patronage distributor in Mississippi for violation of the federal statutes against the selling of government jobs was to have been expected following the startling and disgraceful disclosures brought out by the grand jury.

In view of the developments Postmaster General New, who tried to alibi for Bre'r Howard, might with better grace revise his statement, and make the position of the administration at least clear.

Senator George, who with Senator Harris, instituted the charges that brought about the general investigation has very properly called the postmaster general's hand.

It is not believed for one moment that any cabinet official views with favor the auctioning of postmasterships and rural mail routes, but it is not helping the situation any by charging that the democrats have been guilty of the same practices. If it were true two wrongs do not make a right, and one wrong cannot be extenuated by citing another.

But it is not true. During the eight years of democratic administration under President Wilson there was not a charge ever made as to the selling of patronage, or corrupt practice in connection with appointments of any kind.

When the republicans got control of congress every effort was made, with various and sundry smelly committees, to find some scandal associated with the administration, and without success despite the fact that the country had been in war, and the young manhood of the country had to be mobilized.

The postmaster general cannot clear the skirts of the negro republican representatives in the south by trying to pass the buck in the way that he has. It would be better to come out frankly and admit that the jobbing of federal patronage does not meet with administration approval in any sense.

ATLANTA, GA., JULY 18, 1928.

J. R. HOLLIDAY, Constitution Building, 100 Peachtree street, Atlanta, Ga., is advertising manager for all territory outside of Atlanta.

THE CONSTITUTION is on sale in New York city by 2 p. m. the day after issue. It can be had: Stalling's News Stand, Broadway and 19th street; (Times building corner); Stirling News Agency, at Bryant Park and Grand Central Depot.

The Constitution is not responsible for advance payments to out-of-town local carriers, dealers or agents. It is not responsible for subscription payments not in accordance with published rates or for non-delivery, also not responsible for subscription payments not received at office of publication.

Member of The Associated Press.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein.

GOOD ADVICE—Let not Thine heart envy sinners; but be thou in the fear of the Lord all the day long.—Prov. 23:17.

PRAYER—May no evil thing have an appeal to us, dear Lord.

NEWS POOR ALIBI.

The indictment of Bre'r Howard, the negro national committeeman and republican patronage distributor in Mississippi for violation of the federal statutes against the selling of government jobs was to have been expected following the startling and disgraceful disclosures brought out by the grand jury.

In view of the developments Postmaster General New, who tried to alibi for Bre'r Howard, might with better grace revise his statement, and make the position of the administration at least clear.

Senator George, who with Senator Harris, instituted the charges that brought about the general investigation has very properly called the postmaster general's hand.

It is not believed for one moment that any cabinet official views with favor the auctioning of postmasterships and rural mail routes, but it is not helping the situation any by charging that the democrats have been guilty of the same practices. If it were true two wrongs do not make a right, and one wrong cannot be extenuated by citing another.

But it is not true. During the eight years of democratic administration under President Wilson there was not a charge ever made as to the selling of patronage, or corrupt practice in connection with appointments of any kind.

When the republicans got control of congress every effort was made, with various and sundry smelly committees, to find some scandal associated with the administration, and without success despite the fact that the country had been in war, and the young manhood of the country had to be mobilized.

The postmaster general cannot clear the skirts of the negro republican representatives in the south by trying to pass the buck in the way that he has. It would be better to come out frankly and admit that the jobbing of federal patronage does not meet with administration approval in any sense.

ATLANTA, GA., JULY 18, 1928.

J. R. HOLLIDAY, Constitution Building, 100 Peachtree street, Atlanta, Ga., is advertising manager for all territory outside of Atlanta.

THE CONSTITUTION is on sale in New York city by 2 p. m. the day after issue. It can be had: Stalling's News Stand, Broadway and 19th street; (Times building corner); Stirling News Agency, at Bryant Park and Grand Central Depot.

The Constitution is not responsible for advance payments to out-of-town local carriers, dealers or agents. It is not responsible for subscription payments not in accordance with published rates or for non-delivery, also not responsible for subscription payments not received at office of publication.

Member of The Associated Press.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein.

GOOD ADVICE—Let not Thine heart envy sinners; but be thou in the fear of the Lord all the day long.—Prov. 23:17.

PRAYER—May no evil thing have an appeal to us, dear Lord.

NEWS POOR ALIBI.

The indictment of Bre'r Howard, the negro national committeeman and republican patronage distributor in Mississippi for violation of the federal statutes against the selling of government jobs was to have been expected following the startling and disgraceful disclosures brought out by the grand jury.

In view of the developments Postmaster General New, who tried to alibi for Bre'r Howard, might with better grace revise his statement, and make the position of the administration at least clear.

Senator George, who with Senator Harris, instituted the charges that brought about the general investigation has very properly called the postmaster general's hand.

It is not believed for one moment that any cabinet official views with favor the auctioning of postmasterships and rural mail routes, but it is not helping the situation any by charging that the democrats have been guilty of the same practices. If it were true two wrongs do not make a right, and one wrong cannot be extenuated by citing another.

But it is not true. During the eight years of democratic administration under President Wilson there was not a charge ever made as to the selling of patronage, or corrupt practice in connection with appointments of any kind.

It just the same in advertising as contract may call for. Therefore, no transportation will be forwarded to the railroad for cancellation following the meeting. This announcement has been made by Corresponding Secretary Stanley.

The Georgia Press association is a strong and compact organization of editors and publishers, and it has been the means of a fraternity that is uplifting, cooperative and in every way beneficial. It has always provided wholesome entertainment, several recreational trips each year, and collective enjoyment that is inspiring and healthful. The association has had a peculiarly able and versatile executive in Miss Woodward, the talented editor of the Vienna News.

It is not possible to be a "Hoover democrat."

The position that some people are taking that they can stay in the democratic party, and knife the party candidates from the inside is not tenable.

It is not only a plan having for its purpose the destruction of the party, by the unfair method that could possibly be employed, but it is a reflection upon one's intelligence to claim allegiance to a party that the same person is trying by indirection to defeat.

At a meeting of the democratic executive committee in Toombs county Chairman Brown very correctly challenged the right of C. C. Mosley to continue as secretary in view of his expressed opposition to the democratic standard bearer.

The secretary defended his position by declaring that in all things except his opposition to the democratic candidate he was a democrat.

It is not possible to be for a party and knife its nominees.

It is not possible to blow hot and cold at the same time.

It is not possible to make tracks on both sides of the fence at the same time.

Any person who wants to vote the republican ticket in November has that privilege if qualified. But no such person has a moral right to participate in a democratic primary.

It is infinitely more honorable to make direct party alignment against the party and to say so frankly than to attempt to ride on the democratic ship while doing everything possible to scuttle it.

It is one or the other, and there is no middle ground.

COTTON GOODS SHOW.

The Cotton Manufacturers' Association of Georgia is doing a splendid service in stimulating a greater interest in the use of cotton fabrics in ladies' wearing apparel.

One of the features is a cotton goods show to be conducted at Athens on July 19-20. It will be held under the personal supervision of President James White, Jr., of the James White Cotton Mills of that city. The show will be in the nature of a contest, and substantial prizes will be offered to young women who can create the most attractive costume from cotton fabrics.

This is a movement that merits the hearty cooperation of every man and woman in Georgia. The world has gone silk mad. Not only are silk garments more expensive, less healthful, hotter in summer, but they are not as attractive in many instances as garments made from cotton materials. At the approaching show a large number of young ladies attending the university summer school will be dressed in these garments.

If the women would return to the liberal use of cotton fabrics it is astonishing what an increase there would be in cotton consumption. The cotton producers would benefit, and the high costs of apparel would be materially reduced.

If there is any section of the country, from every viewpoint, that ought to encourage the greater use of cotton fabrics it is the south.

A Toronto scientist has produced the lowest temperature ever existent on the face of the earth, 459 degrees below zero, Fahr. Why tell us? It cannot be used as campaign material, for Mr. Coolidge is not running.

The Americans who flew to Australia brought back to this country a couple of kangaroos. They went over with three hops and came back with two.

Some enterprising automobile concern can take the lead in advertising the necessity of every family buying a servant's car.

"Women Not to Be Soiled by Contact With Tammany," shouts a headline. Possibly they prefer to "Be Oiled by Contact With G. O. P."

From now on to November the United States will be the land of promise.

"Polish Dictator Has Quit His Post."—Headline. Don't you infer he quit his pole?

Florida had its boom and is now scheduling a boom again—the business and people are coming back.

From the way some of the women are taking it looks as if too many democrats married republican wives.

THE WORLD'S WINDOW

BY PIERRE VAN PAASSEN

Ypres Today.

Clean, neat houses fill the Grand place again. The cathedral spire is visible above a forest of scaffolding. Motorcycles with the exhaust wide open roar along the road leading into Ypres. Over at "Hell Fire Corner" there is a haven and a whole stretch of freshly painted, red-roofed dwellings. The old ramparts of the town still stand in the red soil. You may see the ridges, now little villages with cattle in their amazing green meadows and fields. You may see the water below the ramparts of Ypres, with its stagnant terrible scum and the awful things lying at the bottom that stare at your unseeing eyes at the Flemish sky. Millions of midges swim around here today in a clean translucent pool. Naked boys splash around in the red soil. Swallows wing gleaming above the blue water. Only one familiar sound. The croak of the frogs and if your ears are attuned to frog music there are one of those amphibians singing a basso-profundo who was here when chunks of steel dropping from the sky hissed and boiled in the water.

It is not possible to be a "Hoover democrat."

The position that some people are taking that they can stay in the democratic party, and knife the party candidates from the inside is not tenable.

It is not only a plan having for its purpose the destruction of the party, by the unfair method that could possibly be employed, but it is a reflection upon one's intelligence to claim allegiance to a party that the same person is trying by indirection to defeat.

At a meeting of the democratic executive committee in Toombs county Chairman Brown very correctly challenged the right of C. C. Mosley to continue as secretary in view of his expressed opposition to the democratic standard bearer.

The secretary defended his position by declaring that in all things except his opposition to the democratic candidate he was a democrat.

It is not possible to be for a party and knife its nominees.

It is not possible to blow hot and cold at the same time.

It is not possible to make tracks on both sides of the fence at the same time.

Any person who wants to vote the republican ticket in November has that privilege if qualified. But no such person has a moral right to participate in a democratic primary.

It is infinitely more honorable to make direct party alignment against the party and to say so frankly than to attempt to ride on the democratic ship while doing everything possible to scuttle it.

It is one or the other, and there is no middle ground.

COTTON GOODS SHOW.

The Cotton Manufacturers' Association of Georgia is doing a splendid service in stimulating a greater interest in the use of cotton fabrics in ladies' wearing apparel.

One of the features is a cotton goods show to be conducted at Athens on July 19-20. It will be held under the personal supervision of President James White, Jr., of the James White Cotton Mills of that city. The show will be in the nature of a contest, and substantial prizes will be offered to young women who can create the most attractive costume from cotton fabrics.

This is a movement that merits the hearty cooperation of every man and woman in Georgia. The world has gone silk mad. Not only are silk garments more expensive, less healthful, hotter in summer, but they are not as attractive in many instances as garments made from cotton materials. At the approaching show a large number of young ladies attending the university summer school will be dressed in these garments.

If the women would return to the liberal use of cotton fabrics it is astonishing what an increase there would be in cotton consumption. The cotton producers would benefit, and the high costs of apparel would be materially reduced.

If there is any section of the country, from every viewpoint, that ought to encourage the greater use of cotton fabrics it is the south.

A Toronto scientist has produced the lowest temperature ever existent on the face of the earth, 459 degrees below zero, Fahr. Why tell us? It cannot be used as campaign material, for Mr. Coolidge is not running.

The Americans who flew to Australia brought back to this country a couple of kangaroos. They went over with three hops and came back with two.

Some enterprising automobile concern can take the lead in advertising the necessity of every family buying a servant's car.

"Women Not to Be Soiled by Contact With Tammany," shouts a headline. Possibly they prefer to "Be Oiled by Contact With G. O. P."

From now on to November the United States will be the land of promise.

"Polish Dictator Has Quit His Post."—Headline. Don't you infer he quit his pole?

Florida had its boom and is now scheduling a boom again—the business and people are coming back.

From the way some of the women are taking it looks as if too many democrats married republican wives.

LOOKING AND LISTENING

BY SAM W. SMALL.

The Paramount Issue Is To Have a Party 100 Per Cent Loyal.

Kansas City, July 17.—(Special.) The Constitution is advocating the proper and just policy when it demands that democrats—especially those who are not democrats—shall stand up to be counted and reliably registered.

How do our kicker democrats like the looks of that sort of line-up? The twelve to the negroes—say six white electors for the districts in north Georgia and six negro electors for the districts in south Georgia.

How do our kicker democrats like the looks of that sort of line-up? The twelve to the negroes—say six white electors for the districts in north Georgia and six negro electors for the districts in south Georgia.

How do our kicker democrats like the looks of that sort of line-up? The twelve to the negroes—say six white electors for the districts in north Georgia and six negro electors for the districts in south Georgia.

How do our kicker democrats like the looks of that sort of line-up? The twelve to the negroes—say six white electors for the districts in north Georgia and six negro electors for the districts in south Georgia.

How do our kicker democrats like the looks of that sort of line-up? The twelve to the negroes—say six white electors for the districts in north Georgia and six negro electors for the districts in south Georgia.

How do our kicker democrats like the looks of that sort of line-up? The twelve to the negroes—say six white electors for the districts in north Georgia and six negro electors for the districts in south Georgia.

How do our kicker democrats like the looks of that sort of line-up? The twelve to the negroes—say six white electors for the districts in north Georgia and six negro electors for the districts in south Georgia.

How do our kicker democrats like the looks of that sort of line-up? The twelve to the negroes—say six white electors for the districts in north Georgia and six negro electors for the districts in south Georgia.

How do our kicker democrats like the looks of that sort of line-up? The twelve to the negroes—say six white electors for the districts in north Georgia and six negro electors for the districts in south Georgia.

How do our kicker democrats like the looks of that sort of line-up? The twelve to the negroes—say six white electors for the districts in north Georgia and six negro electors for the districts in south Georgia.

How do our kicker democrats like the looks of that sort of line-up? The twelve to the negroes—say six white electors for the districts in north Georgia and six negro electors for the districts in south Georgia.

How do our kicker democrats like the looks of that sort of line-up? The twelve to the negroes—say six white electors for the districts in north Georgia and six negro electors for the districts in south Georgia.

How do our kicker democrats like the looks of that sort of line-up? The twelve to the negroes—say six white electors for the districts in north Georgia and six negro electors for the districts in south Georgia.

How do our kicker democrats like the looks of that sort of line-up? The twelve to the negroes—say six white electors for the districts in north Georgia and six negro electors for the districts in south Georgia.

How do our kicker democrats like the looks of that sort of line-up? The twelve to the negroes—say six white electors for the districts in north Georgia and six negro electors for the districts in south Georgia.

How do our kicker democrats like the looks of that sort of line-up? The twelve to the negroes—say six white electors for the districts in north Georgia and six negro electors for the districts in south Georgia.

How do our kicker democrats like the looks of that sort of line-up? The twelve to the negroes—say six white electors for the districts in north Georgia and six negro electors for the districts in south Georgia.

How do our kicker democrats like the looks of that sort of line-up? The twelve to the negroes—say six white electors for the districts in north Georgia and six negro electors for the districts in south Georgia.

How do our kicker democrats like the looks of that sort of line-up? The twelve to the negroes—say six white electors for the districts in north Georgia and six negro electors for the districts in south Georgia.

How do our kicker democrats like the looks of that sort of line-up? The twelve to the negroes—say six white electors for the districts in north Georgia and six negro electors for the districts in south Georgia.

How do our kicker democrats like the looks of that sort of line-up? The twelve to the negroes—say six white electors for the districts in north Georgia and six negro electors for the districts in south Georgia.

How do our kicker democrats like the looks of that sort of line-up? The twelve to the negroes—say six white electors for the districts in north Georgia and six negro electors for the districts in south Georgia.

How do our kicker democrats like the looks of that sort of line-up? The twelve to the negroes—say six white electors for the districts in north Georgia and six negro electors for the districts in south Georgia.

How do our kicker democrats like the looks of that sort of line-up? The twelve to the negroes—say six white electors for the districts in north Georgia and six negro electors for the districts in south Georgia.

How do our kicker democrats like the looks of that sort of line-up? The twelve to the negroes—say six white electors for the districts in north Georgia and six negro electors for the districts in south Georgia.

How do our kicker democrats like the looks of that sort of line-up? The twelve to the negroes—say six white electors for the districts in north Georgia and six negro electors for the districts in south Georgia.

How do our kicker democrats like the looks of that sort of line-up? The twelve to the negroes—say six white electors for the districts in north Georgia and six negro electors for the districts in south Georgia.

How do our kicker democrats like the looks of that sort of line-up? The twelve to the negroes—say six white electors for the districts in north Georgia and six negro electors for the districts in south Georgia.

How do our kicker democrats like the looks of that sort of line-up? The twelve to the negroes—say six white electors for the districts in north Georgia and six negro electors for the districts in south Georgia.

How do our kicker democrats like the looks of that sort of line-up? The twelve to the negroes—say six white electors for the districts in north Georgia and six negro electors for the districts in south Georgia.

How do our kicker democrats like the looks of that sort of line-up? The twelve to the negroes—say six white electors for the districts in north Georgia and six negro electors for the districts in south Georgia.

Health Talks

BY DR. WILLIAM BRADY.

AN OUTLINE OF HYGIENE.

No. 44—The Survival of the Fittest. The survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence is one of the fundamental principles of heredity. It has been applied to the theory of evolution. There it takes on a cruel sense that is naturally repugnant to conscience. But my dislike for this idea is inspired by the blind, fatalistic, almost superstitious suggestion it conveys. Any one point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence, and I will be glad to point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence.

I am an optimist. It seems plausible to me that the survival of the fittest played a great part in evolution, but I do not believe it is a factor of any great importance now. Any one point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence, and I will be glad to point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence.

I am an optimist. It seems plausible to me that the survival of the fittest played a great part in evolution, but I do not believe it is a factor of any great importance now. Any one point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence, and I will be glad to point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence.

I am an optimist. It seems plausible to me that the survival of the fittest played a great part in evolution, but I do not believe it is a factor of any great importance now. Any one point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence, and I will be glad to point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence.

I am an optimist. It seems plausible to me that the survival of the fittest played a great part in evolution, but I do not believe it is a factor of any great importance now. Any one point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence, and I will be glad to point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence.

I am an optimist. It seems plausible to me that the survival of the fittest played a great part in evolution, but I do not believe it is a factor of any great importance now. Any one point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence, and I will be glad to point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence.

I am an optimist. It seems plausible to me that the survival of the fittest played a great part in evolution, but I do not believe it is a factor of any great importance now. Any one point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence, and I will be glad to point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence.

I am an optimist. It seems plausible to me that the survival of the fittest played a great part in evolution, but I do not believe it is a factor of any great importance now. Any one point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence, and I will be glad to point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence.

I am an optimist. It seems plausible to me that the survival of the fittest played a great part in evolution, but I do not believe it is a factor of any great importance now. Any one point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence, and I will be glad to point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence.

I am an optimist. It seems plausible to me that the survival of the fittest played a great part in evolution, but I do not believe it is a factor of any great importance now. Any one point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence, and I will be glad to point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence.

I am an optimist. It seems plausible to me that the survival of the fittest played a great part in evolution, but I do not believe it is a factor of any great importance now. Any one point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence, and I will be glad to point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence.

I am an optimist. It seems plausible to me that the survival of the fittest played a great part in evolution, but I do not believe it is a factor of any great importance now. Any one point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence, and I will be glad to point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence.

I am an optimist. It seems plausible to me that the survival of the fittest played a great part in evolution, but I do not believe it is a factor of any great importance now. Any one point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence, and I will be glad to point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence.

I am an optimist. It seems plausible to me that the survival of the fittest played a great part in evolution, but I do not believe it is a factor of any great importance now. Any one point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence, and I will be glad to point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence.

I am an optimist. It seems plausible to me that the survival of the fittest played a great part in evolution, but I do not believe it is a factor of any great importance now. Any one point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence, and I will be glad to point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence.

I am an optimist. It seems plausible to me that the survival of the fittest played a great part in evolution, but I do not believe it is a factor of any great importance now. Any one point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence, and I will be glad to point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence.

I am an optimist. It seems plausible to me that the survival of the fittest played a great part in evolution, but I do not believe it is a factor of any great importance now. Any one point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence, and I will be glad to point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence.

I am an optimist. It seems plausible to me that the survival of the fittest played a great part in evolution, but I do not believe it is a factor of any great importance now. Any one point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence, and I will be glad to point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence.

I am an optimist. It seems plausible to me that the survival of the fittest played a great part in evolution, but I do not believe it is a factor of any great importance now. Any one point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence, and I will be glad to point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence.

I am an optimist. It seems plausible to me that the survival of the fittest played a great part in evolution, but I do not believe it is a factor of any great importance now. Any one point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence, and I will be glad to point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence.

I am an optimist. It seems plausible to me that the survival of the fittest played a great part in evolution, but I do not believe it is a factor of any great importance now. Any one point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence, and I will be glad to point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence.

I am an optimist. It seems plausible to me that the survival of the fittest played a great part in evolution, but I do not believe it is a factor of any great importance now. Any one point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence, and I will be glad to point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence.

I am an optimist. It seems plausible to me that the survival of the fittest played a great part in evolution, but I do not believe it is a factor of any great importance now. Any one point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence, and I will be glad to point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence.

I am an optimist. It seems plausible to me that the survival of the fittest played a great part in evolution, but I do not believe it is a factor of any great importance now. Any one point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence, and I will be glad to point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence.

I am an optimist. It seems plausible to me that the survival of the fittest played a great part in evolution, but I do not believe it is a factor of any great importance now. Any one point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence, and I will be glad to point out an instance of the survival of the fittest in the struggle for existence.

I am an optimist. It seems plausible to me that the survival of the fittest played a great part in evolution, but I do not believe it is

CANNON'S PARLEY WILL OPEN TODAY

Asheville, N. C., July 17.—(AP)—Churchmen and temperance leaders from several states were here tonight for the opening of the conference of "southern dry democrats" scheduled for 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The meeting was called for the avowed purpose of defeating Governor Alfred E. Smith, of New York, who was described as "the wet Tammany candidate."

Only invited delegates will be allowed to attend the first session of the conference. An open meeting will be held tomorrow night. The meeting was called immediately after the nomination of Governor Smith by the democrats. Bishop James Cannon, Jr., of Richmond, of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, and Dr. A. J. Barton, of Atlanta, prominent Baptist leader, issued the call.

"We will have all we expected at the conference and more," Bishop Cannon announced, "we couldn't hold it down to the point where we first had intended."

Thirty reservations had been made at the Battery Park hotel tonight. Most of these were from church officials and temperance organizations.

Bishop Cannon declined to say who would speak at the opening tomorrow night, which probably will be the only general session of the two-day conference.

While Bishop Cannon did not announce the names of those who could come, it was known that Bishop Mounzon, of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, now at Lake Junaluska, would likely be present and Bishop Dabose, of Nashville, in charge of missions of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, as well.

DUBOSE CRITICIZES CANDLE'S STATEMENT.

Nashville, Tenn., July 17.—(AP)—Declaring that neither he nor any other bishop of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, is "dissenting" from the Methodist tradition by taking an active part in the coming presidential election, Bishop H. M. Dabose today issued a statement declaring that the letter of Bishop Warren A. Candler, made public in Atlanta today, would be misinterpreted and "used to put the church in a false position."

Bishop Candler had reviewed the history of his church to show that it had always opposed taking part in political spheres and asserting his unwillingness to "dissent" from this position.

"As Bishop Candler's colleague in the high office of the Episcopacy it gives me great pleasure to say that I hold with him to the principle and tradition that the Methodist church is not a political body. Also, I am in no dissent from the position of my church." Had Bishop Candler's letter come at any other juncture than the present it would have been of no significance, nor would it have had the slightest effect.

Bishop Candler had reviewed the history of his church to show that it had always opposed taking part in political spheres and asserting his unwillingness to "dissent" from this position.

"As Bishop Candler's colleague in the high office of the Episcopacy it gives me great pleasure to say that I hold with him to the principle and tradition that the Methodist church is not a political body. Also, I am in no dissent from the position of my church." Had Bishop Candler's letter come at any other juncture than the present it would have been of no significance, nor would it have had the slightest effect.

"As Bishop Candler's colleague in the high office of the Episcopacy it gives me great pleasure to say that I hold with him to the principle and tradition that the Methodist church is not a political body. Also, I am in no dissent from the position of my church." Had Bishop Candler's letter come at any other juncture than the present it would have been of no significance, nor would it have had the slightest effect.

"As Bishop Candler's colleague in the high office of the Episcopacy it gives me great pleasure to say that I hold with him to the principle and tradition that the Methodist church is not a political body. Also, I am in no dissent from the position of my church." Had Bishop Candler's letter come at any other juncture than the present it would have been of no significance, nor would it have had the slightest effect.

"As Bishop Candler's colleague in the high office of the Episcopacy it gives me great pleasure to say that I hold with him to the principle and tradition that the Methodist church is not a political body. Also, I am in no dissent from the position of my church." Had Bishop Candler's letter come at any other juncture than the present it would have been of no significance, nor would it have had the slightest effect.

"As Bishop Candler's colleague in the high office of the Episcopacy it gives me great pleasure to say that I hold with him to the principle and tradition that the Methodist church is not a political body. Also, I am in no dissent from the position of my church." Had Bishop Candler's letter come at any other juncture than the present it would have been of no significance, nor would it have had the slightest effect.

"As Bishop Candler's colleague in the high office of the Episcopacy it gives me great pleasure to say that I hold with him to the principle and tradition that the Methodist church is not a political body. Also, I am in no dissent from the position of my church." Had Bishop Candler's letter come at any other juncture than the present it would have been of no significance, nor would it have had the slightest effect.

"As Bishop Candler's colleague in the high office of the Episcopacy it gives me great pleasure to say that I hold with him to the principle and tradition that the Methodist church is not a political body. Also, I am in no dissent from the position of my church." Had Bishop Candler's letter come at any other juncture than the present it would have been of no significance, nor would it have had the slightest effect.

"As Bishop Candler's colleague in the high office of the Episcopacy it gives me great pleasure to say that I hold with him to the principle and tradition that the Methodist church is not a political body. Also, I am in no dissent from the position of my church." Had Bishop Candler's letter come at any other juncture than the present it would have been of no significance, nor would it have had the slightest effect.

"As Bishop Candler's colleague in the high office of the Episcopacy it gives me great pleasure to say that I hold with him to the principle and tradition that the Methodist church is not a political body. Also, I am in no dissent from the position of my church." Had Bishop Candler's letter come at any other juncture than the present it would have been of no significance, nor would it have had the slightest effect.

"As Bishop Candler's colleague in the high office of the Episcopacy it gives me great pleasure to say that I hold with him to the principle and tradition that the Methodist church is not a political body. Also, I am in no dissent from the position of my church." Had Bishop Candler's letter come at any other juncture than the present it would have been of no significance, nor would it have had the slightest effect.

"As Bishop Candler's colleague in the high office of the Episcopacy it gives me great pleasure to say that I hold with him to the principle and tradition that the Methodist church is not a political body. Also, I am in no dissent from the position of my church." Had Bishop Candler's letter come at any other juncture than the present it would have been of no significance, nor would it have had the slightest effect.

est value for the political newspapers." Bishop Dabose's statement read in part:

"The position of Bishop Candler is that of every other bishop of the church. . . . The trouble with the bishop's letter is that it will be used to put the church in a false position, and will also tend to leave his own spirit misunderstood as to the issue of the moral crisis now confronting the people of the whole nation."

Bishop Dabose then asserted that the Candler letter would be used to charge that "his colleagues and the church at large (as I believe it to stand) are in politics, offensively so. This I emphatically deny."

"As much as Bishop Candler, I abjure and disavow the elements of politics; but the present situation in American public life has passed out of the realm of politics and entered that of high morality and essential righteousness."

"The churchman and the civilian alike must act from the standpoint of citizenship and patriotism," he asserted. He asserted that "the policy of Governor Smith and his chairman (John J. Raskob) darkened the land as though a plague of Asiatic cholera or a scourge of yellow fever were sweeping the population."

Bishop Dabose then drew attention to the church having created its board of temperance and public service "to formulate the principles of temperance and Christian social service, carry on a comprehensive plan of education for the church in these principles, point out the practical application of these principles to particular social problems and conditions . . . to create and cultivate interest in the whole church and temperance and social service by every legitimate Christian way and means to cooperate with the other boards and agencies in the church in advancing human social welfare."

This he asserted is what is now being done by himself and others in the church.

Fascisti Will Pay Homage to Its Bitterest Critic

Rome, July 17.—(AP)—The fascist government today prepared to do its part in honoring the character of one of its most persistent critics—Giovanni Giolitti, former premier—who died early this morning.

"We salute Giovanni Giolitti as a just and most respectable incarnation of legal opposition to fascism," said the labor newspaper, Lavoro D'Italia, in its appreciation of the life and works of the old parliamentary statesman. This sentiment was echoed in various forms by other newspapers and in governmental circles where a special remembrance was had of the courageous manner in which Giolitti would up his parliamentary career by attacking the fascist electoral measures.

Only one other member voted with Giolitti against that bill and no reply was made to his strictures.

The funeral is to be held and burial is to be made in the family tomb at Cavour. The services are to start at 4 p. m. Thursday.

Although Giolitti himself had requested that only simple ceremonies be carried out, his eldest son, Federico, has agreed with government officials that the occasion should be worthy of the name and fame of his famous father.

Premier Mussolini commissioned the prefect of Turin to convey his personal condolences to the Giolitti family. King Victor Emmanuel telegraphed to Francesco Giolitti that he was "deeply saddened."

Waycross Hears 'Mystery Voice,' New Invention

Waycross, Ga., July 17.—(Special)—The "Mystery Voice," emanating from the most powerful portable audio broadcasting station in the United States, will be used in Waycross for the second annual southeast Georgia gold leaf ball, to be broadcast Tuesday by Fred J. Paxon, chairman of the church executive committee.

Names of the guest preachers and dates on which they will be heard here follow: July 28, the Rev. Broadus E. Jones, Oakland City; July 29, the Rev. L. H. Henderson, Columbus; August 5, the Rev. Leon M. Lott, Grapeland; August 12, the Rev. L. C. Henderson, Columbus; August 19, the Rev. J. C. Wilkinson, Athens; August 26, the Rev. John E. White, Savannah.

Naval Dirigible Back in Hangar After Night Cruise

Lakehurst, N. J., July 17.—(AP)—The naval dirigible, Los Angeles, returned to the naval air field here this morning after an all night training cruise along the Atlantic coast. She was not pulled out of the hangar, but moored to the mast with the expectation of making another flight today.

The non-rigid dirigible J-4 took off at 8:45 o'clock, eastern standard time, this morning for a training flight to Langley field, Va. She expected to stay there overnight and return to Lakehurst field tomorrow.

She carried a crew of four men and was in charge of Lieutenant R. F. Tyler.

WILLIS SUTTON SPEAKS AT KIWANIS MEETING

Willis A. Sutton, superintendent of Atlanta public schools, addressed the regular meeting of the Kiwanis club Tuesday, at the Ansley hotel. Mr. Sutton spoke on the schools in Georgia. The meeting was presided over by President Fred H. Snel.

HENRY HEINZ TO SPEAK BEFORE MASONS TODAY

Henry Heinz, prominent figure in Masonic circles and past president of the Kiwanis International, will be principal speaker at the weekly meeting of the Atlanta Masonic club, at 12:30 o'clock today, in the Wineoff hotel.

A musical program will feature James De La Fuente, well-known violinist, accompanied by his mother. The program is in charge of Claude Hughes.

SAYS WHITE BAND IS NON-POLITICAL

J. B. Sifton, national provost general, the White Band, Inc., called attention Tuesday to a communication published recently and signed by a person who stated he was an official of the White Band, in which politics were the keynote of the letter. Mr. Sifton stated that the White Band is non-sectarian, open to all religious faiths and is non-political in every respect.

To Lift Out Mud 3,000 Feet Deep In New Oil Well

Thomasville, Ga., July 17.—(Special)—Owens & Turner, operators of the well that has been drilled 3,838 feet for oil between Thomasville and Monticello, Fla., state that they have now received from Shreveport, La., a high-pressure oil-field air compressor. G. W. Harwood, air expert of Shreveport, is on the ground and will supervise installation and operation of the machine. This machine will force a current of air under high pressure down the well, getting in beneath the mud and pushing it up and out of the well, and with this weight of mud delivered, if the well contains oil, as owners and drillers firmly believe, when the pressure of the three-quarters of a mile is relieved the oil will flow to the surface. Outcome of the test is awaited with tense interest all through this section of southwest Georgia and north Florida.

SECURITIES LAW VIOLATION LAID TO MEMPHIS MEN

Three indictments charging violation of state securities laws a felony, were found by the grand jury Tuesday jointly against B. A. Bogy and J. R. Humphries, both said to be residents of Memphis, Tenn., who are alleged to have sold stock here last fall without the required state license.

According to information at the solicitor's office, Bogy and Humphries sold stock in the Georgia Stores company, for which Clarence Wayne, of Atlanta, since has been appointed trustee.

Parties who are alleged to have bought stock from Bogy and Humphries while the latter were operating without license, included C. R. Lusher and Mrs. Bessie W. Lusher, of 40 Fourteenth street, and M. C. Frey, of 88 Walton street.

Bond of $2,000 each was assessed against the two men.

SCIENCE TRIUMPHS OVER ODDS; SEED TAKEN FROM LUNG

Jacksonville, Fla., July 17.—(AP)—Medical science today triumphed over great odds and saved the life of 11-month-old Jimmie Gay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gray, of Gaines county.

Jimmie had lodged a watermelon seed in her lung, and was brought to Jacksonville for an operation which is regarded by physicians as one of the most difficult of all to perform.

A tube with a tiny electric light at the end was inserted down the windpipe into the lung, the seed was located and removed with a forceps. Jimmie was said tonight to have fully recovered.

PRAYER SERVICES FOR DEAN JOHNSTON TO BE HELD TODAY

Special prayers for the recovery of Dean T. H. Johnston will be offered up at 12:05 o'clock this afternoon in St. Philip's cathedral, according to announcement Tuesday by Mrs. Allen V. Gray, secretary of the cathedral. The congregation and friends of the Very Rev. Mr. Johnston will participate in the exercises, which will include the litany with prayers for the sick. Canon J. W. Gubbins will be in charge.

SUPPLY PREACHERS WILL FILL PULPIT AT SECOND BAPTIST

A list of supply preachers who will occupy the pulpit of the Second Baptist church during the next six weeks of the summer season was announced Tuesday by Fred J. Paxon, chairman of the church executive committee.

Names of the guest preachers and dates on which they will be heard here follow: July 28, the Rev. Broadus E. Jones, Oakland City; July 29, the Rev. L. H. Henderson, Columbus; August 5, the Rev. Leon M. Lott, Grapeland; August 12, the Rev. L. C. Henderson, Columbus; August 19, the Rev. J. C. Wilkinson, Athens; August 26, the Rev. John E. White, Savannah.

Naval Dirigible Back in Hangar After Night Cruise

Lakehurst, N. J., July 17.—(AP)—The naval dirigible, Los Angeles, returned to the naval air field here this morning after an all night training cruise along the Atlantic coast. She was not pulled out of the hangar, but moored to the mast with the expectation of making another flight today.

The non-rigid dirigible J-4 took off at 8:45 o'clock, eastern standard time, this morning for a training flight to Langley field, Va. She expected to stay there overnight and return to Lakehurst field tomorrow.

She carried a crew of four men and was in charge of Lieutenant R. F. Tyler.

WILLIS SUTTON SPEAKS AT KIWANIS MEETING

Willis A. Sutton, superintendent of Atlanta public schools, addressed the regular meeting of the Kiwanis club Tuesday, at the Ansley hotel. Mr. Sutton spoke on the schools in Georgia. The meeting was presided over by President Fred H. Snel.

HENRY HEINZ TO SPEAK BEFORE MASONS TODAY

Henry Heinz, prominent figure in Masonic circles and past president of the Kiwanis International, will be principal speaker at the weekly meeting of the Atlanta Masonic club, at 12:30 o'clock today, in the Wineoff hotel.

A musical program will feature James De La Fuente, well-known violinist, accompanied by his mother. The program is in charge of Claude Hughes.

SAYS WHITE BAND IS NON-POLITICAL

J. B. Sifton, national provost general, the White Band, Inc., called attention Tuesday to a communication published recently and signed by a person who stated he was an official of the White Band, in which politics were the keynote of the letter. Mr. Sifton stated that the White Band is non-sectarian, open to all religious faiths and is non-political in every respect.

TAMPA BAY BRIDGE PLAN DISAPPROVED

Washington, July 17.—(AP)—The chief of engineers of the army has returned to the district engineer at Jacksonville the papers in connection with an application for a permit to build a bridge across Tampa bay, stating that at the present time he is unwilling to give his approval to the proposal.

In connection with the application it was said at the war department today that it is the view of the chief of engineers that in the interest of all concerned it was deemed advisable that the construction of such a bridge at the point proposed ought not to be approved. Should the development of the export trade with central and southern America reach the proportions now promised it would mean the port of Tampa would participate in that trade to a large extent. Army engineers, therefore, are loath to approve anything which would tend to impede navigation in Tampa harbor or its entrance.

At the same time they are considering the port of Tampa from a national defense point of view and they believe anything detrimental to unimpeded navigation should be avoided.

Instantly as the application for the proposed bridge requires the concurrent approval of the chief of engineers and of the secretary of war, the return of the papers to the district engineer at Jacksonville amounts to a disapproval of the project for the time being at least.

MAYOR PROTESTS WHISTLE BLOWING ON CENTRAL ROAD

Protest against the whistling of locomotives within the corporate limits of Atlanta was served upon J. J. Pelley, president of the Central of Georgia railway, in a letter sent Tuesday by Mayor I. N. Ragsdale.

Mayor Ragsdale complained that the engines of the Central, both passenger and freight, have been annoying the entire section "in which he lives until 'it makes life miserable.'"

"There seems to be a new whistle of some kind on some of your engines which the engineers seem to take great delight in blowing from the time they get to Fort McPherson until they get to the passenger station. They go out the same way," Mayor Ragsdale wrote.

"If you could just sit with some of us here to put up with this, even if only for a short space of time, I am sure you would not be surprised at my making this complaint," Mayor Ragsdale said.

SENATOR HARRISON COMMENTS STAND OF BISHOP CANDLER

Washington, July 17.—(AP)—Bishop Candler's statement yesterday emphasizing the "non-political" mission and work of the church, prompted Senator Harrison, democrat, Mississippi, to send him a telegram of congratulations today.

Harrison said that a "strict adherence by all American citizens, including the lay clergy, to the fine advice announced Tuesday by the bishop's statement" means a better understanding among all our people and a stronger government.

"As a Methodist and one who reveres the teachings of our fathers and the principles of our government, I congratulate you," he said.

BOOKS FOR CHILDREN
ANY TITLE WANTED
SOU. BOOK CONCERN
103 Whitehall St.

SOFTEX
The new and BETTER TOILET TISSUE!
Distributor
Atlanta Paper Company, Atlanta, Ga.

Restores Health, Energy and Rosy Cheeks
Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic
60c.

Aticura
SOAP and OINTMENT
World Famous Skin and Hair Beautifiers

PELLAGRA
CAN BE Cured
Are your lips, throat, tongue sore and red, with much mucus and pain? Are you hands red, skin peeling, feel sick, extremely weak? Check these danger signals of dread Pellagra NOW and prevent the development of this terrible disease into the frightful advanced stages which affect the brain. Pellagra can be cured if taken in time. Act NOW. Take no chances. Neglect of early symptoms may bring results that will cast the shadows of despair and agony over your entire life. Pellagra can be cured. Free proof to you.

Write now for 50-page book describing signs and symptoms, stages of development and startling new scientific facts about cause and cure of this horrible affliction. Send no money; just your name and address. AMERICAN COMPOUNDING CO.
Box 3003, Jasper, Ala.
Valuable Pellagra Book Sent FREE.

PELLAGRA
CAN BE Cured
Are your lips, throat, tongue sore and red, with much mucus and pain? Are you hands red, skin peeling, feel sick, extremely weak? Check these danger signals of dread Pellagra NOW and prevent the development of this terrible disease into the frightful advanced stages which affect the brain. Pellagra can be cured if taken in time. Act NOW. Take no chances. Neglect of early symptoms may bring results that will cast the shadows of despair and agony over your entire life. Pellagra can be cured. Free proof to you.

Write now for 50-page book describing signs and symptoms, stages of development and startling new scientific facts about cause and cure of this horrible affliction. Send no money; just your name and address. AMERICAN COMPOUNDING CO.
Box 3003, Jasper, Ala.
Valuable Pellagra Book Sent FREE.

Write now for 50-page book describing signs and symptoms, stages of development and startling new scientific facts about cause and cure of this horrible affliction. Send no money; just your name and address. AMERICAN COMPOUNDING CO.
Box 3003, Jasper, Ala.
Valuable Pellagra Book Sent FREE.

Write now for 50-page book describing signs and symptoms, stages of development and startling new scientific facts about cause and cure of this horrible affliction. Send no money; just your name and address. AMERICAN COMPOUNDING CO.
Box 3003, Jasper, Ala.
Valuable Pellagra Book Sent FREE.

Write now for 50-page book describing signs and symptoms, stages of development and startling new scientific facts about cause and cure of this horrible affliction. Send no money; just your name and address. AMERICAN COMPOUNDING CO.
Box 3003, Jasper, Ala.
Valuable Pellagra Book Sent FREE.

Write now for 50-page book describing signs and symptoms, stages of development and startling new scientific facts about cause and cure of this horrible affliction. Send no money; just your name and address. AMERICAN COMPOUNDING CO.
Box 3003, Jasper, Ala.
Valuable Pellagra Book Sent FREE.

SALE OF DRESSES

Garments Worth Up to $10.00
Will Go at a Mere Fraction of Their Actual Worth Wednesday

Ladies! A wonderful opportunity—that you will long remember—awaits you at High's! Wednesday you may purchase adorable Silk Dresses at a most remarkably low price. Every frock is new and fresh and individual! The styles are varied and designed so as to become any woman whether very small or extremely large.

Your Choice

$4.44
Sizes 14 to 50

Flat Crepes, Georgettes,
Printed Silks, Tub Silks,
Long and Short Sleeves!

$1.98 and $2.50
Full-Fashioned
SILK HOSE
$1.39

This is an exceptionally fine lot of Hose! All silk, pleated topped chiffon! Service weight with narrow garter top. Pointed and square heels. All colors. Sizes 8 1/2 to 10.

Children's 89c Wash Dresses 59c

Mothers, take advantage of this wonderful opportunity and buy a complete supply of lovely play dresses for the little girls. Pretty prints in flat colors. Many clever styles. Special value!

Children's 29c Socks 15c

Splendid hosiery for the kids. All first quality, in 1/2 lengths. Complete line of pastel shades. Sizes 4 1/2 to 8 1/2. A wonderful bargain for Wednesday shoppers.

2-Lb. Cotton Bats 39c

Regular 59c cotton bats to sell at 39c Wednesday. The very thing you need for making your quilts and comforts. Buy a supply at this modestly low price.

Men's Novelty Sox 19c

Men's rayon and cotton socks in a wide selection of novelty patterns and colors. All sizes.

Men's Athletic Unions 69c

Men's sleeveless and knee length athletic union suits made with reinforced elastic back and reinforced seams. Plain and fancy materials. Sizes 36 to 46.

Boys' Union Suits 39c

Boys' regular 100 athletic union suits made with reinforced elastic back and reinforced seams. Plain and fancy materials. Sizes 36 to 46.

Boys' Wash Pants 59c

Boys' well tailored linen crash wash pants. Nice selection of patterns and colors. In all sizes. Desirable sizes. Very special! All sizes.

Men's Linen Wash Suits
With 2 Pairs Pants
Values $16.85 to $22.50
Your Choice At $12.85
Sizes 34 to 44

Men's handsomely tailored and well made linen wash suits with two pairs of pants in two and three-button styles. In stripes, checks and plaids. An unusual value at this stupendously low price of $12.85.

Men's Shirts
of Very Fine Quality
Sizes 14 to 17 1/2
$1.19

Men's fine quality genuine Broadcloth Shirts with collar attached, or with two separate collars to match. In stripes, checks and figures. Every shirt in this lot guaranteed to be first quality.

High's Bargain Basement
The Economy Center of Atlanta

NEW FELTS
White and New Summer Shades
$1.95
Skull effects with Novelty Feather Trims so smart now—also Vagabond styles with just the right brims!

19c to 29c Summer Wash Goods 10c Yd.

Such values as these are seldom found! New and fresh summer wash goods at an unbelievably low price. In this lot you will find most lovely printed voiles, plain voiles and printed dimities. Very special!

Materials Are 36 and 38 In. Wide

36-Inch Nainsook
Excellent quality nainsook, an ideal material for making gowns and children's wear. All new and fresh merchandise from our regular stock. Specially priced for Wednesday's selling 15c Yd.

Drapery Cretonnes
Fine quality drapery cretonnes in figured or floral patterns. The very thing you need for making most beautiful draperies. Specially priced 29c Yd.

Feather Ticking
Strong and durable feather proof ticking in staple stripes. A most wonderful material for making pillows. 33c Yd.
A wonderful buy at

6x9 Felt Base Rugs $3.49

In buying these rugs you may feel assured that you are getting a fine quality rug which will give you many years of splendid service. In all the newest patterns and colors. They are suitable for the kitchen, bedroom or bath room. Very specially priced for Wednesday at

Men's Linen Wash Suits
With 2 Pairs Pants
Values $16.85 to $22.50
Your Choice At $12.85
Sizes 34 to 44

Men's handsomely tailored and well made linen wash suits with two pairs of pants in two and three-button styles. In stripes, checks and plaids. An unusual value at this stupendously low price of $12.85.

Men's Shirts
of Very Fine Quality
Sizes 14 to 17 1/2
$1.19

Men's fine quality genuine Broadcloth Shirts with collar attached, or with two separate collars to match. In stripes, checks and figures. Every shirt in this lot guaranteed to be first quality.

High's Bargain Basement
The Economy Center of Atlanta

High's Bargain Basement
The Economy Center of Atlanta

High's Bargain Basement
The Economy Center of Atlanta

High's Bargain Basement
The Economy Center of Atlanta

Crackers Rained Out; Took Three Straight Victory Today

Benning Bows To Grey Sox By 4-3 Count

Local Colored Nine Makes It Two in Row Over Soldiers.

BY FRED McEACHIN.
A timely ninth inning rally netted the Atlanta Gray Sox three runs and a second victory of the series against the colored Port Benning army men at Spiller's dell Tuesday afternoon.

The final score was 4 to 3. When the locals came to bat in their half of the ninth they were holding the short end of a 3-1 score. An error, a single by Cornelius, a hit batsman, a fielder's choice and a sacrifice fly were the factors in the scoring of the necessary three runs to win the ball game. Cotton's long sacrifice fly to Bell scored Lumpkin, who had been hit by a double in the eighth frame.

Until the eighth frame, Trammell, on the mound for the soldiers, had succeeded in holding the locals to four scattered hits. In the eighth, however, they touched his offerings for a double and two singles which accounted for Atlanta's first score. Cotton doubled to left field and later romped home on Hayes' single to left.

Take Early Lead.
The infantry bunched hits off Cornelius in the first inning and chalked up one score to take an early lead which they maintained until the Black Sox' hectic ninth rally. They added one each in the sixth and seventh frames, as a result of timely hitting.

In the ninth, Williams came to bat and was safe on Seals' error. He advanced to second when Cornelius followed with a single. Lumpkin went in to hit for Arnold and consequently was hit by Trammell, filling the bases. Manager Pew battled for McFarland and struck out, but Williams scored when Hampton let Pew's third strike go by. Daniels was the next batsman up and he was safe on a fielder's choice when King threw to the plate to catch Cornelius. He was called safe, however, and the score was tied. Cotton, Atlanta's diminutive lead-off man, poked a long sacrifice fly to battle in center field, scoring Lumpkin. And the ball game was over. The Gray Sox had made it two straight over their rivals from Fort Benning.

Trammell's hurling for the visitors was the outstanding performance of the entire game. He managed to shoot the ball by the Gray Sox batters to retire them in what promise to be a thrilling contest.

The black Lookouts of Chattanooga have been looking for a three-game series with the Gray Sox for the latter part of the week, starting Thursday and continuing through Saturday.

POPOLITAN

Eighth and Last Week!

AL JOLSON

—IN—

"THE JAZZ SINGER"

A Vitaphone Presentation

VITAPHONE ACTS
MOVIEPHONE NEWS
THE TALKING NEWS REEL

Continuous 11 A. M. to 11 P. M.

THE GUMPS—JUST ANOTHER DAY WASTED AWAY

The Taming of Elizabeth

By WINIFRED BOGGS

SYNOPSIS.
The young Elizabeth is the adored daughter of Tim and Elizabeth Darcy. When she is four years old she runs away from home to avoid punishment for getting into mischief. She is brought home promptly by a neighbor Miss Emily.

At twelve Elizabeth runs away again, this time from school and to the home of her Aunt Dolly in London. Dolly, who is almost as flighty as the young Elizabeth, sympathizes with her niece, much to the irritation of her stepson, Stephen Whitby.

After the death of her parents Elizabeth goes to live with her aunt. During the war they keep themselves busy and also amused by performing in amateur theatricals for the benefit of wounded soldiers. Stephen, however, is asked by his stepmother to bring Mark Lennox, a young playwright, to one of their performances.

Shortly after the end of the war Mrs. Whitby dies suddenly in Brighton and Elizabeth learns to her consternation that her aunt had frittered away the money left her by her husband and also disposed of some of Stephen's inheritance as well.

Afraid to face Stephen after this revelation, Elizabeth decides to go to Mark Lennox in London and ask him to get her a job on the stage. Stephen finds her with Mark and although his business had failed he offers to help her. She refuses his help and advice and takes a part in Mark's new play.

INSTALLMENT XV.

THE EVE OF PRODUCTION.

The rehearsals proceeded apace, and Elizabeth continued to know her lines. The others knew theirs a little better, but were by no means perfect in their parts, and she felt they had much to learn. How much better to be born a genius than have to fall back on such dull commonplace things as work or experience!

She wondered what the others thought of her; she was still outside the charmed circle. She would have been astonished to learn they did not think of her; they were too busy thinking of themselves and their own parts.

The nice boy who liked Elizabeth laughed and chatted with her, hated his own part and thought how much better he could play the male lead than "the Pod." He at least had youth and talent and his own hair! He told Elizabeth it was a sickening game and advised her to chuck it, secretly envying her as a rich amateur. It was easy enough for them!

Lydia Morley's understudy was sighing because Lydia Morley never missed a performance and her chance would never come. How she could play that part, throw herself really into it, let herself go! Lydia Morley was so quiet, so restrained: much more like real life than acting.

Then Elizabeth's own understudy envied her, not her supposed money, her youth, looks or clothes, but just her opportunity in that special part. She saw in Lydia the ideal role for herself, but felt that as usual it would never come her way.

On the other hand the two principals were satisfied with their parts, but the said Lydia, once so loving and beloved, had only an empty home, a place of shadows instead of sunshine, and Ackersley Porchester resented an amateur, however rich, playing with him in his most telling scenes. Amateurs did not know their places; she probably did not realize that her own raison d'être in the play was to "feed" him. She could queer some of his most effective lines and entrances, and it was probably the one opportunity she would not neglect. Also she struck him as conceited, and he had no use for vanity or conceit—in others.

Mr. Howard was worried about everybody and everything, and especially about Elizabeth, who did not strike him as possessing any of the essentials of an actress. Damn these rich amateurs! Doubtless she had a share in the play, and the best must be made of a bad business, but she was a wooden figure to move about. If only she had had a couple of years at a good training school, and once he implied as much.

Elizabeth, who found Mr. Howard very unreasonable and hard to understand, was more indignant. What, go to school again at her age? "I was finished years ago!" she said coldly.

Elizabeth thought theatrical people very rude. They just said what they thought of you and simply did not care! She would be all right on the night—she always was. She'd surprise them then; they'd be sorry they'd hinted she was not an accomplished actress. As if genius needed instruction!

She complained to Mark, who was not as sympathetic as she expected. In fact, he actually seemed worried about her part in the play. The only one who thought her perfect, and was always telling her so, was dear kind Mr. Keene, who came to all the rehearsals and sat by her when he could, and dropped peaches and chocolates into her lap.

"You know, Elizabeth," said the dramatist, "you've got to show jealousy; you're supposed to be desperately in love with George Dallas."

"But I can't forget that George Dallas is really the Pod," she objected, "and how can I really feel in love with knock knees, false teeth, bald head and such a shape? Besides," she added, "I can never feel in love with 'Georges' either. If I've got to be in love, they should give me something decent to be in love with, and make it possible. And the Pod's so conceited."

Mark shrugged his shoulders, and spoke a little sharply. "Unfortunately we cannot arrange matters quite like this, even for you, Elizabeth. The art of acting is representing what is required quite apart from private prejudice or feeling."

"O!" said Elizabeth rather blankly, and repeated her firm conviction: "You see it will be all right on the night. It was just the same last time—why, I nearly refused to go on at all! O it will be all right on the night."

But Mark still looked worried. He was beginning to wonder. On the day of production every one got nervous very badly and were very snappy with each other—always expecting Lydia, who having known the greater tragedies never succumbed to the minor—and extremely pessimistic. What a rotten play! What rotten parts were theirs! Everything was wrong that could be wrong, always excepting their own acting, its one chance; it was going to be a ghastly failure, they felt it in their bones. Even the black cat imported by one of the casts had lost her way, and the fat girl had lost her lucky ring.

Ackersley Porchester glowered at Elizabeth and longed to wring her neck. This hopeless but rich amateur was making a worse mess of her part each day. She was unteachable because she had not even the intelligence to realize she was bad, or had anything to learn. She seemed to think some miracle would take place on the night making the incompetent into the finished star!

"It makes me sick!" he whined to Mark, "Oh, I know she's a friend of yours and money is money, but mark my words, she's going to be a sorry you let her take a share in the show. Why can't she go back to the West End?"

"There are one or two reasons," returned Mark. He felt it was practically impossible to contradict Elizabeth's supposed riches. Was she not a young, immaculate orphan always exquisitely dressed, always carefree? Mark Lennox was the last man in the world to let any woman spoil his play if he could help it.

"You'll be sorry, my boy, sick and sorry, so I tell you," went on Ackersley. "As for me, the little idiot never feeds me at all. I believe myself the understudy would be the lesser evil. She must have learned some technique in 10 years in—curious eyes she has, not in the least ordinary. Here's Miss Darcy supposed to be hopelessly in love with me, and does she look like it? She does not. She positively looks to me as if I were a bad smell. I tell you it's a bit too thick. Had I guessed I would never have accepted the part."

Mark, feeling rather like a wounded wolf with the whole herd having a bite out of him in turn, hit back; his nerves on edge. "What a pity you did not tell me before! I find now I could have got Dickson Maryon." Dickson Maryon was younger, better looking, and with an even bigger following than Ackersley, and Ackersley was deadly jealous of him. Mark allowed open regret to creep into his: "What a draw he would have been!"

Ackersley had to content himself with a scowl. These dramatists who got backing to put up their own plays, with a curse they were, and far too big for their boots! If he'd been just the necessary evil, the usual author seeking production in the usual way, he could at least have trod on his face and put him in his place, utterly ignoring him and his silly ideas and wishes and lines. They could then have turned out a play that the fortunate author could not recognize as his own—and a good thing too! But were these authors grateful when you had produced a failure for them? They were not. They even had the neck to say that had you produced their play instead of this meaningless caricature of it, it might have been a success instead of a failure. But then authors would say anything.

Continued Tomorrow.

(Copyright, 1928, for The Constitution.)

Aunt Het

"I'm too tired for prayer meetin', but Jane was here all afternoon talkin' scandal, an' I feel like I got to go to meetin' or take a bath or somethin'."

(Copyright, 1928, for The Constitution.)

NOAH NUMSKULL

DEAR NOAH—IF THE CANTERBURY BELLS RANG, WOULD THE CAT-NIP THE BLEEDING HEART? JOE WATSON PROVIDENCE R.I.

DEAR NOAH—BECAUSE A BOOK IS SOLD IN THE BASEMENT, DOES THAT MAKE IT THE BEST SELLER? J.F. WAGNER BIRD IN A HOLE PASADENA CAL.

Just Nuts

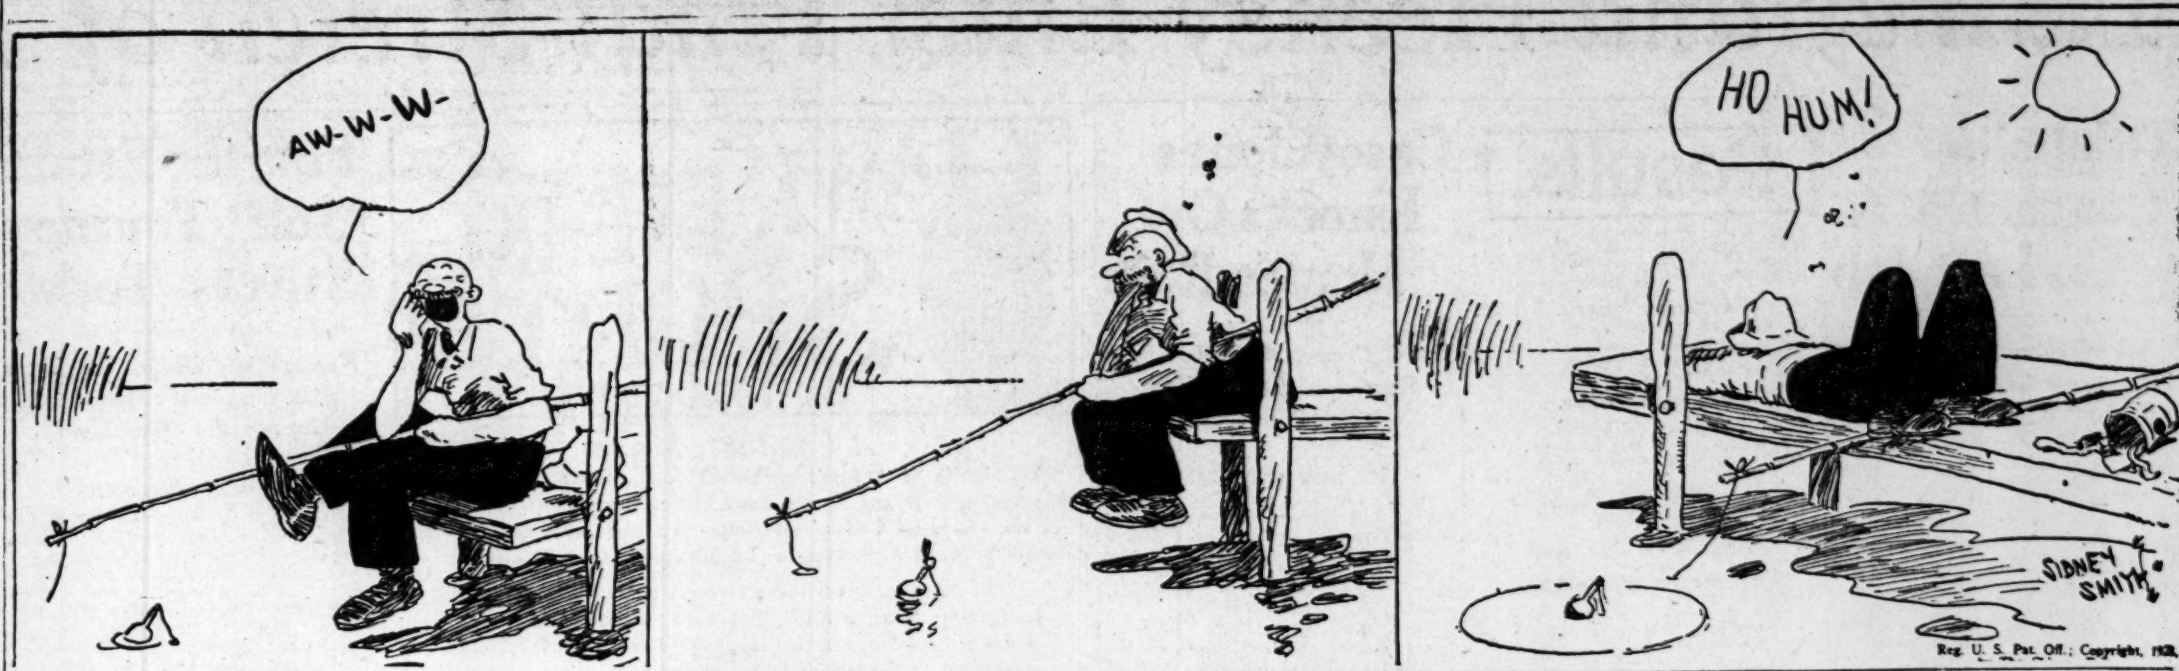

WHAT IS THIS, COMMENCEMENT?

NAW—IT'S BEEN GOING ON FOR TWO HOURS.

SALLY'S SALLIES

Regardless of what zoologists say, a "chicken" is "dear" meat.

MOON MULLINS—APPEARANCES ARE DECEIVING

SOMEBODY'S STENOGRAPHER—The Dull Season

GASOLINE ALLEY—ALL FOR CORKY'S SAKE

Winnie Winkle,

The Breadwinner

That Failed.

The Light

Fame.

Little Orphan Annie

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Fame.

Mrs. Brookes Honors Miss Hanson At Informal Tea This Afternoon

Informality will be the keynote of Mrs. W. Walker Brookes' tea this afternoon at her home, Villa Chateaux, on Peachtree road, commemorating Miss Gladys Hanson, nationally-known artist who has achieved remarkable success as an actress, having recently played the part of "Queen Martha" opposite to Roland Young's part in "The Queen's Husband," a very noteworthy Broadway vehicle. The guests will be received in the beautiful sunken Italian garden in the rear of Mrs. Brookes' home, and Mrs. Charles J. Haden, Mrs. Francis Block and Mrs. Thomas Austin will receive with the hostess. Assisting in receiving will be Misses Margaret O'Brien and Dorothy MacIntyre, of Providence, R. I., the attractive visiting belles who are guests of Mrs. Brookes, and Misses Mary Harvey, Francis Hurt and Margaret Block.

Mrs. Brookes' home served as the executive mansion during the first part of former Governor Clifford Walker's administration, and it is one of the handsomest residences of an Italian type of architecture built in this city. Thirty or more guests have been invited to meet the distinguished honor guest, Miss Hanson, who is spending the summer with her father, Peyton H. Snook, and her little daughter, Miss Gladys Irene Cook and sisters, Misses Lucinda and Harriett Snook.

Little Miss Ahlgren Celebrates Birthday.

Mrs. William B. Ahlgren entertained at a birthday party Saturday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Sara Constance, at her home on Colquitt avenue.

The young honor guest was assisted in the entertainment by her guests by her aunt, Mrs. S. B. Neal and Mrs. C. D. Shaefer.

Prizes in the contests were awarded to Harriet Hanlin, Louise Cummings, Emily Griffin and Werner Matson, Jr. The following guests were present: Betty Lyle Holt, Marjorie Herman, Louise Cummings, Annie Mae Johnson, Emily Griffin, Virginia Drake, Mary Elizabeth Shaefer, Mary Nell Holland, Harriett Hanlin, Anna Belle Watson, Georgia Frances Matson, Nettie Lee Greer, Virginia Massar, Lucie Long, Marguerite Long, Maxine McLarty, Carolyn Ahlgren, Sara Constance Ahlgren, DeWitt McLarty, Jr., Truman Haygood, Joseph Latimer, Joseph Edens, Werner Matson, Jr., Eugene Johnson, Robert Thornton and James Thornton.

Miss Reed Weds Julian M. Keel.

Cards have been received announcing the marriage of Miss Alice Friedin Reed to Julian Wilton Keel, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Keel, at 677 Barrett street, N. E., at 7:15 o'clock Saturday in the presence of the immediate families and a few close friends.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. Sproule Lyons, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, before an improvised altar of baskets of garden flowers and white burning tapers. The soft strains of "At Dawning" and Liebstrom's "Dream of Love" were heard during the ceremony.

The bride, a lovely blond, was gown in an ensemble costume of blue and tan flat crepe with hat and shoes to match. Her corsage bouquet was of orchids, valley lilies and bride roses.

After a wedding journey Mr. and Mrs. Keel will reside in Atlanta. Mrs. Keel came to Atlanta to live three years ago from Portsmouth, Va., and is a granddaughter of the late A. C. Friedlin and Mrs. A. C. Friedlin, who also makes her home in Atlanta with her daughter, Mrs. T. L. Reed. Mr. Keel holds a prominent position with the Western Union in Atlanta.

Portrait Painter Is Noted Visitor.

Mrs. Elsie Motz Lowden, of New York, a celebrated miniature portrait painter, and her daughter, Miss Alice Lowden, are spending several days in Atlanta as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Harrington at their home on Maddox drive.

Mrs. Harrington was hostess at an informal luncheon Tuesday at the Capital City club, complimenting her guests.

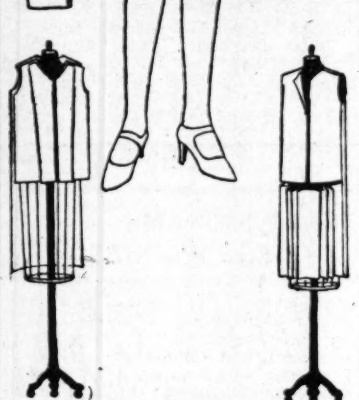

Miss Crane Weds Albert Lee Bone.

A wedding of wide interest was that of Miss Frances Selma Crane and Albert Lee Bone, which was solemnized at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents in West End, by the Rev. S. A. F. Wagner.

The house was decorated with summer flowers and palms. An improvised altar was formed of palms, ferns and potted baskets of white gladioli.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Sara

Styles by ANNETTE Paris—New York.

SLENDER—SMART.
You'll be certain of chic and a slender appearance if you choose Style No. 194 featuring the new higher waistline, knitted plaits at front of skirt and slightly bloused bodice with deep open front rolled in revers, showing a vestee of contrasting fabric. The back is perfectly straight. Sleeves are perforated to be made short for active sports and resort wear. Washable silk crepe in violet blue, Nile green pique, printed chiffon voile, shantung in buttercup yellow, gray georgette crepe, and printed silk crepe are delightful suggestions for summer appearance. Jersey, kasha and cashmere with metal threads are interesting weavings worn for cool mornings. Pattern in sizes 16, 18, 20 years, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46 inches bust. The 36-inch size takes 3-1/8 yards of 40-inch material with 1-1/2 yard of 40-inch material with 1-1/2 yard of 36-inch contrasting. Price 15 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred). Suggest including 10 cents additional for a copy of our new Summer Fashion Magazine.

O. E. S. Chapter To Hold Picnic.

Queen Esther chapter, No. 262, Order of the Eastern Star, will have a picnic July 22 at Glenwood Spring. All members are requested to meet at 9 o'clock in Sears-Robinson parking ground. Reservation will be made for those who haven't automobiles. For further information phone Mrs. Estelle Wilson, Mrs. Martha Dean and Mrs. McWhite.

Miss LaHatte Is Feted Bride-Elect.

One of the prettiest of the mid-summer parties was the afternoon bridge party given by Mrs. P. W. Vignaux, on St. Louis place, Saturday afternoon, in honor of Miss Mildred LaHatte, whose marriage to Rogers Haygood, will be an interesting event of August 28.

The living room, where the tables were placed, was decorated with summer flowers, the color motif being yellow and white.

Assisting Mrs. Vignaux in entertaining were Mrs. Grover Heyser and Mrs. Elizabeth Vignaux.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. McLin, of Jacksonville, are stopping at the Biltmore.

Mrs. J. P. Thurman, who has been the guest of Miss Ida Thurman, left Sunday morning for Wilmington, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Ryan, of Russellville, Ky., are at the Biltmore.

Miss Lamar Sparks left last week for a visit to North Carolina and will spend two weeks in Virginia before returning to Atlanta.

Misses Sarah and Ethel Kunzig, of Mount Vernon, N. Y., are spending several weeks as the guests of their grandmother, Mrs. Edward S. Gay, Sr., at her home on Carrier street.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Swift, Mrs. Fred Stoward and her little daughter, Patricia, of Chicago, are visiting Mrs. Fred Lewis and Mrs. Albert Lewis Campbell at their home on Lombardy Way.

Mrs. S. V. Sanford, of Athens, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Marvin Mc-

Clatchey, at her home on Woodcrest

avenue.

Mrs. John T. Toler, whose wife has spent two weeks at the Park Central hotel.

Miss Sarah Wall left Saturday for Augusta, where she will be the guest of Mrs. Wilson for a week or ten days.

Miss Estelle Wall left Wednesday for Savannah, where she will sail for New York and will visit Washington, Atlantic City, Toronto and other interesting points.

Mrs. George B. Edmondson, of Atlanta, is at Grace Dodge hotel in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Virginia Shropshire Heath will return to reside in Atlanta in September, having accepted the position as head of the history department of Washington seminary. She is an A. B. of Goucher college and A. M. of the University of Nebraska, and will be a valuable addition to the educational circles of the city.

Miss Caroline Holliday was hostess at a matinee party Tuesday honoring Miss Wilhelmina Kean, a bride-elect of this week.

Mrs. Elsie Motz Lowden and her daughter, Miss Alice Lowden, of New York city, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Harrington at their home on Maddox drive in Ansley Park. Mrs. Lowden is a celebrated miniature portrait painter who has achieved renowned success in this field of art.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Holmes spent the week-end at Lookout Mountain hotel, near Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mrs. Tom Schwalm, of Indianapolis, Ind., and Mrs. James E. Hayes, of New York city, are visiting Mrs. E. E. Alexander at her home in Decatur.

Harry Tipton is at Lookout Mountain hotel, where he is recuperating from a recent illness.

Miss Elizabeth Werner is attending the conferences of the Southern

Presbyterian church, which is held every summer at Camp Smyrna, located near Conyers.

Charles H. Graham, of New York city, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Graham, and his grandmother, Mrs. M. L. Isham, at their home on Pace's Ferry road. He is a former Atlantaian, having graduated from Georgia School of Technology.

Mrs. Paul E. Rapier and her daughters, Regina and Isabel, have returned from a visit to Mrs. John L. Rapier at Mobile. Pascal Rapier remained for a longer visit with his grandmother.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Dunbar returned today from a motor trip to Charleston, S. C., and Savannah.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett N. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Ward Wright will motor to Lookout Mountain hotel next Saturday to spend the week-end.

Mrs. James H. Wood is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Moore, at their home in Asheville, N. C.

Mrs. James T. Williams and her daughter, Miss Lillian Le Conte, leave Wednesday for New York from where they will sail Saturday on the S. S. Cleveland for a tour of Europe, returning in September on the "Beren-garia."

Miss Lillian Le Conte returned Tuesday morning from Nashville, Tenn., where she has been a feted visitor for several weeks.

Miss Louise Ogletree has returned to her home on Blue Ridge avenue after a stay of two weeks at Camp Civitan.

Mrs. Edward Austin is in Birmingham, Ala., where she is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Henry Badham, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Broyles have returned from Chattanooga, Tenn., where they spent the week-end at Lookout Mountain hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Curtis, of Warm Springs, are at the Georgian Terrace.

Mrs. Edward K. Van Winkle is convalescing from a recent illness at her home at the Georgian Terrace.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Sewell, of Norfolk, Va., are spending the week at the Georgian Terrace.

Mrs. Hugh McKee leaves today for a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Winship Nunnally, at her summer home at Lakemont.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hill, Miss Mabel Hill and Miss Ruth Roedel, of Augusta, have returned from a motor trip through the mountains of Georgia and North Carolina.

Mrs. Willis B. Dowell, of Nashville, Tenn., is the guest of Mrs. W. Henry George at her home on Sycamore street.

Misses Dorothy McIntyre and Margaret O'Brien, of Providence, R. I., are the guests of Mrs. William Walker Brookes on Peachtree road.

Misses Daisy and Fannie Mae Payne, who have been visiting in Buffalo, Ala., have returned home.

W. Nettles Ferguson will go to Rockmont hotel for the latter part of this week to spend several days with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Croom left Sunday for several days' visit to Savannah and Tybee.

Mrs. Joseph Van Pelt and children are spending several weeks at Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Flemister, of Milledgeville, are at the Georgian Terrace.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hines motored to Asheville, N. C., to spend a week at Grove Park inn.

Miss Frances Hanck, of Harrisonburg, Va.; L. B. McIntyre, of Charlotte, N. C.; Robert L. Potter, of Chattanooga, Tenn.; L. J. Nelson, of Rawlins, Wyo.; James Sheahan, of Rawlins, Wyo.; Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Livingston, of New York city; A. J. Condon, of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. J. A.

DAILY CALENDAR OF WOMEN'S MEETINGS

The board of management of the Joseph Habersham chapter, D. A. R., meets at 10 o'clock at Habersham hall.

The Women's Union Bible club meets at 10 o'clock at the Wesley Memorial church.

The executive committee of the Atlanta Wesleyan Alumnae club meets Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock with Mrs. R. G. Stephens, 615 Linwood avenue.

The Ladies' Memorial association will hold a special meeting at 4 o'clock at the rooms of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, at which time medals will be presented to 160 Confederate veterans.

The finance committee of the Atlanta League of Women Voters meets at 10:30 o'clock at league headquarters.

A baby health center will be held at Joel C. Harris school.

A baby health center will be held at Fulton Bag and Cotton Mill.

Circle No. 11 of the Kirkwood Methodist Episcopal church meets with Mrs. Frank Grant, 21 Gordon avenue, at 11:30 o'clock.

DAILY CALENDAR OF SOCIAL EVENTS

Mrs. W. Walker Brookes gives an informal tea at 5 o'clock at her home on Peachtree road, honoring Miss Gladys Hanson, of New York.

Mrs. L. P. Rosser, Jr., will entertain at luncheon in honor of Miss Margaret Cochran, a bride-elect.

Herbert Jeffries will entertain at East Lake Country club, honoring Miss Natalie DeGolian and her guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. LeRoux will entertain at a party at the dinner-dance at the Atlanta Biltmore in honor of their sister, Miss Jean LeRoux, of Niagara Falls.

Dinner-dance at the Atlanta Biltmore hotel.

Dinner-dance on the roof garden of Atlanta Athletic club.

St. Anthony's Guild will sponsor a lawn party on the school grounds at 963 Gordon street, at 3 o'clock and at 7 o'clock.

The library committee of the East Point Woman's club will sponsor a bridge at 2:30 o'clock, at the Lakeview swimming pool, on East Cleveland avenue, for the benefit of the club building fund.

Mrs. Arthur Tufts gives a swimming party at Druid Hills Golf club, followed by luncheon at her home, "Woodland," on Clifton road, honoring Miss Jean LeRoux, of Niagara Falls, N. Y.

Mrs. R. Taylor Connolly entertains at a bridge-luncheon today at her home on South Gordon street, in West End, complimenting the members of her house party, Mesdames J. H. Savage, J. M. Manry, Edward Hardaway Smith, Arthur Merrill and Murray Howard.

Mrs. H. A. Ripley gives a luncheon at her quarters at Fort McPherson.

Mrs. John A. Stone entertains at a bridge party this evening at her home on Page avenue in compliment to Mrs. Tom Schwalm, of Indianapolis, Ind., and Mrs. James E. Hayes, of New York city, who are visiting Mrs. E. E. Alexander.

Miss Runa Erwin entertains at bridge at her home on Park Lane, honoring Miss Elizabeth Putnam, of Orlando, Fla.

SOCIAL ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Noble and Ben F. Noble, Jr., left Atlanta Tuesday for New York and will meet Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hirsch, whose ship docks there next Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Hirsch spent six weeks traveling in Europe having sailed from New York the first week in June.

Mrs. A. Murray Nilsson, of West Point, N. Y., is the guest of her cousin, Miss Josephine Richardson, at Broadlands.

Mrs. Frank M. Butt, of Dallas, arrived at the Biltmore hotel Tuesday for a visit of several days. Mrs. Butt is a former resident of Atlanta.

Mrs. W. L. Southwell leaves today to visit her daughter, Mrs. Robert Clift, in Evanston, Ill. Early in August they will motor to Watch Hill, R. I.

Miss Juliette Graves, of Rome, is at the Biltmore.

Miss Helen Garrett, of Washington, who has been the guest of Miss Frances Keen, returned home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. McLin, of Jacksonville, are stopping at the Biltmore.

Mrs. J. P. Thurman, who has been the guest of Miss Ida Thurman, left Sunday morning for Wilmington, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Ryan, of Russellville, Ky., are at the Biltmore.

Miss Lamar Sparks left last week for a visit to North Carolina and will spend two weeks in Virginia before returning to Atlanta.

Misses Sarah and Ethel Kunzig, of Mount Vernon, N. Y., are spending several weeks as the guests of their grandmother, Mrs. Edward S. Gay, Sr., at her home on Carrier street.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Swift, Mrs. Fred Stoward and her little daughter, Patricia, of Chicago, are visiting Mrs. Fred Lewis and Mrs. Albert Lewis Campbell at their home on Lombardy Way.

Mrs. S. V. Sanford, of Athens, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Marvin Mc-

Clatchey, at her home on Woodcrest

avenue.

Mrs. John T. Toler, whose wife has spent two weeks at the Park Central hotel.

Miss Sarah Wall left Saturday for Augusta, where she will be the guest of Mrs. Wilson for a week or ten days.

Miss Estelle Wall left Wednesday for Savannah, where she will sail for New York and will visit Washington, Atlantic City, Toronto and other interesting points.

Mrs. George B. Edmondson, of Atlanta, is at Grace Dodge hotel in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Virginia Shropshire Heath will return to reside in Atlanta in September, having accepted the position as head of the history department of Washington seminary. She is an A. B. of Goucher college and A. M. of the University of Nebraska, and will be a valuable addition to the educational circles of the city.

Miss Caroline Holliday was hostess at a matinee party Tuesday honoring Miss Wilhelmina Kean, a bride-elect of this week.

Mrs. Elsie Motz Lowden and her daughter, Miss Alice Lowden, of New York city, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Harrington at their home on Maddox drive in Ansley Park. Mrs. Lowden is a celebrated miniature portrait painter who has achieved renowned success in this field of art.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Holmes spent the week-end at Lookout Mountain hotel, near Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mrs. Tom Schwalm, of Indianapolis, Ind., and Mrs. James E. Hayes, of New York city, are visiting Mrs. E. E. Alexander at her home in Decatur.

Harry Tipton is at Lookout Mountain hotel, where he is recuperating from a recent illness.

Miss Elizabeth Werner is attending the conferences of the Southern

Presbyterian church, which is held every summer at Camp Smyrna, located near Conyers.

Charles H. Graham, of New York city, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Graham, and his grandmother, Mrs. M. L. Isham, at their home on Pace's Ferry road. He is a former Atlantaian, having graduated from Georgia School of Technology.

Mrs. Paul E. Rapier and her daughters, Regina and Isabel, have returned from a visit to Mrs. John L. Rapier at Mobile. Pascal Rapier remained for a longer visit with his grandmother.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Dunbar returned today from a motor trip to Charleston, S. C., and Savannah.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett N. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Ward Wright will motor to Lookout Mountain hotel next Saturday to spend the week-end.

Mrs. James H. Wood is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Moore, at their home in Asheville, N. C.

Mrs. James T. Williams and her daughter, Miss Lillian Le Conte, leave Wednesday for New York from where they will sail Saturday on the S. S. Cleveland for a tour of Europe, returning in September on the "Beren-garia."

Miss Lillian Le Conte returned Tuesday morning from Nashville, Tenn., where she has been a feted visitor for several weeks.

Miss Louise Ogletree has returned to her home on Blue Ridge avenue after a stay of two weeks at Camp Civitan.

Mrs. Edward Austin is in Birmingham, Ala., where she is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Henry Badham, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Broyles have returned from Chattanooga, Tenn., where they spent the week-end at Lookout Mountain hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Curtis, of Warm Springs, are at the Georgian Terrace.

Mrs. Edward K. Van Winkle is convalescing from a recent illness at her home at the Georgian Terrace.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Sewell, of Norfolk, Va., are spending the week at the Georgian Terrace.

Mrs. Hugh McKee leaves today for a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Winship Nunnally, at her summer home at Lakemont.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hill, Miss Mabel Hill and Miss Ruth Roedel, of Augusta, have returned from a motor trip through the mountains of Georgia and North Carolina.

Mrs. Willis B. Dowell, of Nashville, Tenn., is the guest of Mrs. W. Henry George at her home on Sycamore street.

Misses Dorothy McIntyre and Margaret O'Brien, of Providence, R. I., are the guests of Mrs. William Walker Brookes on Peachtree road.

Misses Daisy and Fannie Mae Payne, who have been visiting in Buffalo, Ala., have returned home.

W. Nettles Ferguson will go to Rockmont hotel for the latter part of this week to spend several days with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Croom left Sunday for several days' visit to Savannah and Tybee.

Mrs. Joseph Van Pelt and children are spending several weeks at Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Flemister, of Milledgeville, are at the Georgian Terrace.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hines motored to Asheville, N. C., to spend a week at Grove Park inn.

Miss Frances Hanck, of Harrisonburg, Va.; L. B. McIntyre, of Charlotte, N. C.; Robert L. Potter, of Chattanooga, Tenn.; L. J. Nelson, of Rawlins, Wyo.; James Sheahan, of Rawlins, Wyo.; Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Livingston, of New York city; A. J. Condon, of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. J. A.

Miss Williams To Be Entertained At Many Pre-Nuptial Parties

Miss Jean Williams, a charming bride-elect of August, whose marriage to Albert Wright takes place Saturday evening, August 11, at 8 o'clock at the residence of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williams, on Lombardy way, will be entertained at a series of parties preceding her wedding. Mrs. H. Clay Moore's bridge-ten Tuesday afternoon, July 24, will be given at her home on Shadow-lawn avenue, and Miss Runa Erwin entertains at a bridge-ten Wednesday afternoon, July 25, at her home on Park lane.

Carrier, New York city; F. J. Beebe, of Toledo, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Newel B. Whitcomb, of New York city, are spending this week at the Georgian Terrace.

Mrs. Henry Salmon and Mrs. Ellen Anderson left Monday for Atlantic City. They will be at Marlborough-Blenheim hotel for two weeks and will visit New York before returning to Atlanta.

Miss Phoebe Rhett has returned from Coral Gables, Fla., where she visited relatives.

Miss Vira Woodman, of New Haven, Conn., arrives Thursday to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas L. Woodward.

Master Ralph M. Hirsch left Saturday evening for Jacksonville, Fla., to visit his grandfather. He will be away until September.

Mrs. Carter Helm Jones is visiting relatives in Allendale, N. J.

Mrs. T. C. Rutland, of Albany, will arrive in the city August 1 en route to Blue Ridge, Ga., for a 10-days visit.

W. L. Hambrick and Troy Hardy are spending some time in Alexander City, Ala.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Smith, Grover Smith, Jr., Mrs. Paul Egli and children, Martha, Elizabeth and Paul Egli, Jr., motored to St. Simons island Sunday to spend several days at the Glasscock hotel. Miss Gladys McLean, sister of Mrs. Egli, was also a member of the party.

Mrs. C. G. Vanslyke and children, Wilhelmina and Guy Edward, of Longview, Wash., are the guests of Mrs. Vanslyke's sister, Mrs. J. E. Dickerson, at 730 Lexington avenue.

Mrs. G. D. Garner and children, Alice Frances and Dean, Jr., of Jacksonville, Fla., are visiting Mrs. G. W. Garner at 532 Highland avenue.

Miss Sarah Barnes is visiting relatives in Macon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Rayfield, Jr., and little daughter, Betty Rayfield, have returned from a visit to relatives in Ashland, Ky.

Mrs. Edgar Chambers has returned from Macon, where she visited her sister, Mrs. C. D. Peavy, Jr.

Mrs. A. L. Lippitt and little daughter

Miss William's cousin, Mrs. Forrest Adair, Jr., will be hostess at an informal bridge-ten Monday afternoon, July 30, at her home on Peachtree street, and Mrs. George Kelly, aunt of the bride-elect, and her cousin, Miss Austin Kelly, will be hostesses at a rehearsal party Friday evening, August 10, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Williams on Lombardy way. Among others planning to give parties for Miss Williams are Mrs. Garrard Williams, Mrs. Harold Dobbs, Jr., and Miss Martha Ridley.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bosman are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Harry Vaiden, at their home in Augusta.

...

...

...

P.-T. A. Institute Opens in Athens This Afternoon

The P.-T. A. institute opens in Athens this afternoon. Prominent P.-T. A. speakers and educators will discuss school and home problems during the three days' sessions. Among those from Atlanta who will attend and take part in the program are: Mrs. H. G. Parks, state treasurer and president Atlanta council; Mrs. John W. Lloyd, fifth district president; Mrs. Charles J. Foster, past president Atlanta council; Mrs. Ira E. Farmer, state chairman publicity; Mrs. Raymond Williams, of College Park; Mrs. P. H. Jeter, of Decatur, first vice president and past president of the state; and Willis A. Sutton, superintendent of schools.

Mrs. Harry Ripley To Give Luncheon At Ft. McPherson

Fort McPherson, Ga., July 17.—Of particular interest to members of the army group is the luncheon to be given by Mrs. Harry H. Ripley at her quarters in the garrison Wednesday. The guest list includes Mrs. Henry A. Weber and her sister, Mrs. J. B. Sharon, of New York; Mrs. Richmond P. Davis, Mrs. Abraham G. Lott, Mrs. Frank S. Cocheu, Mrs. Will L. Pyles, Mrs. William R. Dashiell, Mrs. Samuel B. McIntyre, Mrs. Katharine Smith, Mrs. John Hutchinson Hester and Mrs. Hans R. W. Herwig.

Colonel and Mrs. William R. Dashiell entertained formally at dinner Wednesday evening at their home, "Maywood," in honor of Mrs. J. B. Sharon, of New York. White and pink poppies and gladioli from the gardens at "Maywood" were effectively arranged throughout the living rooms and roses in pale pink and white and tall white taper candles were placed in the center of the table.

Covers were placed for several members of the army group.

Mrs. J. B. Sharon, of New York, is the guest of her sister and brother, Colonel and Mrs. Henry A. Weber, at their quarters in the garrison. Mrs. Sharon plans to spend four weeks in the south before returning to her home in New York.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Marvin D. Peck and their little daughter, Frances Gertrude, left Tuesday by motor to visit relatives in Alabama before going to New York to sail in September for colorful Hawaii, where Lieutenant Peck will spend his tour of foreign service.

Miss Dorothy Tabetts returns to the post Wednesday after an enjoyable week spent at Camp McClellan in the guest of Lieutenant and Mrs. Robert G. Turner.

Tabernacle Pep Class To Meet

The pep class of the Baptist Tabernacle Sunday school meets Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the classroom of the church building, following which at 7:30 o'clock the officers of the Pep B. Y. P. U. will have their monthly business meeting. Officers of both organizations are urged to be present.

Mrs. Ashby Named To High Honor

Mrs. Rose Mae Ashby, worthy grand marshal of the General Grand chapter, O. E. S., has been appointed an advisory councilor of Eastern Star magazine, published in Boston. Mrs. Ashby is an Eastern Star writer and speaker of wide recognition, having been editor of the Georgia department in the National Mizpah O. E. S. magazine, published in Boston. Also a writer for the Keystone O. E. S. magazine, published in Pittsburgh, Penn.

BURGESS CHILDREN'S STORIES

FARMER BROWN'S BOY DISCOVERS WHITEY

By Thornton W. Burgess.

Try the best that you can do to use the senses given you.

—Bowler the Hound.

It was some time since Farmer Brown's boy had visited the dear Old Briar-patch. Then one day he took it into his head to go over there. With him went Bowser the Hound. Farmer Brown's boy likes to have Bowser go tramping with him.

"I wonder," said Farmer Brown's boy to Bowser, "if Peter Rabbit and his family had a family this year. I presume they did. Perhaps they found some little Rabbits in the dear Old Briar-patch."

Bowser wagged his tail as if he understood, which of course he didn't. Then he barked two or three times and gambled ahead, just as if he were a puppy, instead of a sedate old dog. So they two came to the dear Old Briar-patch.

Now there was a very great difference in the ways in which Farmer Brown's boy and Bowser the Hound undertook to find out who was in the dear Old Briar-patch. Farmer Brown's boy would stand still for a minute or more at a time, listening and peering in through the bushes. He was looking for Peter Rabbit, or Mrs. Peter, and for a glimpse of her children, if they had any. Whenever there was an opening in the briars or the bushes he would stop and peer in. Bowser, on the other hand, didn't bother to listen or look. He went along the edge of the dear Old Briar-patch with his nose to the ground, sniffing and sniffing. Whenever he found a little opening where he could poke his head in, he would do this and sniff loudly.

At the entrance to one of Peter Rabbit's little paths he would spend considerable time sniffing. By the time they had gone completely around the dear Old Briar-patch, Farmer Brown's boy had discovered Peter and thought he had caught a glimpse of Mrs. Peter, but he wasn't sure. Bowser, on the other hand, had discovered for a certainty that Peter Rabbit was at home, that there was a third and younger Rabbit living there. His nose had been better than Farmer Brown's boy's eyes and ears. That nose of Bowser's had also discovered that Reddy Fox had been around the Old Briar-patch.

New York Visitor To Be Honored

One of the popular social events of Wednesday will be the dinner-dance at the Baltimore hotel. Among those entertaining guests will be Mrs. C. M. Le Roux, who will have 10 guests to meet her sister, Miss Jean Le Roux, of Niagara Falls, New York.

Mrs. Cobb Honors Visiting Bell

Mrs. H. M. Cobb was hostess at luncheon Tuesday at 1 o'clock at the Atlanta-Baltimore in compliment to Miss Frances Claggett, of Washington, D. C., the guest of Miss Betty Broder, of New York.

Mrs. Thornton Honors Church Workers

Mrs. Mollie Harrison Thornton was hostess at an informal luncheon Tuesday at her home on East Merritts, for a group of her coworkers in the beginning department of the Central Presbyterian church.

Lovely midsummer blossoms from the hostess' flower garden decorated the luncheon table. Covers were placed

Children Love Dextrons

Now you can give your children candy that is good for them. And now you will find the children glad, eager, to have this safe candy—eating it slowly because it is in lollipop form, and lasts a long time.

Baby specialists are now prescribing Dextrons even to sick babies in place of Dextrose in powdered form, because it is more tasteful and convenient.

Talk it over with your doctor. He will tell you the scientific reasons why you should insist on Dextrons. He will explain that Dextrose is a known, scientific food that may mean much to the future health and sturdy bodies of your children. You will find Dextrons in 25c packages wherever candy is sold. DEXTRON COMPANY, ATLANTA.

Children Love Dextrons

Now you can give your children candy that is good for them. And now you will find the children glad, eager, to have this safe candy—eating it slowly because it is in lollipop form, and lasts a long time.

Baby specialists are now prescribing Dextrons even to sick babies in place of Dextrose in powdered form, because it is more tasteful and convenient.

Talk it over with your doctor. He will tell you the scientific reasons why you should insist on Dextrons. He will explain that Dextrose is a known, scientific food that may mean much to the future health and sturdy bodies of your children. You will find Dextrons in 25c packages wherever candy is sold. DEXTRON COMPANY, ATLANTA.

Children Love Dextrons

Now you can give your children candy that is good for them. And now you will find the children glad, eager, to have this safe candy—eating it slowly because it is in lollipop form, and lasts a long time.

Baby specialists are now prescribing Dextrons even to sick babies in place of Dextrose in powdered form, because it is more tasteful and convenient.

Talk it over with your doctor. He will tell you the scientific reasons why you should insist on Dextrons. He will explain that Dextrose is a known, scientific food that may mean much to the future health and sturdy bodies of your children. You will find Dextrons in 25c packages wherever candy is sold. DEXTRON COMPANY, ATLANTA.

Children Love Dextrons

Now you can give your children candy that is good for them. And now you will find the children glad, eager, to have this safe candy—eating it slowly because it is in lollipop form, and lasts a long time.

Baby specialists are now prescribing Dextrons even to sick babies in place of Dextrose in powdered form, because it is more tasteful and convenient.

Talk it over with your doctor. He will tell you the scientific reasons why you should insist on Dextrons. He will explain that Dextrose is a known, scientific food that may mean much to the future health and sturdy bodies of your children. You will find Dextrons in 25c packages wherever candy is sold. DEXTRON COMPANY, ATLANTA.

Children Love Dextrons

Now you can give your children candy that is good for them. And now you will find the children glad, eager, to have this safe candy—eating it slowly because it is in lollipop form, and lasts a long time.

Baby specialists are now prescribing Dextrons even to sick babies in place of Dextrose in powdered form, because it is more tasteful and convenient.

Talk it over with your doctor. He will tell you the scientific reasons why you should insist on Dextrons. He will explain that Dextrose is a known, scientific food that may mean much to the future health and sturdy bodies of your children. You will find Dextrons in 25c packages wherever candy is sold. DEXTRON COMPANY, ATLANTA.

Children Love Dextrons

Now you can give your children candy that is good for them. And now you will find the children glad, eager, to have this safe candy—eating it slowly because it is in lollipop form, and lasts a long time.

Baby specialists are now prescribing Dextrons even to sick babies in place of Dextrose in powdered form, because it is more tasteful and convenient.

Talk it over with your doctor. He will tell you the scientific reasons why you should insist on Dextrons. He will explain that Dextrose is a known, scientific food that may mean much to the future health and sturdy bodies of your children. You will find Dextrons in 25c packages wherever candy is sold. DEXTRON COMPANY, ATLANTA.

Children Love Dextrons

Now you can give your children candy that is good for them. And now you will find the children glad, eager, to have this safe candy—eating it slowly because it is in lollipop form, and lasts a long time.

Baby specialists are now prescribing Dextrons even to sick babies in place of Dextrose in powdered form, because it is more tasteful and convenient.

Talk it over with your doctor. He will tell you the scientific reasons why you should insist on Dextrons. He will explain that Dextrose is a known, scientific food that may mean much to the future health and sturdy bodies of your children. You will find Dextrons in 25c packages wherever candy is sold. DEXTRON COMPANY, ATLANTA.

Mrs. Connolly Plans Bridge - Luncheon For House Party

Mrs. R. Taylor Connolly is entertaining at a house party at her home on South Gordon street, and her bridge-luncheon today honors the president and past presidents of the club of West End. Mrs. J. H. Savage, Mrs. J. M. Marney, Mrs. Edward Hardaway Smith, Mrs. Arthur Merrill and Mrs. Murray Howard are the guests of Mrs. Connolly. Friends of the honorees, who have been invited, are Mrs. C. C. Chamberlain, Mrs. L. Patton, Mrs. L. A. Hollingsworth, Mrs. S. L. Stiles, Mrs. Myers Loveless, Mrs. Otis Witherspoon, Mrs. P. D. Johnson, Mrs. A. G. Smith, Mrs. Carl Raper, Mrs. G. Floyd Cox, Mrs. Asa Dwight, Mrs. E. O. Thornton. The house party members will remain Mrs. Connolly's guests for several days.

Society Dines On Roof Garden Of Capital City Club

Society assembled on the attractive, flower-decked roof garden of the Capital City Club yesterday evening for dinner and dancing, the occasion proving one of the most delightful on the day's social calendar.

A throng of the younger members of society joined the dancers after dinner, adding interest and gaiety to the evening's decline.

Miss Olive Garner, of Montgomery, Ala., the festive guest of Mrs. Newton Nowell, of Miami, Fla., at the home of the dear Old Briar-patch, was the center of attraction. She was accompanied by her husband, Mr. Newton Nowell, of Miami, Fla., and Mr. Quentin.

A congenial party dining together included Mrs. R. H. White, of Atlanta, and Mrs. Kerfoot Hancock, of Mrs. Frank Sprattling and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Iverson.

Miss Jean LeRoux Is Feted Visiting

Miss Jean LeRoux, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., who is the feted guest of her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. LeRoux on Lullwater road, was central figure at two lovely parties Tuesday.

Mrs. LeRoux complimented her sister at a swimming party and luncheon in the morning at the Atlanta Athletic club.

R. C. Irwin Heads Pep B. Y. P. U.

Of interest to Baptist Young People's unions, as well as other Young People's organizations throughout the city is the recent election of officers in the Atlanta B. Y. P. U. of the Baptist Tabernacle.

The following young men and women have been elected to offices in the Atlanta B. Y. P. U. of the Baptist Tabernacle: President, R. C. Irwin; vice president, W. Nettles Ferguson; secretary, Miss Anna Isakson; corresponding secretary, Fred Miller; treasurer, George Burton; Bible readers' leader, Miss Daisy Payne; chorister, Jack Maddox; and E. H. Bolton; pianist, Mrs. E. H. Bolton.

Miss Annie Laurie Pope, of Winchester, Tenn., the attractive daughter of Mrs. Calvin Prescott, at her home in Druid Hills, was honor guest at the swimming party at which Miss Alma Pope Roberts was hostess Tuesday at the East Lake Country club. Sharing honors with Miss Pope was Miss Emily Magid, of Tallahassee, Fla., who is Miss Roberts' guest for a few days.

Miss Julia McLeod was hostess at a bridge party Monday evening at 8 o'clock at her home on Grant drive in compliment to Miss Annie Laurie Pope. Mrs. J. J. McLeod assisted in entertaining.

Mrs. Hugh Gentry Is Honor Guest

An interesting event of the past week was the bridge-tee at which Mrs. Lollis Hardy entertained in honor of Mrs. Hugh Gentry, formerly Miss Elizabeth Parker, of Greenville, S. C. Mrs. Hardy was assisted in entertaining by her sisters, Miss Susie Suber and Mrs. T. H. Thompson.

U. S. BOARD HALTS 'BUG MACHINES'

BY MARTIN CODEL.
(Copyright, 1928, by American News-Press Alliance.)

Washington, D. C., July 17.—"Bug machines," which are radio receivers of the type used in the Venetian and Cashmere valleys of the state of Washington, Federal officials have today ordered their destruction, for exterminating insect pests on fruit trees, are in the class of radio stations and therefore require government license for operation.

The use of low frequency radio for this purpose rivals in uniqueness any other device being done with the high frequencies, better known as the short waves. Harold A. Lafount, member of the federal radio commission for the western zone, has just wired a temporary authority to Herbert E. Smith, of Seattle to operate two of the strange machines from 4 to 10 m. dally, employing a frequency of 100 kilocycles (3,000 meters).

Throughout nearly a whole fruit season, two of the "bug machines" have been operated in orchards of the valleys by Norman Tichenal, who with Mr. Smith is promoting the device. Investigation reveals that Tichenal was unaware that the radio pest exterminators were creating so much disturbance. He was also surprised to learn that the low frequency machines virtually amounted to "boot-legging" time on the air because the machines became virtually power broadcasting stations.

Describing the "bug machines," Supervisor Redfern reported that each consisted of a fire-kilowatt step-up transformer, a condenser, a non-synchronous rotary spark gap and a large helix, one end of the helix being grounded and the other being connected to the system of overhead wires. The antennae are stretched two to three feet over the tops of the trees in the orchard and radiate 30 and 40 amps with death-dealing effects upon the parasite.

NO-ING The Air Waves.

BY THE DIAL TWISTER.

"The Idol's Eye," a comic opera by Victor Herbert, written from the book by Harry B. Smith, and Gilbert & Sullivan's comic opera, "The Mikado," will be presented to the radio audience tonight on two different programs. In the first we will hear "The Idol's Eye" and in the second Rosalie Wolf will sing "Yum Yum" and George O'Brien will take the part of "Nanki-Poo."

Victor Herbert's opera will follow over WSB and other NBC network stations at 7 o'clock. "The Mikado" will follow over the same stations at 8:30 o'clock. The Philco company will present "The Idol's Eye," while the National Light Opera company will sing "The Mikado."

"The Idol's Eye" takes its listeners to the British regimental officers' quarters in Bombay, India, and to the Temple of the Ruby. "The Eye of Love" has been stolen from the head of a Brahmin idol. The remaining eye, "The Eye of Hate," remains. A Scotchman is the thief. An American becomes involved and is forced to impersonate the idol. It is a subplot introduces another American who falls in love with the daughter of a Cuban Don. And all turns out happily for all as the opera ends.

The plot of "The Mikado" is laid in Japan. The son of the mikado declines from the palace in disguise to prevent his marriage to an ugly and aged woman. He falls in love with Yum Yum, whom the chief executioner of Toku also loves. There have not been enough executions, however, to please the mikado. So the mikado's son is to be the next victim. So it is decided to let the happy pair run away together and to fake an execution for the mikado. How it ends will be the subject of another episode. "The Idol's Eye" is a happy ending.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Programs in standard time. Add one hour for central daylight time. All time is p. m. unless otherwise indicated. Wavelengths on left of call letters, kilocycles on right.

520-KYV Chicago—570-4.37. Uncle Bob: 5:45, organ; 6:00, saxophone; 6:30, 8:15, 8:30, 8:45, 9:00, 9:15, 9:30, 9:45, 10:00, 10:15, 10:30, 10:45, 11:00, 11:15, 11:30, 11:45, 12:00, 12:15, 12:30, 12:45, 1:00, 1:15, 1:30, 1:45, 2:00, 2:15, 2:30, 2:45, 3:00, 3:15, 3:30, 3:45, 4:00, 4:15, 4:30, 4:45, 5:00, 5:15, 5:30, 5:45, 6:00, 6:15, 6:30, 6:45, 7:00, 7:15, 7:30, 7:45, 8:00, 8:15, 8:30, 8:45, 9:00, 9:15, 9:30, 9:45, 10:00, 10:15, 10:30, 10:45, 11:00, 11:15, 11:30, 11:45, 12:00, 12:15, 12:30, 12:45, 1:00, 1:15, 1:30, 1:45, 2:00, 2:15, 2:30, 2:45, 3:00, 3:15, 3:30, 3:45, 4:00, 4:15, 4:30, 4:45, 5:00, 5:15, 5:30, 5:45, 6:00, 6:15, 6:30, 6:45, 7:00, 7:15, 7:30, 7:45, 8:00, 8:15, 8:30, 8:45, 9:00, 9:15, 9:30, 9:45, 10:00, 10:15, 10:30, 10:45, 11:00, 11:15, 11:30, 11:45, 12:00, 12:15, 12:30, 12:45, 1:00, 1:15, 1:30, 1:45, 2:00, 2:15, 2:30, 2:45, 3:00, 3:15, 3:30, 3:45, 4:00, 4:15, 4:30, 4:45, 5:00, 5:15, 5:30, 5:45, 6:00, 6:15, 6:30, 6:45, 7:00, 7:15, 7:30, 7:45, 8:00, 8:15, 8:30, 8:45, 9:00, 9:15, 9:30, 9:45, 10:00, 10:15, 10:30, 10:45, 11:00, 11:15, 11:30, 11:45, 12:00, 12:15, 12:30, 12:45, 1:00, 1:15, 1:30, 1:45, 2:00, 2:15, 2:30, 2:45, 3:00, 3:15, 3:30, 3:45, 4:00, 4:15, 4:30, 4:45, 5:00, 5:15, 5:30, 5:45, 6:00, 6:15, 6:30, 6:45, 7:00, 7:15, 7:30, 7:45, 8:00, 8:15, 8:30, 8:45, 9:00, 9:15, 9:30, 9:45, 10:00, 10:15, 10:30, 10:45, 11:00, 11:15, 11:30, 11:45, 12:00, 12:15, 12:30, 12:45, 1:00, 1:15, 1:30, 1:45, 2:00, 2:15, 2:30, 2:45, 3:00, 3:15, 3:30, 3:45, 4:00, 4:15, 4:30, 4:45, 5:00, 5:15, 5:30, 5:45, 6:00, 6:15, 6:30, 6:45, 7:00, 7:15, 7:30, 7:45, 8:00, 8:15, 8:30, 8:45, 9:00, 9:15, 9:30, 9:45, 10:00, 10:15, 10:30, 10:45, 11:00, 11:15, 11:30, 11:45, 12:00, 12:15, 12:30, 12:45, 1:00, 1:15, 1:30, 1:45, 2:00, 2:15, 2:30, 2:45, 3:00, 3:15, 3:30, 3:45, 4:00, 4:15, 4:30, 4:45, 5:00, 5:15, 5:30, 5:45, 6:00, 6:15, 6:30, 6:45, 7:00, 7:15, 7:30, 7:45, 8:00, 8:15, 8:30, 8:45, 9:00, 9:15, 9:30, 9:45, 10:00, 10:15, 10:30, 10:45, 11:00, 11:15, 11:30, 11:45, 12:00, 12:15, 12:30, 12:45, 1:00, 1:15, 1:30, 1:45, 2:00, 2:15, 2:30, 2:45, 3:00, 3:15, 3:30, 3:45, 4:00, 4:15, 4:30, 4:45, 5:00, 5:15, 5:30, 5:45, 6:00, 6:15, 6:30, 6:45, 7:00, 7:15, 7:30, 7:45, 8:00, 8:15, 8:30, 8:45, 9:00, 9:15, 9:30, 9:45, 10:00, 10:15, 10:30, 10:45, 11:00, 11:15, 11:30, 11:45, 12:00, 12:15, 12:30, 12:45, 1:00, 1:15, 1:30, 1:45, 2:00, 2:15, 2:30, 2:45, 3:00, 3:15, 3:30, 3:45, 4:00, 4:15, 4:30, 4:45, 5:00, 5:15, 5:30, 5:45, 6:00, 6:15, 6:30, 6:45, 7:00, 7:15, 7:30, 7:45, 8:00, 8:15, 8:30, 8:45, 9:00, 9:15, 9:30, 9:45, 10:00, 10:15, 10:30, 10:45, 11:00, 11:15, 11:30, 11:45, 12:00, 12:15, 12:30, 12:45, 1:00, 1:15, 1:30, 1:45, 2:00, 2:15, 2:30, 2:45, 3:00, 3:15, 3:30, 3:45, 4:00, 4:15, 4:30, 4:45, 5:00, 5:15, 5:30, 5:45, 6:00, 6:15, 6:30, 6:45, 7:00, 7:15, 7:30, 7:45, 8:00, 8:15, 8:30, 8:45, 9:00, 9:15, 9:30, 9:45, 10:00, 10:15, 10:30, 10:45, 11:00, 11:15, 11:30, 11:45, 12:00, 12:15, 12:30, 12:45, 1:00, 1:15, 1:30, 1:45, 2:00, 2:15, 2:30, 2:45, 3:00, 3:15, 3:30, 3:45, 4:00, 4:15, 4:30, 4:45, 5:00, 5:15, 5:30, 5:45, 6:00, 6:15, 6:30, 6:45, 7:00, 7:15, 7:30, 7:45, 8:00, 8:15, 8:30, 8:45, 9:00, 9:15, 9:30, 9:45, 10:00, 10:15, 10:30, 10:45, 11:00, 11:15, 11:30, 11:45, 12:00, 12:15, 12:30, 12:45, 1:00, 1:15, 1:30, 1:45, 2:00, 2:15, 2:30, 2:45, 3:00, 3:15, 3:30, 3:45, 4:00, 4:15, 4:30, 4:45, 5:00, 5:15, 5:30, 5:45, 6:00, 6:15, 6:30, 6:45, 7:00, 7:15, 7:30, 7:45, 8:00, 8:15, 8:30, 8:45, 9:00, 9:15, 9:30, 9:45, 10:00, 10:15, 10:30, 10:45, 11:00, 11:15, 11:30, 11:45, 12:00, 12:15, 12:30, 12:45, 1:00, 1:15, 1:30, 1:45, 2:00, 2:15, 2:30, 2:45, 3:00, 3:15, 3:30, 3:45, 4:00, 4:15, 4:30, 4:45, 5:00, 5:15, 5:30, 5:45, 6:00, 6:15, 6:30, 6:45, 7:00, 7:15, 7:30, 7:45, 8:00, 8:15, 8:30, 8:45, 9:00, 9:15, 9:30, 9:45, 10:00, 10:15, 10:30, 10:45, 11:00, 11:15, 11:30, 11:45, 12:00, 12:15, 12:30, 12:45, 1:00, 1:15, 1:30, 1:45, 2:00, 2:15, 2:30, 2:45, 3:00, 3:15, 3:30, 3:45, 4:00, 4:15, 4:30, 4:45, 5:00, 5:15, 5:30, 5:45, 6:00, 6:15, 6:30, 6:45, 7:00, 7:15, 7:30, 7:45, 8:00, 8:15, 8:30, 8:45, 9:00, 9:15, 9:30, 9:45, 10:00, 10:15, 10:30, 10:45, 11:00, 11:15, 11:30, 11:45, 12:00, 12:15, 12:30, 12:45, 1:00, 1:15, 1:30, 1:45, 2:00, 2:15, 2:30, 2:45, 3:00, 3:15, 3:30, 3:45, 4:00, 4:15, 4:30, 4:45, 5:00, 5:15, 5:30, 5:45, 6:00, 6:15, 6:30, 6:45, 7:00, 7:15, 7:30, 7:45, 8:00, 8:15, 8:30, 8:45, 9:00, 9:15, 9:30, 9:45, 10:00, 10:15, 10:30, 10:45, 11:00, 11:15, 11:30, 11:45, 12:00, 12:15, 12:30, 12:45, 1:00, 1:15, 1:30, 1:45, 2:00, 2:15, 2:30, 2:45, 3:00, 3:15, 3:30, 3:45, 4:00, 4:15, 4:30, 4:45, 5:00, 5:15, 5:30, 5:45, 6:00, 6:15, 6:30, 6:45, 7:00, 7:15, 7:30, 7:45, 8:00, 8:15, 8:30, 8:45, 9:00, 9:15, 9:30, 9:45, 10:00, 10:15, 10:30, 10:45, 11:00, 11:15, 11:30, 11:45, 12:00, 12:15, 12:30, 12:45, 1:00, 1:15, 1:30, 1:45, 2:00, 2:15, 2:30, 2:45, 3:00, 3:15, 3:30, 3:45, 4:00, 4:15, 4:30, 4:45, 5:00, 5:15, 5:30, 5:45, 6:00, 6:15, 6:30, 6:45, 7:00, 7:15, 7:30, 7:45, 8:00, 8:15, 8:30, 8:45, 9:00, 9:15, 9:30, 9:45, 10:00, 10:15, 10:30, 10:45, 11:00, 11:15, 11:30, 11:45, 12:00, 12:15, 12:30, 12:45, 1:00, 1:15, 1:30, 1:45, 2:0

Everybody's Business

By JOHN F. SINCLAIR

BY JOHN F. SINCLAIR.
Many educational leaders have left that field for the more attractive remuneration in commercial life. One of the major difficulties in many universities is to get capable full-time professors for the compensation now paid.

Such a situation has existed for years, and isn't new. But it is news that John D. Clark, president of the Midwest Refining Company, director of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, and a director in several other important companies, is to resign soon to take a postgraduate course in law and specialize in economic research at Johns Hopkins university, to fit himself for teaching.

A newspaper referring yesterday to another sinking of prices on the market attributed the drop largely to "Ayers and Money." This was a reference to Colonel Leonard P. Ayers, Cleveland banker, and the statement he made last week that the position of the stock market was technically high and that he looked for a further drop.

The opinion of few men in America is as closely followed as that of this Cleveland banker. Colonel Ayers has always been a student. He is a graduate of Boston university and Columbia, and has been general superintendent of schools at Porto Rico, director of education and statistics of the Russell Sage foundation and chief statistician of A. B. Ayer & Co., Boston. He accompanied the Dawes commission from America as financial adviser. Eight years ago he went to Cleveland as vice president of the Cleveland Trust company.

When I met Colonel Ayers in his office I found a man small, modest and quiet of voice and manner, with a sensitive and finely chiseled face. Surrounded by books and magazines, he was willing to share his time with anyone calling, but careful in his statements. Colonel Ayers is still under 50, and one of the ablest and youngest group of banking economists.

Joe O. Cheek, of Nashville, Tenn., head of Cheek-Neil coffee manufacturers, whose company was sold recently for approximately $45,000,000, is one of the most unusual men in the south.

Mr. Cheek is 76 years old, erect, keen of eye and judgment, and interested in friends, business, and home. He has met and overcome enough difficulties in his business life to give him ballast, but not enough to subdue his spirit.

Asked about his success, he said that his greatest achievement was in raising eight sons to be real men, six of them executives of his company.

"Eight sons and not a black sheep among them is quite a record," said Mr. Cheek.

His sympathies are broad and deep. One would expect Mr. Cheek would be ready to retire, now that he has more millions than he can ever use. But he is as active, looking after his business affairs as he was 40 years ago.

Governor General Stimson wants the Philippine islands to import more American money for their development. In his first message he declares that the Philippines are in exactly the same position in which the United States found itself 140 years ago.

"We borrowed freely from Europe, including many countries with whose political institutions we had no sympathy and even held in profound distrust," he said. "Is America in economic serfdom to these countries today? She has developed her resources, she has paid back her debts, and now not only is independent of her creditors but is able to lend to them and to support them in their present troubles."

The governor general is not afraid of American capital entering the Philippines. He wants more of it. He believes it is the islands' most important need today.

As the world goes on toward a closer and closer economic unity, capital will continue to cross national border lines in increasing volume, Governor Stimson believes.

No man is Premier Poincaré's superior in memory for figures, once the French statesman has a grasp of them. In January, 1923, during a conference with Bonar Law, preceding the French occupation of the Ruhr, he showed this quality.

About 2:30 p. m. one day, Poincaré requested his experts to read to him their opinion of the British plans. Sharply at 3 o'clock he was in the conference room, and when his time came to speak he delivered a vigorous and remarkable address containing the whole of the experts' reports in the exact figures and phraseology he had heard an hour earlier.

Poincaré, a teetotaler, non-smoker and frugal eater, is a man of great energy. Although 68 years old, he continues a hard worker, and frequently is in his office from 15 to 17 hours a day.

Before the war, the franc was Popular Afternoon Train to MACON

4:10 P. M.
Arrive Macon 6:50 P. M.
Round Trip 2-Day Limit
$4.25
Round Trip 6-Day Limit
$4.80
SOUTHERN RAILWAY

St. Joseph's Pure Aspirin
5-GRAIN TABLETS
THE LARGEST SELLING ASPIRIN IN THE WORLD FOR 10¢
AS PURE AS MONEY CAN BUY

Standard Oil Director To Retire From Business and Enter College—Colonel Ayers and His Opinions Are Watched Closely.

worth 19.3 cents. Now it has been definitely stabilized at 23.3 cents. It is worth about one-fifth of what it was Leo T. Fawcett, French finance authority, referring to the recent franc stabilization, says: "No event in past or modern history has been of greater importance, and certainly no similar accomplishment in any country has been beset by so many difficulties, especially of a political and social nature."

John Maynard Keynes, English finance authority, compares the way England handled her financial difficulties and the way France has met hers since the war. He says: "Great Britain has come out of the transitional period with the weight of her war debt aggravated, her obligations to the United States unaltered, and deflationary finance still in the ascendant; with the heavy burden of taxes appropriate to the former and a million unemployed as the outcome of the latter."

He continues: "France, on the other hand, has written down her internal war debt by four-fifths, and has persuaded her allies to let her off more than half of her external debt; and now she is moving the sacrifices of deflation. Yet she has contrived to do this without the slightest loss of reputation for conservative finance and capitalist principles. The Bank of France emerges much stronger than the Bank of England; and everyone feels that France is the last stronghold of the 'rentier' mentality."

Time will tell which nation—France or England—was wiser.

NINTH WARD CLUB DISCUSSES PLANS FOR IMPROVEMENTS

The Ninth Ward Civic association met Tuesday night at the Highland school, on North avenue, and discussed the proposed widening of Highland avenue, the North avenue underpass, Candler park swimming pool, erection of a library on the lot owned by the city at Little Five Points, and a white way to join the fourth ward at the railroad and extend several blocks to the north.

Several members made short talks, including Raleigh Drennon, M. D. Roberts, R. M. Cobb, Assistant Southern Bell engineer, Frank Perkins, Oscar Williamson and others. The members were urged to cooperate with their representatives in council for the best interest of their ward.

A. M. E. MINISTERS APPROVE PROGRAM FOR STATE MEETING

The A. M. E. Ministers' Union of Atlanta, in regular session Tuesday, approved the program prepared for the state conference to be held in August at Big Bethel church. The program was presented by Dr. C. A. Wingfield, first superintendent of Sunday schools.

Several reports were made to the union by committees. Dr. J. L. Butler and Dr. R. J. Jefferson, who reported on current events, gave what was regarded as one of the strongest reports presented to the union in years. The vigilant and civic committees brought out matters affecting the negro as a community center, in a report made by Dr. R. J. Febb, J. A. Hadley and others.

The missionary handbook, prepared by Florence L. Hadley, of Atlanta, was especially mentioned by Dr. Jefferson, chairman of the current events committee.

WEAK, FRAIL, TIMID WOMAN APPLIES FOR 2ND DIVORCE

Birmingham, Ala., July 17.—(AP)—Mrs. Mae Zeno, a "weak, frail, timid" woman, used discretion when her "large and athletic" former husband met her on the street and proposed a second marriage. She married him again, in spite of the fact that she was granted a divorce less than six weeks ago.

USE OF HARD COAL URGED FOR FAST PASSENGER TRAINS

New York, July 17.—(AP)—Use of anthracite exclusively in locomotives hauling the faster passenger trains is being considered by several of the larger railroads, it was learned today. Reports that the New York Central had placed a large order for anthracite were denied, but it is understood that line, as well as the Pennsylvania and several others, have studied the possibilities of using hard coal alone in place of the present mixture of small anthracite and bituminous coal.

BANDIT PUTS BANK CASHIER IN VAULT AND STEALS $1,500

Clarkfield, Minn., July 17.—(AP)—Forcing A. M. Andersen, assistant cashier into a vault, an unmasked man robbed the Citizens State bank of $1,500 yesterday. Andersen was the only employee in the institution at the time. The robber overlooked approximately $25,000 in Liberty bonds in the vault.

HOOVER BUDGET WILL BE DECIDED: $3,000,000 LIKELY

Washington, July 27.—(United News).—The budget for the Hoover-Curtis presidential campaign will be fixed at a conference here Wednesday between Republican National Chairman Work and J. R. Nutt, of Cleveland, treasurer of the republican national committee.

Louisville-Cleveland Air Mail Service To Open August 1

Washington, July 17.—(AP)—Louisville will be linked with the main transcontinental air mail service August 1, when the new Louisville to Cleveland air mail route will be opened.

The postoffice department announced today that the completion of a temporary lighting system between Dayton and Cleveland would make possible the opening of the new service by the continental air line.

A schedule has been arranged by which Louisville mail will reach Cleveland in time to connect both east and west with the overnight Chicago-New York service. Louisville will thus have direct air connection with Boston on the east and with St. Paul, Minneapolis, Kansas City, and Lincoln, Neb., in the west.

At Ritz Club

Above is Patsy O'Neill, blonde beauty, entertaining this week at the Ritz Country club. Miss O'Neill formerly was leading lady with several Broadway hits, and more recently leading lady with Jimmie Hodge's Follies which played several weeks at the Capitol theater. Miss O'Neill is billed as the "Princess of Songdom," and has pleased large audiences with her singing and her dancing. She will be at the Ritz for this week only.

MOTHER COOGAN WINS BALM SUIT

Los Angeles, July 17.—(AP)—The tangled marital affairs of Arthur L. Bernstein, manager of film players, were considerably straightened out here yesterday when a superior court judgment awarded him a divorce and dismissed Mrs. Bernstein's alienation suit for $750,000 against Mrs. Lillian Coogan, mother of Jackie Coogan, child film star.

Mrs. Bernstein's suit against Mrs. Coogan was dismissed on motion of counsel for both sides. First, however, both Mrs. Coogan and Bernstein took the stand and testified that no settlement had been made out of court.

From one courtroom the principals in the case immediately went to another to settle the second phase of the Bernstein domestic troubles. Here Bernstein, who had filed a cross-complaint to his wife's suit for divorce, merely charged that Mrs. Bernstein would not cook for him and that she would not take him to see him while he was confined in a hospital here.

Mrs. Coogan took the stand for Bernstein and testified that his wife neglected him and refused to follow his wish, Jack Coogan, Sr., husband of Mrs. Coogan, also was a witness.

A property settlement between the Bernsteins was made out of court. Mrs. Bernstein's alienation suit, filed several months ago, accused Mrs. Coogan of taking transcontinental trips with Bernstein, embracing him in a hotel room while both were scantily attired, although it was admitted that both Mrs. Coogan and Bernstein were present during the latter episode.

RAGSDALE HOLDS UP 11TH WARD PARK PLAN

All papers passed Monday by city council, with the exception of the resolution providing for the purchase of the Sisson tract for an 11th ward park, were approved by Mayor I. N. Ragdsdale on Tuesday. Mayor Ragdsdale said he would hold up the Sisson tract purchase paper with the idea of considering the measure more fully today. This resolution proposes to pay $250,000 for the property.

Through inadvertent error, it was stated Tuesday that Alderman Robert E. Gann opposed the park bill in city council Monday. Mr. Gann voted for the bill, but previously had made a speech giving his opinion that there should not be so wide a variance between the appraiser's price of $250,000 for the property and the price of $50,000 asked.

HOOPER BUDGET WILL BE DECIDED: $3,000,000 LIKELY

Washington, July 27.—(United News).—The budget for the Hoover-Curtis presidential campaign will be fixed at a conference here Wednesday between Republican National Chairman Work and J. R. Nutt, of Cleveland, treasurer of the republican national committee.

Louisville-Cleveland Air Mail Service To Open August 1

Washington, July 17.—(AP)—Louisville will be linked with the main transcontinental air mail service August 1, when the new Louisville to Cleveland air mail route will be opened.

The postoffice department announced today that the completion of a temporary lighting system between Dayton and Cleveland would make possible the opening of the new service by the continental air line.

A schedule has been arranged by which Louisville mail will reach Cleveland in time to connect both east and west with the overnight Chicago-New York service. Louisville will thus have direct air connection with Boston on the east and with St. Paul, Minneapolis, Kansas City, and Lincoln, Neb., in the west.

AT THE THEATERS

VAUDEVILLE PICTURES

KEITH'S GEORGIA—Five acts; "The Racket," "The Hot Heels," "The Musical Stock-Films," "Cantrol—Hits and Bits of 1928," "Hot Heels."

PICTURE-STAGE SHOWS—HOWARD—"Half a Bride," "Treasure Ships."

VITAPHONE-MOVIE-TONE—METROPOLITAN—"The Jazz Singer," "Hallelujah—Hot News."

MOVIES—ALAMO NO. 2—"My Best Girl," "Cameo—Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court," "Crosby."

NEIGHBORHOOD MOVIES—DEARBABE—"Across to Singapore," "EMPIRE—"Dress Parade," "FAIRFAX—"The Hoodoo Ranch," "PONY DE LEON—"The Private Life of Helen of Troy," "TENTH STREET—"Wild Geese," "WEST END—"Feel My Pulse."

Keith's Georgia.

It is generally conceded in film circles the length and breadth of the land that Thomas Meighan, for a long time smothered with average stories and failures, has staged the most remarkable return to prestige ever achieved in the films with his latest picture, "The Racket," appearing this week at Keith's Georgia, as a feature of the "appreciation week" show.

Capitol.

The most thrilling and dangerous of horse races, the Steeplechase, was filmed in "Hot Heels" starring Glenn Tryon and which is now at the Capitol theater. It is featured by many exciting tumbles of man and horse. Stage features at the Capitol this week are the "Pageant of Beauty," featuring 20 bathing beauties, while "Hits and Bits of 1928" is a musical comedy revue.

Loew's Grand.

Joe Fajer and his unique Bohemian orchestra with Gertrude Lang as prima donna, is the headline attraction on a pleasing bill of vaudeville at Loew's Grand theater this week. James B. Donovan and Marie Lee present a clever song and dance skit, while Oscar Grogan, noted radio and recording star, sings several of his latest hits. Other acts are Jose Saxton and Jack Farrell in a comedy sketch, and Rafferty's musical comedy, "The Love-lorn," based on Beatrice Fairfax's newspaper articles.

Howard.

Gene Dennis heads the great semi-annual musical program at Howard theater this week. Beautiful Esther Ralston and handsome Gary Cooper, at the Capitol this week, are the "Half a Bride." It is a beautiful romance of two young lovers on a desert island. Jack Stanley is presenting the "Pageant of Beauty," featuring 20 bathing beauties, while "Hits and Bits of 1928" is a musical comedy revue.

Metropolitan.

Now in the middle of its last week at the Metropolitan after its sensational comeback for two weeks, a few months ago, is a still more sensational six weeks' run at that theater is Al Johnson's Vitaphone production, "The Jazz Singer." Also on the program are two Vitaphone acts and Movietone, the talking news reel, presenting world events in sound and sight.

Rialto.

"Hot News," the ridiculously funny farce of a young lady who becomes a daring, devilish, cameraman for a news reel company, is showing this week at the Rialto theater in conjunction with an outstanding Vitaphone vaudeville program. Bebe Daniels, Hollywood's most capable comedienne, is featured in "Hot News," which has been acclaimed her finest vehicle. Charles Brackett in two roles: Charles Rogers in a one-act comedy and "The Ingenues," famous band, complete the program with Movietone news.

Alamo No. 2.

"Love in a Cottage" is an old theme in both written and pictured romance, but Mary Pickford has a new one that might be called "Love in a Cottage." In "My Best Girl," the noted star's latest film now showing at the Alamo No. 2 theater, one of the romantic sequences centers around a five-packing case in the basement of a large and ten-cent store.

Empire.

"Dress Parade," a brilliant, dramatic, thrilling, swift-moving love romance of West Point, with William H. Davis and adorable Bessie Love, will be shown at the new Empire theater, corner of Georgia avenue and Crew street today only.

Tudor.

Silverstreak, the wonder dog scores a big hit in "Cross Breeds," at the Tudor. The story of a dog with the body of a fighter and the twisted dog soul of a cowardly outcast, the dog is found by a man whose middle name is fight and how! The new master puts new life into the dog and the final climax you will see one of the greatest dog fights ever filmed.

Cameo.

Opening today the Cameo shows "A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court" for a two-day engagement. This famous story by the great American author Mark Twain, is one of his most delightful stories, and the moving picture version has won the admiration of all who have seen it.

Will Contest Legality Of Oath Required By Dem. Party Rule

Greenville, S. C., July 17.—(AP)—The legality of the oath required by democratic party rule No. 32 is to be contested by former Governor John Gary Evans, of Spartanburg, he told Fred V. Johnson, an officer of the Greenville Hoover-for-president club, in correspondence, made public here today. Rule 32 requires that democrats support all party nominees.

The oath required by legislative act of 1915 is all the managers can require, former Governor Evans wrote. "The managers of elections who deny a citizen the right to vote may also be sued for damages."

Former Governor Evans attended a recent meeting of the democratic national committee in New York, serving in the place of Governor Richards as South Carolina's representative.

Mr. Johnson, who heretofore has been a democrat, but who says he feels impelled to vote as an independent this year, said it was his information that any boxes at which voters declining to take the rule 32 oath were barred from voting could be thrown out.

Mr. Evans did not disclose what steps he proposed to take.

$12 Wrightsville Beach THURSDAYS AND SATURDAYS 10 Days. SEABOARD. WA. 501S.

WEST END TO ENJOY BARBECUE TONIGHT

Members of the West End Business Men's club, their friends, Mayor I. N. Ragdsdale, the mayors of East Point, College Park and Hapeville, and officials of many civic clubs and other guests will enjoy a picnic and barbecue this afternoon and night at Idlewood.

W. A. Lynn, secretary of the club and chairman of the entertainment and program committee, together with Hall Davis, club president; Fred C. Rice and R. F. Pennington, the other three members of the committee, have given special attention to the program and more than 300 persons are expected to be present.

Practically every business firm in West End has declared a half holiday for today in order to participate in the festivities at Idlewood.

The party will meet in front of the Lee Street school at 2 o'clock and automobiles will take the crowd to Idlewood.

During the afternoon there will be athletic contests including a swimming meet, a horseshoe pitching contest and other events. A prize will be given to the winners of each of the events and business men of West End will donate the prizes. Following the athletic meet, the big barbecue will be served at 6 o'clock.

The climax of the day's program will be a dance to follow the barbecue. An orchestra has been obtained to furnish the music and several special numbers will be given during the barbecue.

THREE ARE LYNCHED IN MEXICAN FIGHT

Mexico City, July 17.—(AP)—News-mer dispatches from Puebla relate that after a fight between villagers of Libres and country people, three of the latter were captured and lynched. The village was attacked by an armed band of agrarians. Federal troops have been sent to the place to restore order.

20,925 People Who Were Too Late

Their applications for $98,895,693, in 1927, were unfortunately declined; and probably 60,000 women and children were deprived of protection which they needed.

No doubt many of these applicants had been insurable but waited too long. Every day some of us, and eventually all of us, will cross the invisible line between insurability and uninsurability.

Let us help you while we can. Send for literature today.

NEW YORK LIFE INS. CO.

DARWIN F. KINGSLEY, President

Call, write or telephone to R. L. Cooney

Inspector of Agencies at Large 25 Poplar St. Tel. Walnut 3701

Only $2 Down Will Install—A Detroit Jewel Gas Range

A SMALL payment of only $2 down will install in your home this NEW Detroit Jewel Gas Range—and you may pay the balance in fifteen easy monthly payments. Furthermore, your old stove, regardless of kind or condition, will be accepted as a credit of $9 on the purchase of a new Detroit Jewel.

Detroit Jewel ovens are much larger than ever before, 14 inches high and 20 inches deep. Has double-faced Enamel Linings, smooth and easy to keep clean. This patent oven is 5-side air-walled and will actually bake with the door wide open.

Come by one of our stores today and select the Detroit Jewel which meets your kitchen requirements.

If you do not have an old stove to trade in for an allowance of $9 we will give you, free, this handsome set of "Viko" Aluminum ware, shown at the left. Included in this set is the famous "Vapo-Seal" Waterless Cooker, which has been endorsed by many of the leading home economists of the country. Your home should have one.

GEORGIA POWER COMPANY

1162 Euclid Ave.—979 Peachtree—3055 Peachtree Rd.—84 Walton—821 Gordon—75 Marietta—142 Sycamore, Decatur

CHICAGO MILWAUKEE ST. PAUL PACIFIC

Climb the Highest Mountains Swim in the Mightiest Ocean See the Greatest Glaciers Biggest Trees Game Fish Thrills

Pacific Northwest $117.55 Round trip from Atlanta to SEATTLE and TACOMA Rainier National Park and Puget Sound, Olympic Peninsula YELLOWSTONE Thru the Glorious $95.05 Round Trip from New Gallatin Gateway Atlanta

Enjoy a memorable vacation. Travel independently or with Escorted All-Expense Tour parties. Ask for complete information.

Atlanta Office 717 Healey Bldg. Phone Walnut 6585 G. C. Hittel, General Agent

The MILWAUKEE ROAD ELECTRIFIED OVER THE ROCKIES TO THE SEA

112-552

NEW YORK MARKETS
STOCKS—Firm.
BONDS—Irregular.
FOREIGN EXCHANGES—Mixed.
COTTON—Easy.FOREIGN DEBENTURE
WHEAT PRICE

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

WHEAT—	High.	Low.	Close.	Close.
Sept.	1.25 1/2	1.25 1/4	1.25 1/4	1.25 1/4
Oct.	1.25 1/4	1.25 1/8	1.25 1/8	1.25 1/8
Nov.	1.25 1/8	1.25 1/16	1.25 1/16	1.25 1/16
Dec.	1.25 1/16	1.25 1/32	1.25 1/32	1.25 1/32
Jan.	1.25 1/32	1.25 1/64	1.25 1/64	1.25 1/64
Feb.	1.25 1/64	1.25 1/128	1.25 1/128	1.25 1/128
Mar.	1.25 1/128	1.25 1/256	1.25 1/256	1.25 1/256
Apr.	1.25 1/256	1.25 1/512	1.25 1/512	1.25 1/512
May	1.25 1/512	1.25 1/1024	1.25 1/1024	1.25 1/1024
June	1.25 1/1024	1.25 1/2048	1.25 1/2048	1.25 1/2048
July	1.25 1/2048	1.25 1/4096	1.25 1/4096	1.25 1/4096
Aug.	1.25 1/4096	1.25 1/8192	1.25 1/8192	1.25 1/8192
Sept.	1.25 1/8192	1.25 1/16384	1.25 1/16384	1.25 1/16384
Oct.	1.25 1/16384	1.25 1/32768	1.25 1/32768	1.25 1/32768
Nov.	1.25 1/32768	1.25 1/65536	1.25 1/65536	1.25 1/65536
Dec.	1.25 1/65536	1.25 1/131072	1.25 1/131072	1.25 1/131072
Jan.	1.25 1/131072	1.25 1/262144	1.25 1/262144	1.25 1/262144
Feb.	1.25 1/262144	1.25 1/524288	1.25 1/524288	1.25 1/524288
Mar.	1.25 1/524288	1.25 1/1048576	1.25 1/1048576	1.25 1/1048576
Apr.	1.25 1/1048576	1.25 1/2097152	1.25 1/2097152	1.25 1/2097152
May	1.25 1/2097152	1.25 1/4194304	1.25 1/4194304	1.25 1/4194304
June	1.25 1/4194304	1.25 1/8388608	1.25 1/8388608	1.25 1/8388608
July	1.25 1/8388608	1.25 1/16777216	1.25 1/16777216	1.25 1/16777216
Aug.	1.25 1/16777216	1.25 1/33554432	1.25 1/33554432	1.25 1/33554432
Sept.	1.25 1/33554432	1.25 1/67108864	1.25 1/67108864	1.25 1/67108864
Oct.	1.25 1/67108864	1.25 1/134217728	1.25 1/134217728	1.25 1/134217728
Nov.	1.25 1/134217728	1.25 1/268435456	1.25 1/268435456	1.25 1/268435456
Dec.	1.25 1/268435456	1.25 1/536870912	1.25 1/536870912	1.25 1/536870912
Jan.	1.25 1/536870912	1.25 1/1073741824	1.25 1/1073741824	1.25 1/1073741824
Feb.	1.25 1/1073741824	1.25 1/2147483648	1.25 1/2147483648	1.25 1/2147483648
Mar.	1.25 1/2147483648	1.25 1/4294967296	1.25 1/4294967296	1.25 1/4294967296
Apr.	1.25 1/4294967296	1.25 1/8589934592	1.25 1/8589934592	1.25 1/8589934592
May	1.25 1/8589934592	1.25 1/17179869184	1.25 1/17179869184	1.25 1/17179869184
June	1.25 1/17179869184	1.25 1/34359738368	1.25 1/34359738368	1.25 1/34359738368
July	1.25 1/34359738368	1.25 1/68719476736	1.25 1/68719476736	1.25 1/68719476736
Aug.	1.25 1/68719476736	1.25 1/137438953472	1.25 1/137438953472	1.25 1/137438953472
Sept.	1.25 1/137438953472	1.25 1/274877906944	1.25 1/274877906944	1.25 1/274877906944
Oct.	1.25 1/274877906944	1.25 1/549755813888	1.25 1/549755813888	1.25 1/549755813888
Nov.	1.25 1/549755813888	1.25 1/1099511627776	1.25 1/1099511627776	1.25 1/1099511627776
Dec.	1.25 1/1099511627776	1.25 1/2199023255552	1.25 1/2199023255552	1.25 1/2199023255552
Jan.	1.25 1/2199023255552	1.25 1/4398046511104	1.25 1/4398046511104	1.25 1/4398046511104
Feb.	1.25 1/4398046511104	1.25 1/8796093022208	1.25 1/8796093022208	1.25 1/8796093022208
Mar.	1.25 1/8796093022208	1.25 1/17592186444416	1.25 1/17592186444416	1.25 1/17592186444416
Apr.	1.25 1/17592186444416	1.25 1/35184372888832	1.25 1/35184372888832	1.25 1/35184372888832
May	1.25 1/35184372888832	1.25 1/70368745777664	1.25 1/70368745777664	1.25 1/70368745777664
June	1.25 1/70368745777664	1.25 1/14073749155328	1.25 1/14073749155328	1.25 1/14073749155328
July	1.25 1/14073749155328	1.25 1/28147498310656	1.25 1/28147498310656	1.25 1/28147498310656
Aug.	1.25 1/28147498310656	1.25 1/56294996621312	1.25 1/56294996621312	1.25 1/56294996621312
Sept.	1.25 1/56294996621312	1.25 1/112589993226624	1.25 1/112589993226624	1.25 1/112589993226624
Oct.	1.25 1/112589993226624	1.25 1/225179986453248	1.25 1/225179986453248	1.25 1/225179986453248
Nov.	1.25 1/225179986453248	1.25 1/450359972906496	1.25 1/450359972906496	1.25 1/450359972906496
Dec.	1.25 1/450359972906496	1.25 1/900719945812992	1.25 1/900719945812992	1.25 1/900719945812992
Jan.	1.25 1/900719945812992	1.25 1/1801439891625984	1.25 1/1801439891625984	1.25 1/1801439891625984
Feb.	1.25 1/1801439891625984	1.25 1/3602879783251968	1.25 1/3602879783251968	1.25 1/3602879783251968
Mar.	1.25 1/3602879783251968	1.25 1/7205759566503936	1.25 1/7205759566503936	1.25 1/7205759566503936
Apr.	1.25 1/7205759566503936	1.25 1/14411519130007872	1.25 1/14411519130007872	1.25 1/14411519130007872
May	1.25 1/14411519130007872	1.25 1/28823038260015744	1.25 1/28823038260015744	1.25 1/28823038260015744
June	1.25 1/28823038260015744	1.25 1/57646076520031488	1.25 1/57646076520031488	1.25 1/57646076520031488
July	1.25 1/57646076520031488	1.25 1/115292153040062976	1.25 1/115292153040062976	1.25 1/115292153040062976
Aug.	1.25 1/115292153040062976	1.25 1/230584306080125952	1.25 1/230584306080125952	1.25 1/230584306080125952
Sept.	1.25 1/230584306080125952	1.25 1/461168612160251904	1.25 1/461168612160251904	1.25 1/461168612160251904
Oct.	1.25 1/461168612160251904	1.25 1/922337224320503808	1.25 1/922337224320503808	1.25 1/922337224320503808
Nov.	1.25 1/922337224320503808	1.25 1/1844674488641007616	1.25 1/1844674488641007616	1.25 1/1844674488641007616
Dec.	1.25 1/1844674488641007616	1.25 1/3689348977282015232	1.25 1/3689348977282015232	1.25 1/3689348977282015232
Jan.	1.25 1/3689348977282015232	1.25 1/7378697954564030464	1.25 1/7378697954564030464	1.25 1/7378697954564030464
Feb.	1.25 1/7378697954564030464	1.25 1/14757395909120660896	1.25 1/14757395909120660896	1.25 1/14757395909120660896
Mar.	1.25 1/14757395909120660896	1.25 1/29514791818241321792	1.25 1/29514791818241321792	1.25 1/29514791818241321792
Apr.	1.25 1/29514791818241321792	1.25 1/59029583636482643584	1.25 1/59029583636482643584	1.25 1/59029583636482643584
May	1.25 1/59029583636482643584	1.25 1/118059167272965287168	1.25 1/118059167272965287168	1.25 1/118059167272965287168
June	1.25 1/118059167272965287168	1.25 1/236118334545930574336	1.25 1/236118334545930574336	1.25 1/236118334545930574336
July	1.25 1/236118334545930574336	1.25 1/472236669091861148672	1.25 1/472236669091861148672	1.25 1/472236669091861148672
Aug.	1.25 1/472236669091861148672	1.25 1/944473338183722297344	1.25 1/944473338183722297344	1.25 1/944473338183722297344
Sept.	1.25 1/944473338183722297344	1.25 1/188894677367544459488	1.25 1/188894677367544459488	1.25 1/188894677367544459488
Oct.	1.25 1/188894677367544459488	1.25 1/377789354735088918976	1.25 1/377789354735088918976	1.25 1/377789354735088918976
Nov.	1.25 1/377789354735088918976	1.25 1/755578709470177837952	1.25 1/755578709470177837952	1.25 1/755578709470177837952
Dec.	1.25 1/755578709470177837952	1.25 1/1511157418940355675904	1.25 1/1511157418940355675904	1.25 1/1511157418940355675904
Jan.	1.25 1/1511157418940355675904	1.25 1/3022314837880711351808	1.25 1/3022314837880711351808	1.25 1/3022314837880711351808
Feb.	1.25 1/3022314837880711351808	1.25 1/6044629675761422703616	1.25 1/6044629675761422703616	1.25 1/6044629675761422703616
Mar.	1.25 1/6044629675761422703616	1.25 1/12089259351522845407232	1.25 1/12089259351522845407232	1.25 1/12089259351522845407232
Apr.	1.25 1/12089259351522845407232	1.25 1/24178518703045690814464	1.25 1/24178518703045690814464	1.25 1/24178518703045690814464
May	1.25 1/24178518703045690814464	1.25 1/48357037406091381628928	1.25 1/48357037406091381628928	1.25 1/48357037406091381628928
June	1.25 1/48357037406091381628928	1.25 1/967140748121827632577952	1.25 1/967140748121827632577952	1.25 1/967140748121827632577952
July	1.25 1/967140748121827632577952	1.25 1/193428149624365465155584	1.25 1/193428149624365465155584	1.25 1/193428149624365465155584
Aug.	1.25 1/193428149624365465155584	1.25 1/386856299248730930311168	1.25 1/386856299248730930311168	1.25 1/386856299248730930311168
Sept.	1.25 1/386856299248730930311168	1.25 1/773712598497461860622336	1.25 1/773712598497461860622336	1.25 1/773712598497461860622336
Oct.	1.25 1/773712598497461860622336	1.25 1/154742519699492721244672	1.25 1/154742519699492721244672	1.25 1/154742519699492721244672
Nov.	1.25 1/154742519699492721244672	1.25 1/309485039398985442489344	1.25 1/309485039398985442489344	1.25 1/309485039398985442489344
Dec.	1.25 1/309485039398985442489344	1.25 1/618970078797970884978688	1.25 1/618970078797970884978688	1.25 1/618970078797970884978688
Jan.	1.25 1/618970078797970884978688	1.25 1/1237940157595941769957376	1.25 1/1237940157595941769957376	1.25 1/1237940157595941769957376
Feb.	1.25 1/1237940157595941769957376	1.25 1/2475880315191883539914752	1.25 1/2475880315191883539914752	1.25 1/2475880315191883539914752
Mar.	1.25 1/2475880315191883539914752	1.25 1/4951760630383767079829504	1.25 1/4951760630383767079829504	1.25 1/4951760630383767079829504
Apr.	1.25 1/4951760630383767079829504	1.25 1/9903521260767534159659008	1.25 1/9903521260767534159659008	1.25 1/9903521260767534159659008
May	1.25 1/9903521260767534159659008	1.25 1/19807042521535068318318016	1.25 1/19807042521535068318318016	1.25 1/19807042521535068318318016
June	1.25 1/19807042521535068318318016	1.25 1/39614085043070136636636032	1.25 1/39614085043070136636636032	1.25 1/39614085043070136636636032
July	1.25 1/39614085043070136636636032	1.25 1/79228170086140273273272064	1.25 1/79228170086140273273272064	1.25 1/79228170086140273273272064
Aug.	1.25 1/79228170086140273273272064	1.25 1/158456340172280545546544128	1.25 1/158456340172280545546544128	1.25 1/158456340172280545546544128
Sept.	1.25 1/158456340172280545546544128	1.25 1/316912680344561091093088256	1.25 1/316912680344561091093088256	1.25 1/316912680344561091093088256
Oct.	1.25 1/316912680344561091093088256	1.25 1/633825360689122182216616512	1.25 1/633825360689122182216616512	1.25 1/633825360689122182216616512
Nov.	1.25 1/633825360689122182216616512	1.25 1/1267650721378244364532330224	1.25 1/1267650721378244364532330224	1.25 1/1267650721378244364532330224
Dec.	1.25 1/1267650721378244364532330224	1.25 1/2535301442756488729064660448	1.25 1/2535301442756488729064660448	1.25 1/2535301442756488729064660448
Jan.	1.25 1/2535301442756488729064660448	1.25 1/5070602885512977458129320896	1.25 1/5070602885512977458129320896	1.25 1/5070602885512977458129320896
Feb.	1.25 1/5070602885512977458129320896	1.25 1/1014120577102595491625641792	1.25 1/1014120577102595491625641792

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Automotive.

PACKARD

The Best Place To Buy a Used Car

'24 FRANKLIN Touring...	$485
'27 CHRYSLER "70" Sedan...	1,085
'25 PACKARD 7-p. Tour...	385
'25 Hudson Sedan...	475
'24 PACKARD "8" Sedan...	585
'25 Packard 7-p. Sedan...	985
'24 OVERLAND Tour...	165
'25 PACKARD 5-p. Sedan...	985

Atlanta Packard Motors
IVy 2727 370 Peachtree
Open EveningsWonderful
Buys
in
USED CARS

1928 Whippet Coach...	$575
1928 Essex Coach...	625
1926 Hugmobile Coupe...	595
1927 Chevrolet 4-Door...	450
1927 Chevrolet Coupe...	425
1927 Whippet Coach...	395
1925 Willys-Knight Special...	450
1925 Oldsmobile Coach...	250
1924 Dodge Sport Touring...	175

PLENTY MORE to select from.
See our stock of clean, late model cars first.

TERMS WE TRADE

Call for Demonstration
Until 9 O'ClockLeRoux Motor Co.
Formerly Willys-Overland, Inc.WEST PEACHTREE AT NORTH AVENUE
HEMLOCK 7483

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

Brokers in Real Estate

HANKIN-WHITE CO.—Real estate and rental. 51 North Forsyth. Walnut 0636.

SHARP & BOYLSTON, 26 Luckie St. Walnut 2080.

TURMAN-BROWN CO.—210 Georgia St. Bank Bldg. Walnut 4274.

WEYMAN & CONNOR, 58 Marietta St. Loans. Walnut 2102.

Houses for Sale

ANSLEY PARK—Dark red brick 6-room bungalow on an east front lot. $8,500. Make an offer. Call Fletcher. Walnut 8341.

ANSLEY PARK—On a wonderful lot 200 feet front with commanding views, 8-room, 2-story home, 2 baths, large rooms, oil heat, garage, servants' room and bath. Want an offer. Going to sell. Call Fletcher. Walnut 8341.

BEAUTIFUL 6-room brick, Sylvan Hills, every convenience, $5,500, terms. Walnut 2700.

COST $3,500; PRICE $2,250.

GOT TO SELL at once. No crime to make your own offer. You may get it. Look at 216 Deane street, near Pryor street school. Good condition, 5 rooms, electric lights, porcelain bath, servants' room and bath. If you act at once and know a big sacrifice. Your agent, J. L. L. 6 North Forsyth street. Walnut 0103.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

Houses for Sale

TEN-ROOM HOUSE—Capitol avenue home, two baths, no loan, terms. Charles E. Thompson, 301 Gould building. Walnut 1432.

ANDREWS DRIVE—100x200 ft. bargain at $14,000. C. L. Greene, Walnut 4369.

AVONDALE ESTATES, OFFICE ON THE PROPERTY, PHONE DEARBORN 8700.

LOT on Yorkville road has to be sold. Hemlock 734-J or Walnut 2607.

WEST WESLEY AVENUE—Between Habersham and North Side drive, beautiful wooded site. 100x400 ft. $9,000. Call Mr. Royer, R. M. Grant company, WA. 1600.

IT BEAUTIFUL building site on Roxboro road near E. River's property will be sold Wednesday, 1 p. m., on easy terms. Barbecue. Drive out.

2 LOTS 78x175 Johns Druid Hills, $1,750 and $2,500, owner Walnut 2700.

Investment Property 85A

FOR investment property, store and meat stand and lot H. V. Mulkey, West 827-J.

42 NEGRO LOTS.

ON ASHLEY street and streets running off of Ashley, paved, sidewalk, etc., down and paid for. No reasonable offer refused, owner going to Europe. W. P. Middlebrooks, Box 124—Monroe, Ga.

NEAR DUBLIN—Beautiful, new 9-room brick residence, tile roof, oil heat, fine tile bath, cedar lined closets, three fine tile baths, cost $10,000. Owner transferred. Will sell for $14,500; $2,500 cash. E. L. Barling, Walnut 0620.

EAST ATLANTA—1411-1430. May avenue; new five-room bungalow; large lot; large garage; easy terms. Owner. Hemlock 7002-J.

EAST POINT.

FIVE-ROOM bungalow, lot 100x400, $3,350. B. Bennett, Walnut 1511-8795.

HOME BUILDERS—Atlanta Realty & Construction company, Healy building, IVy 8150.

HOPKINS bungalows are different. P. H. Hopkins & Son, Palmer Bldg.

JUST OFF Peachtree, between Brookwood and Buckhead, an 8-room brick bungalow; near schools. Hemlock 7103-J. No agents.

JUST OFF Peachtree, between Brookwood and Buckhead, an 8-room brick bungalow; near schools. Hemlock 7103-J. No agents.

LOVE—One home, Kansas, Walnut 2700.

SEVEN-ROOM bungalow, Howell near High land, large lot. John Allen, IVy 2760.

ONLY 6 houses left on Walborn. No loan. Call Hemlock, IVy 2900.

$4,200 DUPLEX 400 ft. lot. $3,000. Consider vacant lot, owner. Walnut 2700.

Suburban for Sale 87

CLEAR LOT on Tupelo street, just off Boulevard, to trade for automobile. 314 Georgia Savings Bank building.

TO EXCHANGE Real Estate 88

FOR SALE—White and colored property, cheap and easy terms. Will consider auto or truck. Vacant lots or clear farms near Atlanta. W. S. Stroud, 1135 Oak street, N. W., Atlanta, Ga.

Wanted—Real Estate 89

HAVE unlimited amount of money to buy good investment property; will consider apartment houses if well located and the price is right; will pay cash. Purchaser. Address E-30, Constitution.

WANT 6 or 7-room, clear or small lot. Will pay $100 cash, balance monthly, for colored investment property. Walnut 3981.

Wanted—Real Estate 90

HOLTSINGER-LEMMUS AUCTION CO. 304 Forsyth Bldg. Walnut 5585.

SAVING BROOK, real estate auction company. 24 DIXIE SERVICE.

Fullon Industrial Corp. Suite 608 Atlanta Nat Bank Bldg.

Loans on Personal Property.

LOANS ON DIAMONDS Unredeemed Pledges for Sale

MAY BROS., Inc. 1917 PEACHTREE—Upstairs.

Loans on Real Estate

Funds on deposit for FIRST AND SECOND Straight—Monthly—Reducible

MORTGAGE LOANS Immediate Insurance Agency, Inc.

Loans Up to $300 at 31%

Financial Assistance PROMPT, courteous and strictly confidential. Loans on furniture and industrial notes.

Security Industrial Corporation 201 Peters Bldg. Walnut 8077

LOANS UP TO $300 To Husband and Wife

No Indorsement—No Publicity Lawful Interest. No Other Charges.

LOANS ARE MADE for a long time with small monthly payment, with the privilege of paying larger payments or to full at any time. Every dollar paid on loan reduces the interest cost.

"A Different Kind of a Loan Company"

POPULAR FINANCE CORPORATION ROOM 204, SECOND FLOOR

84 PEACHTREE STREET Telephone Walnut 6293-6-7

LOANS Up to $300

REPAYABLE under our easy monthly repayment plan on furniture, pianos, automobiles and industrial notes, etc., at a legal interest rate.

BUSINESS CONFIDENTIAL Southern Security Co., Inc.

2047 AG. Nat. Bk. Bldg. Walnut 0634

for SUMMER MONEY NEEDS

EVERY household has the need for extra funds during the summer months. How to meet them? We have a finance plan whereby you can borrow up to $300 in a dignified and helpful way. Ample repayment time is allowed. The cost is small and based on the actual time the money is used.

The Master Loan Service, Inc. 211-12-13 Healy Bldg. WA. 2377-8

HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

IN 1873, TWO CIVILIAN MEMBERS OF CUSTER'S EXPLORING EXPEDITION INTO THE BLACK HILLS,

A DOCTOR AND A SUTLER, WERE BRUTALLY MURDERED AND SCALPED BY A SOLITARY INDIAN.

A YEAR LATER, RAIN-IN-THE-FACE, A SIOUX NOTED FOR HIS FEROCITY, CAME INTO THE SUTLER'S

STORE OF THE STANDING ROCK AGENCY IN DAKOTA, AND OPENLY BOASTED OF HAVING COMMITTED THE REVOLTING CRIME.

THE MILITARY AUTHORITIES WERE NOTIFIED AND CAPT. TOM CUSTER, BROTHER OF GEN.

CUSTER, ENTERED THE STORE AND SEIZED THE MURDERER WHILE HE WAS DRAWING RATIONS.

RAIN-IN-THE-FACE WAS TAKEN TO FORT ABRAHAM LINCOLN, NEAR BISMARCK, AND HELD FOR TRIAL.

The Vengeance of Rain-in-the-Face. by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

THOUGH CLOSELY WATCHED, HE MANAGED TO ESCAPE AND FLED TO THE VILLAGE OF

SITTING BULL, ENRAGED BY HIS CAPTURE AND IMPRISONMENT, RAIN-IN-THE-FACE SWORE TO

HAVE REVENGE, AND SENT TOM CUSTER A MESSAGE, VOWING THAT WHEN NEXT HE MET

THAT OFFICER HE WOULD KILL HIM, CUT OUT HIS HEART AND EAT IT.

DATE BROUGHT THE TWO FACE TO FACE TWO YEARS LATER AT THE BATTLE OF THE LITTLE BIG HORN, WHEN THE SIOUX MASSACRED GEN. CUSTER AND HALF OF HIS REGIMENT.

CAPT. TOM CUSTER FELL ON THAT BLOODY FIELD BY A SHOT FROM RAIN-IN-THE-FACE'S REVOLVER,

AND THE CRUEL SAVAGE MADE GOOD HIS FIENDISH THREAT.

TOMORROW—BEGINNING OF THE SIOUX WAR.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

Houses for Sale

TEN-ROOM HOUSE—Capitol avenue home, two baths, no loan, terms. Charles E. Thompson, 301 Gould building. Walnut 1432.

ANDREWS DRIVE—100x200 ft. bargain at $14,000. C. L. Greene, Walnut 4369.

AVONDALE ESTATES, OFFICE ON THE PROPERTY, PHONE DEARBORN 8700.

LOT on Yorkville road has to be sold. Hemlock 734-J or Walnut 2607.

WEST WESLEY AVENUE—Between Habersham and North Side drive, beautiful wooded site. 100x400 ft. $9,000. Call Mr. Royer, R. M. Grant company, WA. 1600.

IT BEAUTIFUL building site on Roxboro road near E. River's property will be sold Wednesday, 1 p. m., on easy terms. Barbecue. Drive out.

2 LOTS 78x175 Johns Druid Hills, $1,750 and $2,500, owner Walnut 2700.

Investment Property 85A

FOR investment property, store and meat stand and lot H. V. Mulkey, West 827-J.

42 NEGRO LOTS.

ON ASHLEY street and streets running off of Ashley, paved, sidewalk, etc., down and paid for. No reasonable offer refused, owner going to Europe. W. P. Middlebrooks, Box 124—Monroe, Ga.

NEAR DUBLIN—Beautiful, new 9-room brick residence, tile roof, oil heat, fine tile bath, cedar lined closets, three fine tile baths, cost $10,000. Owner transferred. Will sell for $14,500; $2,500 cash. E. L. Barling, Walnut 0620.

EAST ATLANTA—1411-1430. May avenue; new five-room bungalow; large lot; large garage; easy terms. Owner. Hemlock 7002-J.

EAST POINT.

FIVE-ROOM bungalow, lot 100x400, $3,350. B. Bennett, Walnut 1511-8795.

HOME BUILDERS—Atlanta Realty & Construction company, Healy building, IVy 8150.

HOPKINS bungalows are different. P. H. Hopkins & Son, Palmer Bldg.

JUST OFF Peachtree, between Brookwood and Buckhead, an 8-room brick bungalow; near schools. Hemlock 7103-J. No agents.

JUST OFF Peachtree, between Brookwood and Buckhead, an 8-room brick bungalow; near schools. Hemlock 7103-J. No agents.

LOVE—One home, Kansas, Walnut 2700.

SEVEN-ROOM bungalow, Howell near High land, large lot. John Allen, IVy 2760.

ONLY 6 houses left on Walborn. No loan. Call Hemlock, IVy 2900.

$4,200 DUPLEX 400 ft. lot. $3,000. Consider vacant lot, owner. Walnut 2700.

Suburban for Sale 87

CLEAR LOT on Tupelo street, just off Boulevard, to trade for automobile. 314 Georgia Savings Bank building.

TO EXCHANGE Real Estate 88

FOR SALE—White and colored property, cheap and easy terms. Will consider auto or truck. Vacant lots or clear farms near Atlanta. W. S. Stroud, 1135 Oak street, N. W., Atlanta, Ga.

Wanted—Real Estate 89

HAVE unlimited amount of money to buy good investment property; will consider apartment houses if well located and the price is right; will pay cash. Purchaser. Address E-30, Constitution.

WANT 6 or 7-room, clear or small lot. Will pay $100 cash, balance monthly, for colored investment property. Walnut 3981.

Wanted—Real Estate 90

HOLTSINGER-LEMMUS AUCTION CO. 304 Forsyth Bldg. Walnut 5585.

SAVING BROOK, real estate auction company. 24 DIXIE SERVICE.

Fullon Industrial Corp. Suite 608 Atlanta Nat Bank Bldg.

Loans on Personal Property.

LOANS ON DIAMONDS Unredeemed Pledges for Sale

MAY BROS., Inc. 1917 PEACHTREE—Upstairs.

Loans on Real Estate

Funds on deposit for FIRST AND SECOND Straight—Monthly—Reducible

MORTGAGE LOANS Immediate Insurance Agency, Inc.

Loans Up to $300 at 31%

Financial Assistance PROMPT, courteous and strictly confidential. Loans on furniture and industrial notes.

Security Industrial Corporation 201 Peters Bldg. Walnut 8077

LOANS UP TO $300 To Husband and Wife

No Indorsement—No Publicity Lawful Interest. No Other Charges.

LOANS ARE MADE for a long time with small monthly payment, with the privilege of paying larger payments or to full at any time. Every dollar paid on loan reduces the interest cost.

"A Different Kind of a Loan Company"

POPULAR FINANCE CORPORATION ROOM 204, SECOND FLOOR

84 PEACHTREE STREET Telephone Walnut 6293-6-7

LOANS Up to $300

REPAYABLE under our easy monthly repayment plan on furniture, pianos, automobiles and industrial notes, etc., at a legal interest rate.

BUSINESS CONFIDENTIAL Southern Security Co., Inc.

2047 AG. Nat. Bk. Bldg. Walnut 0634

for SUMMER MONEY NEEDS

EVERY household has the need for extra funds during the summer months. How to meet them? We have a finance plan whereby you can borrow up to $300 in a dignified and helpful way. Ample repayment time is allowed. The cost is small and based on the actual time the money is used.

The Master Loan Service, Inc. 211-12-13 Healy Bldg. WA. 2377-8

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Real Estate.

Peachtree Road Frontage

WE are offering several hundred feet of frontage on

Peachtree road, with an average depth of 600 feet in the Point Peachtree section, at a greatly reduced price for quick sale. For full details see

ADAMS-CATES CO.

Realtors

208 Grant Bldg.

NORTH SIDE SPECIAL.

THIS is addressed to someone who wants an attractive two-story brick, set on large corner lot with beautiful spacious lawn, flower garden and shrubbery. Located in excellent section near cars, stores, bus and school. Four large airy bedrooms, hot water heat, electric porch with ten windows. Private corner, two-car garage, servants' quarters. Recently reduced to less than $15,000. Mr. Roberts, H.E. 5105-W, or Walnut 8080.

WONDERFUL VALUES

$6,000—Most attractive building lot with frontage of 110 feet on Clifton road, overlooking golf course, unusual depth, beautifully shaded, nicely elevated, conveniently located and a splendid buy.

$2,750—Slightly elevated and well shaded home site with frontage of 70 feet on East Clifton road, convenient to car line, Emory university and community center.

WE ARE ready at all times to serve you. Call Mr. Tomlinson, H.E. 1034, or Mr. David H.E. 3331, after office hours, if more convenient to you. Druid Hills Sales Office, 1702-07 Candler Bldg., WA. 3970.

Mid-Week Specials

$3,500—COZY HOME, nestled in a setting of trees and shrubbery. Five major rooms and bath. Lot is large and faces on new concrete street. Car line two blocks.

$3,800—ATTRACTIVE five-room frame, on corner lot. Both streets concrete. Good neighborhood. Small cash payment, balance like rent.

$8,975—BEAUTIFUL seven-room home on corner lot, almost in sight of Emory university. Both streets paved. This house has been built just long enough for the grass and shrubbery to be well set. Four lovely bedrooms, large basement; awnings, garage and garden.

$1,350—BEAUTIFUL five-room, one and a half bath, on paved street near Emory university. All conveniences.

FOR APPOINTMENT call DE. 3004-R or WA. 7111.

Empire Trust Co.

Brookwood Section

ATTRACTIVE Dutch Colonial home in restricted section, one block from Peachtree road. Has nice entrance hall and other arrangements downstairs. Upstairs, 3 bedrooms and two tiled baths. Cost over $12,000. Now priced at $10,000, but owner wants proposition for quick sale. Call E. F. Ansley, WA. 0036.

Rankin-Whitten Realty Co.

BRIARCLIFF ROAD BARGAIN

WE are offering a new 6-room brick home in this exclusive section, at the price asked in the preliminary section. This home is situated on a well drained lot, and is finished in a very pleasing manner with daffodil walls, tile and scagliola bath

